LACK OF NEWS IS DECLINES APPEAL OF GREATLY ANNOYING ALLIES TO STOP ALL SHIPPING CIRCLES SUBMARINES MOVE

Whereabouts of U-53 Proves Great Annoyance British Shipping

INSURANCE ON CARGO HAS BEEN CANCELLED

There May Be An Embargo on Freight For New York As Allied Trade Is Blocked Off That Port by Presence of Submarines.

New York, Oct. 10.—A day and night without further news of the U-53 has not quieted any of the anxiety in shipping circles caused by the German raid off Nantuxet. If anything the disappearance of the German U-boat and the mystery regarding its present location increased the anxiety of the owners of shipping interests and the insurance underwriters.

NO TRACE OF THE SUBMARINE

Newport, R. I., Oct. 10.—The crew of the British ship Kingstonian missing since Sunday when the members abandoned their ship upon command of an officer of a German submarine off Nantuxet lightship had not been heard from today. Eleven torpedo boat destroyers were dispatched to the vicinity of the lightship to search for survivors. No further report of the submarine so far has been received other than the formation of losses other than the six steamships destroyed Sunday. There has been no trace of the submarine since its last visit was sent to the bottom Sunday night.

ALLIES CAUSTIC COMMENT ON RAID

Paris, Oct. 10.—Under the headings of "blackmail and defiance" the morning papers print in prominent positions every scrap of news obtainable about the submarine campaign on the American coast accompanied by plentiful comments. The general sentiment of the press is that Germany is challenging the United States with a conviction that her challenge will not be accepted and that neutrals must see to it that they act wisely in not helping the submarine and its commerce in the end.

LEGAL LIGHTS DISAPPOINTED

London, Oct. 10.—The Times legal correspondent dealing with the German submarine activity of the American coast said it is a long distance blockade of the British allies which is utterly infeasible in international law. It amounts in practice the correspondent adds to a Pacific blockade of the American coast. A Pacific blockade is a form of coercion adopted in time of peace to bring a wrong doing state into reason. If in this instance this applied to the United States there will be many surprised international lawyers.
