ROCKY MOUNT, N. C.

Around Town

Leaves for North—Mr. L. Schultz has left for Northern markets to buy a new stock of goods for Schultz's Department Store.

Must File Returns—All income tax payers in Rocky Mount and vicinity must file returns for 1918 on or before March 15. The income tax man, Mr. R. M. Spencer, will be here only one more day. Unless those desiring aid in properly filing their returns see Mr. Spencer before tomorrow night, it will be too late. Mr. Spencer's office hours are from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m., and he will answer questions and solve income tax problems free of charge.

Returned Soldier Visitor—Private Henry L. Bates, of Covington, Va., recently returned from overseas, where he saw service for four months, is in the city visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. E. Morgan, 1052 Hilliard street. The young man did long duty fighting on the Verdun front, and was wounded in the left arm by a machine gun bullet October 30. He also served in the Argonne. Private Bates was a member of the Fifth Division.

Recital Tonight—Miss Alice Aydlett Williams, of the local school faculty, assisted by Misses Maggie Stafford Howell and Estelle Cottrell, will give a recital at the First Methodist church tonight at eight o'clock. Miss Williams will render the instrumental numbers on the program, while Misses Howell and Cottrell will sing the vocal selections. The recital should appeal to all music lovers and a large crowd is expected to attend. A silver offering will be taken, and the proceeds will go to the benefit of St. Ann's Guild.
