DEMOCRACY WINS; JAPANESE ROYALTY NOW SHAPSHOTTED

Tokio June 10—Permission has just been granted to take photographs of the family as they appear in public driving in a carriage but not when they are on horseback or afoot. This is interpreted here as a very great concession to the spirit of democracy.

In the earlier days of Japan it was popularly supposed that any one gazing on the sacred Emperor would be struck blind. Accordingly his face was always veiled by a fine bamboo mat when an audience was granted. As late as 1915, on the occasion of the coronation at Kioto, photographs of the Emperor and Empress exhibited in shop windows had had the faces of their Majesties obscured by a piece of paper.

No snap shots of the Emperor and his consort are appearing frequently in the Japanese newspapers.

EXODUS TO LOWER CALIFORNIA

Mexico City, July 9—Newspaper advice here is that there is a lively exodus of Mexicans from the United States, their destination being the lower California where agricultural colonies are being formed, three thousand such persons are said to have entered Mexico during the last week in June.

Allowed to Allow Operation Takes Tanlac and Her Troubles End

When they told me that the only relief from my troubles lay in an operation, it just seemed more I could bear and I refused to allow it. Then my husband got Tanlac for me and here I am well and strong. My health broke down more than a year ago. I continued, "and I just went from bad to worse until it looked like I'd never be any better. My stomach was in a terrible condition. I had no appetite and all I could eat was little milk toast and custard and even that soured on my stomach and formed a mass that kept me in misery for hours at a time. My whole system seemed filled with poisons; my head ached like it would split, my heart fluttered and acted strangely and on top of all my other misery, rheumatism set in and racked my joints from head to foot. Finally I had to take to my bed and call a physician to attend to me. I was told that an operation was the only thing that would relieve me, but I wouldn't submit. Then I tried Tanlac as a last resort.

I improved from the time I started taking Tanlac right up to now. I have taken four bottles and am up going all the time, doing my own housework, eating most anything I want and plenty of it, and feeling better than I have in a long time. I haven't a pain in my body anymore. The rheumatism is gone, my stomach is in splendid condition and I'm feeling stronger every day. Tanlac is the greatest medicine I have ever tried and it has proven every claim made for it in my case."

Tanlac is sold in Rocky Mount exclusively by the Kysor Drug Co.; in Asheville by the Nashville Drug Co.; in Spring Hope by the Southside Pharmacy; in Castalia by the Castalia Drug Co.; in Sharpsburg by Hudspeeth & Robb; in Whitakers by Bartholomew Drug Co., and by leading druggists in every town.—adv.

About Town

Returns from Elizabethtown.—Mrs. G. T. Matthews returned yesterday afternoon from Elizabethtown where she has been on an extended visit.

Victor in City.—Mrs. W. I. Peal, of Elizabethtown, arrived in the city today and is the guest of Mrs. G. T. Matthews at her home on Nash street.

Annual Dance.—Quite a number of the younger set in Rocky Mount attended the Garber-Davis dance in Wilson last night. Several cars made the trip in spite of the bad weather, and all present report a gay night.

Leaves for Blowing Rock.—Mr. Thomas H. Battle leaves tomorrow for Henderson, where he will be joined by his family who will accompany him on a two weeks' trip to Blowing Rock.

BALL GAME SATURDAY

A baseball game between the scouts of No. Six troop and Red Oak will be staged on the Edgemont grounds Saturday afternoon at 3:30. As the scouts have made a fine record under the direction of their scoutmaster, Rev. B. B. Slaughter, having won thirty out of forty-two games, but were recently defeated for the first time by the Red Oak aggregation, it is expected that tomorrow's contest will be a hard fought one. Ice cream and cake will be sold on the field, and all efforts taken to protect the spectators against the heat. It is hoped that a large crowd will turn out for the respective clubs.
