BOARD ALDERMEN HAS LIVELY SESSION

Appearance Circus in City and Gas Extension Gave Thrills for Session

MEETING CONTINUED

Proposed School Bond Election Settled—Date Circus Conflicts with the Local Fair—Special Continuation Matters Tonight.

Much like a moving picture serial was the regular meeting of the board of aldermen last night. Plenty of thrills were provided during the lengthy three hour session, but right in the midst of the biggest thrill of them all the council decided that it was bed time and forthwith adjourned.

The first question taken up was the substantiation of the recent vote made by the board at a special meeting which provided for a bond election for early November, the bonds in question to be used on school improvements and not to exceed $30,000 in amount.

Mr. J. V. Bassett presented a special resolution from the school board, which stipulated the details of the election and provided for a new registration of the city voters.

With this matter satisfactorily adjusted, Mr. Bassett broached the question of John Robinson's Circus being allowed to come to the city on Monday, Sept. 29, the day before the Rocky Mount fair is scheduled to open.

Mr. Bassett urged that, if possible, in justice to the undertaking of the local Fair Association a change of date for the appearance of the circus in the city should be made in order that the success of the fair might not suffer.

After hearing Mr. Maddy, advance agent of the Robinson's Shows, who stated that he did not know until he arrived in the city that the show date conflicted with the local fair and that on account of the contracts and bills already let out in the city, changing the date would be impossible.

With the temporary adjustment of this thrill, the board returned to consideration of several unimportant and routine matters. Mr. W. C. Woodward requested permission for the erection of a drive in gasoline filling station, to cost approximately $5,000, at the intersection of Main and Washington streets.

Requests from citizens that the vacant field between Washington, Henry and Buzz streets be put in sanitary condition and an electric light be put up at

BULGARS RECEIVE TERMS OF ALLIES

Presentation Treaty Took Only Twenty Minutes—This Morning

25 DAYS ARE GRANTED

Clemenceau Opens Session With Brief Speech—Head of Bulgarian Commission Declares People were not to Blame for War.

Paris, Sept. 19.—The treaty of peace between the allied and associated powers and Bulgaria was presented to the Bulgarian commission at the foreign office at 10:40 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Theodoroff spoke for fifteen minutes pleading that the Bulgarian people were not responsible for the war but that the Bulgarian government had thrown the country into the struggle.

After both the gentlemen concerned had been heard on the matter, the board decided that no action should be taken by the city. The question of revoking the transfer license of a Mr. Daniels on account of some trouble into which his driver had gotten was taken up.

Permission to allow Mr. W. H. Brown to install a gasoline tank in front of his place, which had been considered at a previous meeting, was brought up for consideration again by Alderman Capelle.

Willie J. Thomas asked permission to run a transfer in the city. Bruce Paddison colored appeared before the board and, declaring that he had been converted to the Baptist church two weeks and three days ago and had quit gambling in an effort to lead a righteous life, requested license to run a pressing club.

There the first chapter of the serial ended before the board received any of the committee reports and even finished all petitions; but the background was set for the continuation of the session tonight, and a most lively and the grand ballroom promises to be.

JOHN ROBINSON'S CIRCUS IS COMING

Two Performances Will be Given in Rocky Mount on Sept. 29.

John Robinson's circus is coming to Rocky Mount this season. The date set is Monday, September 29th, and that means that the big show will arrive the Sunday before and practically spend two days here.

Last year John Robinson tried to come to Rocky Mount but the 'flu' epidemic stopped him. At Raleigh he was forced to turn his trains northward and hurry back to winter quarters.

This year there is nothing to stop the show from exhibiting here and Mr. Robinson proposes to give the residents of Rocky Mount and vicinity the best circus in the universe.

The circus is given in three rings, on two stages, around a wide hippodrome track and in an aerial conclave. The main tent encloses all this and comfortably seats ten thousand people.

the corner of Arlington and Henry streets were presented and referred to the proper committees with power to act.

These came the big thrill of the evening and the one which furnished the bang that caused adjournment until tonight. Complaint was registered from the residents of Peachtree and Ridge streets, Columbia avenue and Falls road on the small supply of gas which they were receiving and its unusually low pressure.

JOHNSON ATTACKS LEAGUE COVENANT

California Senator Speaks to Session of Minnesota Legislature

DELAY MEANS VICTORY

Tells Lawmakers that People are Learning the Real Status and will Soon Demand Rejection of the Covenant.

St. Paul, Sept. 19.—Senator Hiram W. Johnson, of California, in an address delivered to a special session of the Minnesota Legislature this morning expressed opinion that if action of the league could be delayed 60 days the people would speak in positive terms and insist upon its defeat or amendment as to protect the country's interest.

Statement that immediate action to stabilize the nation is necessary is ignored," he said, "the pitiless logic of events is gradually dispelling the haze with which it advocates have enveloped the so-called league of nations."

"The diplomacy and intrigues of the war and counter war with which we catch a hasty glimpse through a rigorous European censorship are slowly but surely presenting it in its true aspect and making plain its real design. As our people become nearer normal and see again with clearer visions they begin to understand the iniquity of the things."

GOVERNOR DESIRES TRUTHFUL TAXATION

Advocates Revaluation Act Before State and Council at University

Chapel Hill, Sept. 18.—"An act to make the tax books of North Carolina speak the truth," was the way Governor Bickett described the revaluation act before the state council at the University of North Carolina today.

"The man who does not love this act loves a lie and the truth is not in him," the governor continued. He pointed out the moral improvement that would follow the new system, said that it would attract capital to the state and that it would wipe out inequalities in taxation.

Sixty-nine counties are represented at the council, according to Dr. E. C. Branson. A large number of the officials are women. They were particularly interested in the conference led by Judge Charles N. Fiedelson, of the children's court of Savannah, and asked many questions.

Dr. W. S. Rankin, secretary of the state board of health, told the council that health in North Carolina was controlled by the citizens. "On public health you cannot pass the buck to God," he said.

"There is no amount of money too large to be paid in salary to the well prepared teacher," said Dr. E. C. Branson, superintendent of public instruction, in explaining that the new school law would bring in more money. Other benefits, he said, were the prolongation of the term, increased attendance, better teachers, and better school conditions.

Other speakers were George Howard, Jr., superintendent Edgecombe county schools; W. C. Bora, chairman county commissioners of Guilford; W. L. Spoon, engineer U. S. public road works.
