

THE WEATHER
Colder and Fair, Temp.
H. 41; L. 31.

THE EVENING TELEGRAM

"ROCKY MOUNT
LEADS THE WAY
EVERY DAY"

VOL. XIV. NO. 182.

ROCKY MOUNT, N. C. - MONDAY AFTERNOON, JANUARY 26, 1920.

PRICE 5 CENTS

NUMBER SUICIDES SHOWS BIG GAINS SINCE END OF WAR

Miserable Living Conditions Responsible in European Nations

EDITORS APPEAR TO BE IMMUNE ON LIST

Lawyers Lead Among Professional Men in this Country, According to Report Just Tabulated for the Past Year.

New York, Jan. 25.—Since the ending of the war there has been a constantly increasing number of suicides everywhere, according to a report just tabulated by the National League. In Germany, Russia, Spain and other foreign countries where the number has been very large, the same is attributed to destitution and miserable living conditions brought about by the war.

The report tabulated by the United States during 1919, of the professional lawyers, with 11, of whom 12 were killed by typhoid, cholera, influenza, pneumonia and other diseases, and 11 were killed by other causes, including 11 women.

BRITISH MINERS EDUCATE PUBLIC

Coal Miners Try to Win Support of People in Nationalization Project

London, Jan. 25.—British coal miners are entering upon a strenuous campaign to educate the public in the nationalization project. They are backed by the coal owners and the government. An attempt is being made to show that the nationalization project will be fought with national unity.

As the result of the nationalization project, the coal industry will be brought under national control. The government has announced that it will take over the coal industry.

Dr. Hornbeck will Speak To Current Topics Club

Dr. E. G. Hornbeck, of the University of North Carolina, will speak at the weekly meeting of the Current Topics Club which will be held at the Y. W. C. A. this evening at 7:30.

Possible Delay in The Newberry Case

Grand Rapids, Mich., Jan. 25.—Possibility of a delay in the opening of the trial set for tomorrow of Senator Thurston H. Newberry and 131 others, indicted on charges of violating the election laws, appeared this morning when it was learned that Attorney Murfin of defense council was confined to his home with influenza.

WORLD'S LARGEST DAM PLANNED IN AUSTRALIA

Sydney, Australia, Jan. 25.—One of the largest irrigation dams in the world is to be built on Murray river, largest in Australia. It is to be named the Hume dam and erected at Mitta Mitta on the island between Victoria and New South Wales. The irrigation scheme will benefit three states.

TRADE MISSION TO CENTRAL AMERICA

Considerable Interest in Business Circles in Approaching Expedition

Washington, Jan. 25.—There is considerable interest in the proposed trade mission to Central America, which is expected to depart for the continent in the near future. The mission is being organized by the United States government.

The mission is being organized by the United States government. It is expected to consist of a number of business men and government officials.

LODGE DISCLAIMS PACT COMPROMISE

Tells Democrats that There Can be no Compromise on Two Issues

Republican Leader Refuses to be Shaken on Article Ten and Provision Concerning the Monroe Doctrine.

Washington, Jan. 25.—No change in the program of the Republican party is being considered by the leadership of the party, according to a statement made by the party's leader.

COBB ADDRESSES LARGE AUDIENCE

Attacks Radicalism in This Country and Abroad True American Spirit

Atlanta, Jan. 25.—A large audience gathered to hear the address of Mr. Cobb, who spoke on the subject of radicalism in this country and abroad.

MUNICIPAL SETTO IN PHILADELPHIA

Many Changes City Offices With Installation New Mayor

Philadelphia, Jan. 25.—Many changes in the city offices are being made in preparation for the installation of the new mayor.

Bolshevik Troops Have Reached Chinese Frontier

London, Jan. 25.—An official statement issued by the Soviet government says that Bolshevik troops have reached the Chinese frontier.

German Minister of Finance is Wounded

Berlin, Jan. 25.—Marlow, Finance Minister of Germany, was wounded in an attack on his home in the city of Berlin.

FOUR TEAMS PLAY AT JACKSONVILLE MARCH 29

New York, Jan. 25.—Four major league teams in a double-header is an innovation in pre-season baseball series. It was announced here today for Jacksonville, Fla., March 29.

INFLUENZA IS NOW RAPIDLY SPREADING TO VARIOUS STATES

Epidemic is Now Generally Prevalent Throughout Twenty States

TWO THOUSAND NEW CASES IN MICHIGAN

Numerous Other New Cases Reported in Kansas, Ohio and New York—The Total Deaths in Chicago Reach New High Record for Day

Chicago, Jan. 25.—Influenza is now rapidly spreading to various states. The epidemic is now generally prevalent throughout twenty states. In Michigan, there were two thousand new cases reported today.

CHICAGO DEATH TOLL 1278 NEW SPORES

Chicago, Jan. 25.—The death toll in Chicago today reached a new high record of 1,278 new spores.

ANCIENT JEWELRY HAS SET NEW FAD

Crown Jewels of Egyptian Princess 4000 Years Ago Exhibited in N. Y.

New York, Jan. 25.—The crown jewels of an Egyptian princess, 4,000 years old, are being exhibited in New York.

MUNICIPAL SETTO IN PHILADELPHIA

Many Changes City Offices With Installation New Mayor

Philadelphia, Jan. 25.—Many changes in the city offices are being made in preparation for the installation of the new mayor.

POWATAN AGAIN IN TOW TOWARDS PORT OF HALIFAX

Halifax, Jan. 25.—The Powhatan, a Canadian steamer, is again in tow towards the port of Halifax.

Italian Mob Clashes With Armed Carbiners

Rome, Jan. 25.—A clash between Italian mobsters and armed carabinieri occurred in Rome today.

No Official News of Bolshevik Capture

Washington, Jan. 25.—No official news has been received regarding the capture of a Bolshevik.

STORMS ARE PREDICTED TO BREAK OFF TONIGHT

Atlanta, Jan. 25.—Rain and sleet storms which have prevailed throughout the northeast Georgia and the Carolinas for the past thirty six hours are expected to give way tonight and tomorrow to clearing weather, according to the weather bureau here.

STRICT PASSPORT RULES ARE ANNOUNCED IN EGYPT

Cairo, Jan. 25.—Field Marshal Kitchener in Egypt and the Sudan, has announced by proclamation that new passport regulations designed to have desirable effects will go into effect February 1st.

WROTE HIS WILL ON HER PICTURE

London.—"I leave all to her," Lieutenant Frank R. Kirkley wrote on a photograph of Muriel K. Smith that was found in his pocket when he was killed in France. The will has been admitted to probate. Kirkley left $1,000.

MARTINS TO GIVE FACTS TO SENATE

Communist Fines Questions of Self-Styled Soviet Ambassador

TALK ON PROPAGANDA

Martins Declares Soviet Government has Fund to Spend on Necessities—Has Made No Attempt to Set up Soviet Here.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Senator Martins will give facts to the Senate regarding the activities of the self-styled Soviet ambassador.

GERMANY DIVIDED ON UNITY ISSUES

Bavaria and Saxony Oppose Movement for Unified German State

Berlin, Jan. 25.—The suggestion originating in the Prussian Diet that the national government should the nationalization of the federal states in the question of creating a unified German state has aroused opposition in Bavaria and Saxony.

STORMS ARE PREDICTED TO BREAK OFF TONIGHT

Atlanta, Jan. 25.—Rain and sleet storms which have prevailed throughout the northeast Georgia and the Carolinas for the past thirty six hours are expected to give way tonight and tomorrow to clearing weather, according to the weather bureau here.

STRICT PASSPORT RULES ARE ANNOUNCED IN EGYPT

Cairo, Jan. 25.—Field Marshal Kitchener in Egypt and the Sudan, has announced by proclamation that new passport regulations designed to have desirable effects will go into effect February 1st.

WROTE HIS WILL ON HER PICTURE

London.—"I leave all to her," Lieutenant Frank R. Kirkley wrote on a photograph of Muriel K. Smith that was found in his pocket when he was killed in France. The will has been admitted to probate. Kirkley left $1,000.

TOMLINSON URGES AMERICAN IDEALS

Speaker at the First Baptist Pleads for Rededication to old Traditions

Washington, Jan. 25.—Speaker Tomlinson, in a plea for rededication to old traditions, urged Americans to stand firm for their principles.

REPLY IS DISCUSSED AT INITIAL MEETING OF THE COUNCIL OF AMBASSADORS WHICH HAS REPLACED SUPREME COUNCIL SINCE DISBANDMENT.

Paris, Jan. 25.—The reply to the refusal of the Dutch government to comply with the demand of the allies for the surrender of former Emperor William was the first subject discussed today at the initial meeting of the council of the ambassadors created to carry on the unfinished routine work of the supreme council of the peace conference which disbanded last week. It was decided that the French legal experts available should go into all the aspects of the case and prepare the reply, which probably will be submitted for approval of the council early next week.

GERMANY DIVIDED ON UNITY ISSUES

Bavaria and Saxony Oppose Movement for Unified German State

Berlin, Jan. 25.—The suggestion originating in the Prussian Diet that the national government should the nationalization of the federal states in the question of creating a unified German state has aroused opposition in Bavaria and Saxony.

STORMS ARE PREDICTED TO BREAK OFF TONIGHT

Atlanta, Jan. 25.—Rain and sleet storms which have prevailed throughout the northeast Georgia and the Carolinas for the past thirty six hours are expected to give way tonight and tomorrow to clearing weather, according to the weather bureau here.

STRICT PASSPORT RULES ARE ANNOUNCED IN EGYPT

Cairo, Jan. 25.—Field Marshal Kitchener in Egypt and the Sudan, has announced by proclamation that new passport regulations designed to have desirable effects will go into effect February 1st.

WROTE HIS WILL ON HER PICTURE

London.—"I leave all to her," Lieutenant Frank R. Kirkley wrote on a photograph of Muriel K. Smith that was found in his pocket when he was killed in France. The will has been admitted to probate. Kirkley left $1,000.

ALLIES CONSIDER A FURTHER REPLY TO REFUSALS OF DUTCH

Note Will be Drafted by Numerous Legal Experts of France

Paris, Jan. 25.—The reply to the refusal of the Dutch government to comply with the demand of the allies for the surrender of former Emperor William was the first subject discussed today at the initial meeting of the council of the ambassadors created to carry on the unfinished routine work of the supreme council of the peace conference which disbanded last week. It was decided that the French legal experts available should go into all the aspects of the case and prepare the reply, which probably will be submitted for approval of the council early next week.

GERMANY DIVIDED ON UNITY ISSUES

Bavaria and Saxony Oppose Movement for Unified German State

Berlin, Jan. 25.—The suggestion originating in the Prussian Diet that the national government should the nationalization of the federal states in the question of creating a unified German state has aroused opposition in Bavaria and Saxony.

STORMS ARE PREDICTED TO BREAK OFF TONIGHT

Atlanta, Jan. 25.—Rain and sleet storms which have prevailed throughout the northeast Georgia and the Carolinas for the past thirty six hours are expected to give way tonight and tomorrow to clearing weather, according to the weather bureau here.

STRICT PASSPORT RULES ARE ANNOUNCED IN EGYPT

Cairo, Jan. 25.—Field Marshal Kitchener in Egypt and the Sudan, has announced by proclamation that new passport regulations designed to have desirable effects will go into effect February 1st.

WROTE HIS WILL ON HER PICTURE

London.—"I leave all to her," Lieutenant Frank R. Kirkley wrote on a photograph of Muriel K. Smith that was found in his pocket when he was killed in France. The will has been admitted to probate. Kirkley left $1,000.

ALLIES CONSIDER A FURTHER REPLY TO REFUSALS OF DUTCH

Note Will be Drafted by Numerous Legal Experts of France

Paris, Jan. 25.—The reply to the refusal of the Dutch government to comply with the demand of the allies for the surrender of former Emperor William was the first subject discussed today at the initial meeting of the council of the ambassadors created to carry on the unfinished routine work of the supreme council of the peace conference which disbanded last week. It was decided that the French legal experts available should go into all the aspects of the case and prepare the reply, which probably will be submitted for approval of the council early next week.

GERMANY DIVIDED ON UNITY ISSUES

Bavaria and Saxony Oppose Movement for Unified German State

Berlin, Jan. 25.—The suggestion originating in the Prussian Diet that the national government should the nationalization of the federal states in the question of creating a unified German state has aroused opposition in Bavaria and Saxony.

STORMS ARE PREDICTED TO BREAK OFF TONIGHT

Atlanta, Jan. 25.—Rain and sleet storms which have prevailed throughout the northeast Georgia and the Carolinas for the past thirty six hours are expected to give way tonight and tomorrow to clearing weather, according to the weather bureau here.

STRICT PASSPORT RULES ARE ANNOUNCED IN EGYPT

Cairo, Jan. 25.—Field Marshal Kitchener in Egypt and the Sudan, has announced by proclamation that new passport regulations designed to have desirable effects will go into effect February 1st.

WROTE HIS WILL ON HER PICTURE

London.—"I leave all to her," Lieutenant Frank R. Kirkley wrote on a photograph of Muriel K. Smith that was found in his pocket when he was killed in France. The will has been admitted to probate. Kirkley left $1,000.