Jesse L. Lasky presents

Cecil B. DeMille's PRODUCTION

"WHY CHANGE YOUR WIFE?"

A Paramount Artcraft Picture

He had no more faults than most men, but his wife acted as his governess rather than his sweetheart. So a dashing little model at the "Maison Chic" snuggled into his life and—the wife won in the end. Come and see how.

THE MAN'S SIDE OF MODERN MARRIAGE
A brilliant, living answer to Cecil B. DeMille's "Don't Change Your Husband." Presented with all the intimate real-life action, all the beauty of person, grooming and setting that only DeMille can put on the screen. Played by a notable cast headed by:

THOMAS MEIGHAN
BEEBEE DANIELS

GLORIA SWANSON
THEODORE KOSLOFF

"THE COUNTRY COUSIN" OFFICIALLY ENDORSED BY TWO PRESIDENTS

"The Country Cousin," a Scotch picture, in which Elaine Hammerstein starred, was praised by President and Mrs. Wilson and the late Theodore Roosevelt, when it was presented by Klaw and Erlanger as a stage play in New York. After President and Mrs. Wilson had witnessed the performance, the nation's chief executive wrote a letter in which he expressed himself and Mrs. Wilson as having been given much pleasure, particularly because of the "simplicity, dignity and simplicity" of the piece, and because they had been "amused" "something thoroughly worth going to."

The night that the play opened in New York former President Roosevelt occupied a stage box. He was recognized between the acts, and in response to applause, rose in his place and made a short speech in praise of the play.

"The Country Cousin" tells the story of a girl who comes from Ohio to New York and then goes to New York, experiencing some interesting adventures as the central figure in a group which includes a number of so-called "peasants." The play is from the pen of South Tarkington and Julius Street, and was a pronounced success as a stage play. The screen version, containing all the charms of the original play, will be seen at the Palace Theater on Thursday.

WALLACE REID "SICK ABED" BUT THERE'S NO CAUSE TO WORRY

Handsome Star a Lively Invalid in Screen Version of Popular Stage Farce

Handsome Wallace Reid lying in bed, a towel around his head and a pretty nurse and two doctors at attendance. This is the sight that would have met your eye, had you visited the Lasky studios recently. And you might have wondered if Wallace had paid the price at last for the reckless daring that he displays in those automobile racing scenes of his.

But you would quickly have learned a different story. Mr. Reid was just making scenes for his new picture "Sick Abed," which will be at the Palace Theater next Friday. For the picture is one of those depressing dramas, with half the cast dying off before the third reel.

On the contrary, "Sick Abed" is one of the liveliest field pictures ever produced. Wallace Reid is ill, not even for the purpose. He is just shamming, according to the story, in order not to incriminate a friend of his in a divorce suit. And the pretty nurse who looks after him is none other than Bebe Daniels, the dusky beauty of "Male and Female" and "Why Change Your Wife?" "Sick Abed" will make real invalids forget their pain and cause well folks to roar with mirth.

INDIANS ASK AID FROM NEW PARTY

Speaker Declares Twelve Million have Slaved for 5 Cents a Day

Mexico City, June 11.—Twelve million Indians, who have slaved for five cents a day for five years at a time to support 3,000,000 others, cry out for help to the newly formed National Agrarian party, according to Obisforo meeting here yesterday, according to El Heraldo De Mexico.

"Since childhood I have lived the life of the peasants," said Obisforo. "I know how much the toilers of the field have suffered, how much they need and how much they must. They have spent five years at a time carrying the miserable daily wage of ten centavos (five cents) tilling the earth with the sweat of their brow for other people's profit. In the beginning of our history as a people the Indians were reduced to worse than nothing by the Spanish agents, who, to enslave them, inoculated in them fanaticism for the Virgin of Guadalupe, so as to be able to do anything they pleased with them later, by involving this name; and the Indian was reduced to slavery."

"For this reason the Indian hates the white man. The Indians, who call the animal that roams the fields 'cuan heneyos,' simply call the white man 'coyote,' that is thief. This because for a long time there have been in Mexico 12,000,000 Indians who have supported 3,000,000 others and not a few Europeans who also live off of them."

Bitter attacks on President Carranza and some followers featured the address of the newly-elected President Antonio Diaz Sotey Gama, who said that Emiliano Zapata was his "only chief."

Sotey Gama pledged the party's support to the presidential candidacy of General Alvaro Obregon because of his "radicalism," and because he "is feared by the reactionaries."

Generals Alvaro Obregon, Salvador Alvarado, Plutarco Elias Giles, Antonio Villarreal and Gilardo Baganu were elected honorary residents of the new party.

ALIENS FORCED TO PAY INCOME TAXES

Huge Sums Secured from Outgoing Aliens Who Try to Evade Payment

New York, July 2.—Between nine and ten millions of dollars have been gathered from outgoing aliens who were too modest to declare the full amount of their earnings for income tax payments and many thousands more are being collected from delinquent aliens who hoard of their ample incomes to immigration inspectors to convince those officials that they are easily cared for in foreign lands, according to a statement made public here by Col. Daniel L. Porter, supervising internal revenue agent of the federal income tax collecting service.

Early five agents have been kept busy at the port and elsewhere in the city collecting the millions from outgoing aliens. A sound spend in a foreign establishment close by the courts of special inquiry at the Ellis Island station, lead attentive care to the hosts of the aliens.

For the month of February, March and April the reports show that more than $2,000,000 was collected at Ellis Island from alien tax dodgers. Sixty-three lines that amount was traced to five localities and the collectors were notified. The reports for May are not yet filed but the amount collected is said to have increased with the increasing flow of immigration.

"A 'shell' alien," explained Col. Porter, "gives to the immigration station to sponsor a relative or friend for admittance to this country, knowing that a responsible person must guarantee that the immigrant will not become a public charge. The resident alien goes prepared to state on oath that his income is ample to support the public against such delinquents. Whether or not this resident alien has paid his income tax becomes the immediate subject of interest for our agents. They call the delinquent into a conference and, after allowing such exceptions as he may be entitled to, levy tax on the remainder of his sworn statement of income."

"When the tax delinquent is a resident of some city or town not in our district his sworn statement is forwarded to the local collectors, who make the collections, in other cases they will send him and the money sent to the collector of the district wherein the tax delinquent resides. Most moneys collected range in amount from $15 to $500 and represent taxes due the government on small business concerns and on wages."

JENNY BE GOOD, FINE VE-HICLE FOR MARY MILES MINTER

Famous Star and Strong Cast Make Fine Material For New Play

Mary Miles Minter's latest photodrama, "Jenny Be Good," which will be the principal attraction of the program at the Palace Wednesday, is from the pen of William Ingeley Fauley.

The story deals with a little girl, Jenny Biano, who is cared for by her old grandmother. She meets and secretly marries Royal Rowshaw, the son of parents who have social aspirations. They learn of his secret marriage and at once set about to part the young couple. Jenny, through their influence, has the marriage annulled, and Royal, due to the deception of his family, marries Jolanda, a debutante of the smart set. There are many contrasts of the vice and virtues of the common people with that of the so-called American aristocracy, and the gripping story is relieved by a vein of humor. Mary Miles Minter as the heroine is supported by a cast which includes Margaret Shelby, Catherine Wallace, Fanny Cosser, Maggie Hallway Fisher, Grace Pike, Jay Helasco and other prominent artists of the screen. Julia Crawford Ivers wrote the scenario and William Desmond Taylor directed it.

CECIL B. DeMILLE'S NEW PRODUCTION IS STRIKING IN THEME

"Why Change Your Wife?" Story of Married Life, Filmed on Lavish Scale

Cecil B. DeMille's latest Paramount Artcraft production, "Why Change Your Wife?" will come to the Palace Theater for two days, commencing Monday next. It is described as a striking drama of married life lavishly presented. Gloria Swanson and Thomas Meighan are the featured players.

The story is by William DeMille. The plot centers around Robert and Beth Gordon, married for ten years, and now beginning to drift apart. Beth was a charming girl. She has become a too widely wife and bore; her husband with her excessive solicitude for his comfort. He finds a pleasure-loving Sally Clark. Literal-minded Beth imagines them in love. A divorce follows, and Robert marries Sally. You late Beth discovers why she left her husband, and, blossoming like a rose, develops into society's sweet figure. Sally, on the other hand, is transformed by marriage into a worse household drudge than Beth ever was. Robert's eyes are opened when he again sees Beth, and through a dramatic series of events they are brought happily together.

The picture has been produced with all the beauty of setting, mastery of screen technique, and admirable attention to detail that was characteristic of Cecil B. DeMille in "Male and Female" and his other cinema classics. Sada Cowan and Olga Printzlin furnished the scenario.

Extra—"The Gingham Girl," Mack Sennett comedy.
