Wilson, July 7.—The Tar Heels won the Bugs in the last game of the day by the overwhelming score of 1 to 1. Robbins was on the mound the Bugs and was steady until the ninth, when he blew up, giving a on balls and allowing four hits, one which netted the visitors six. While Louche was touched up, he was very effective in the first and came out with only one walked up against him, Schweitzer, Ayers contributed the holding feature of the game and both did their stick work.
