Dorothy Gish's Latest Comedy "The Ghost in the Garrett"

Dorothy Gish's latest comedy, "The Ghost in the Garrett," which will be shown at the Palace Theatre next Monday and Tuesday is a ghost chaser from start to finish. The little comedienne is excellent as the girl who, to save her sweetheart from a false charge of stealing a pearl necklace, follows the real thief to a haunted house and after many adventures, recovers the jewels. The situations are not only comical, but they often are highly dramatic. Miss Gish's leading man is William E. Park and he leads a capable supporting company, not to speak of the bulldog "Mike" and talking parrot.

Harold Lloyd's New Feature-Comedy "No Or Never" will also be shown.
