

The perplexities of people in trade have been accumulated. No man thinks himself safe in his traffic with any country in Europe.

WILMINGTON,

APRIL 9, 1861.

Extra of a letter from New-York dated the 23d ult.

"The ship Liberty has arrived this morning in 37 days from Liverpool, bringing intelligence that Mr. Pitt, prime minister, with several other public officers, have resigned. The King of Prussia has shut the port of Hamburg against the British. The Northern Powers have declared war against Great-Britain. 15 sail of the French fleet have failed, destined for Ireland."

The ship Huron, Capt. Cole, in 40 days from Dover, arrived at Charleston the 22d ultimo, and brought London accounts to the 6th of February.

We also find, by our late European advices, that all the strong places, and the whole territory of Italy, are surrendered to the French, the garrisons marching out with the honors of war, with their baggage, and not to be prisoners—thus by the Convention signed at Lunéville, the 26th of January, the fortresses of Mantua is likewise to be surrendered to the French—that Bread was raised in England a whole size; the quarter loaf selling at 1s. 7-4d. [The quarter loaf we understand is 3 1-2 lbs.]

RAN-AWAY, a stout very black Fellow named BALAM, he is about six feet in height, 35 years of age, and limps in his gait; having suffered an injury in one of his hips when a child—he went away last Spring, and is probably in company with a fellow named JOE, belonging to Dr. Hill. Balam is well known in and about Wilmington, and if he is not in this neighbourhood, he will probably be found in the vicinity of Fayetteville, as he has a Brother (named Nat) the property of Mr. Jackson, who lives a little below Rock-creek.

I will give the above reward to any person who will deliver Balam to my Overseer at Hilton plantation, or to the Jailor, at Wilmington.

RAN AWAY

FROM the subscriber on the 25th of March last, a Negro Wench named ABIGAIL or ABBY, with a child at the breast, and her son John who nursed the child, formerly the property of Mrs. Hazell. It is expected that she will be harboured by her husband, an old fellow belonging to Mr. William Campbell, named Cooper Jim, or some of her acquaintances in town.

A reward of ten dollars will be given on the conviction of any negroes harbouring them, and twenty-five dollars if any white person, and five dollars if taken up and confined in Wilmington goal.

But if the wench and boy will return themselves and come to my plantation on Topsail, in the course of a week or ten days, they will be freely pardoned, and be well used.

WILLIAM GREEN.
April 9.

RAN AWAY a few days ago, my boy SPARROW; he is supposed to be about Wilmington, where he is so well known that a description of his person is unnecessary. Whoever will apprehend him, boy and deliver him to me at my Sound plantation, or lodge him in jail, shall be handsomely rewarded.
A. B. TOOMER.
April 9.

STOLEN

ON the 31st day of March last, out of the subscriber's house in Fayetteville, a small Pocket-Book, containing three ten dollar bills of the Bank of South Carolina, and one ten pound bill of the South-Carolina medium. It is supposed they are in the hands of some negro who may attempt to pass them away, in which case I request those to whom said bills or any of them may be offered, to stop the same.

A reward of ten dollars will be given to any person who will give information where the money may be got, and five more for detecting the thief so that he or she may be brought to justice.
EDWARD C. DEBRUH.

ADVERTISEMENT

I HEREBY certify, that some time prior to the decease of Mrs. Thompson, late wife of Mr. John Thompson of this place, (and at the period when in perfect consideration) she the said Mrs. Thompson informed me, that she expected from her ill state of health, not to survive many months in this life, and in consequence of which she had made a reserve of seven hundred dollars, which was in Philadelphia Bank Bills; that she had deposited the said Bills in the hands of a person of the name of H. H. H. residing near Wilmington; that said sum should be retained in the hands of the said person, not exceeding one month after her death, when the person with whom the money is deposited, would come forward and deliver the same to me, to be divided between her three daughters.

A few hours previous to the decease of my former wife, she informed me in a very imperfect dialect, that she had deposited a sum of money in the hands of some person, the amount I am not aware of. A length of time having elapsed since the period of her decease, and no person having come forward on that occasion, I am induced to believe, that the person holding the said money, has carelessly laid it aside, and through neglect has not complied with his obligation.

I therefore take this method to remind and request the person so entrusted, to come forward and deliver the said Bills, to any one of my daughters (Jane, Mary or Sarah) for which I will give a generous donation, if required.
JOHN THOMPSON.
April 7, 1861.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, in George-Town, his waiting man MARCH, on the 15th February. It is strongly presumed that he has made for Wilmington, he being well acquainted there; March is about five feet 4 or 5 inches high, of a yellowish complexion. A reward of THIRTY DOLLARS will be paid to any person lodging said fellow in Wilmington Goal, or delivering him to the subscriber in George-Town, and all reasonable expenses paid.
JOSIAS Wm. ALLSTON.
March 19.—4w.

NOTICE,
AS I intend leaving Wilmington in April next, I request all persons indebted to me to make payment, and those to whom I am indebted are desired to render in their accounts for the same.
Wm. M'KERALL.
April 9.

Matters of vessels and others are forewarned against concealing, taking, or assisting him to get off, or purchasing his uniform—the penalty is a fine of 300 dollars or a year's imprisonment, which will be rigorously enforced.
