FOR SALE,

ASHTON BARN, a very valuable Plantation in Bladen county, on the north-west branch of Cape-Fear river, joining the lands of John Waddle, Esq. containing 700 acres of good land, about 200 acres of which is prime low ground; the whole neatly cleared, with good fences. The dwelling house is large and commodious, two stories high, and every way well finished and ready for the reception of any family. The range for cattle and hogs is excellent. Possession may be had in 12 months from this date or sooner if requisite. Part payment will be required in hand and a long credit for the balance.

AND

1280 acres of Land on Colly swamp in said county, about six miles from Ashton Barn, well timbered, and much tar and turpentine may be made on it convenient to the river.

ALSO

460 acres of Land in New-Hanover county, on the found 12 miles from Wilmington, a part of which is cleared.—This is excellent for corn or cotton, and inferior to no land on the found. It deserves the attention of those who wish for a profitable summer retreat.

LIKEWISE

2000 acres of Land in Duplin county, on the north-east branch of Cape Fear, a few miles above Rockfish. This land is well timbered, and a great part of it capable of cultivation.

A long credit will be given for any of the above tracts of land, and sold low for ready money. Terms may be known by applying at Wilmington to

Evan Jones,

Or at Fayetteville to David Anderson.
Wilmington, Dec. 10. 4w

COTTON GINS.

THE subscriber will in a few days have his Cotton Machines at work on Topfall Sound, and will clean cotton for one-eighth. The Machines are made upon the most improved construction, they do not injure the staple of the cotton in the least—Some cotton that one of them cleaned last year, was sold in Boston at two cents in the pound more than any other of the same species of cotton that was in the market; the difference was in the superiority of the Gin. He will find Bagging to pack the cotton where the owner prefers it.

John Sibley.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

DESERTED on the 13th ult. from the Garrison of Fort-Johnston, JAMES PRICE, a private of Captain James Bruff's company of the first Regiment of Artillerists and Engineers.

He is about 27 years of age, 5 feet 8 inches high, has short sandy hair and grey eyes, fair complexion, and pitted with the small-pox—by trade a printer. Masters of vessels and others are forbidden against concealing, taking, or assisting him to get off.

The above reward will be given if bro't back to this Fort, and all reasonable expences paid.

ENOS NOELAND, Lieut. of the first Reg't of Artillerists and Engineers.
Fort-Johnston, Dec. 1.—3w

I WILL give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will lodge my mulatto Fellow JOHN in Wilmington Jail—he may easily be known by a large scar on his left arm. If he does not come in before the next New-Hanover county court, I will then positively outlaw him.
M. SAMPSON.

December 6. 2w

ELOPED from my plantation on Saturday last, a negro fellow named ABRAM, a Carpenter,—generally known about Wilmington as a Fidler, and has been frequently employed without my consent and to my great loss as such.—I therefore give this notice of his being Run-away, and that he carried off his cloathing and sundry tools. I forbid any person employing him either as a Fidler or in any other capacity, or harbouring or entertaining him, as I am determined to prosecute whoever does either, to the utmost rigour of the Law—and I do hereby promise a Reward of FIFTY DOLLARS, to be paid on conviction, to any person that will give me notice of the person so harbouring or employing him; and ONE DOLLAR besides all expences, for having him confined in Wilmington or any other jail in this state.

Masters of vessels are forbid carrying him off.
Nov. 26. J. BURGWIN.

RAN-AWAY from the subscriber in February 1800, a negro man named SAM, about twenty years of age, a handsome black fellow, about five feet eight or nine inches high, stout built—he is well known in Wilmington, by the name of Jennings's Sam, being purchased of him.

Fifty dollars reward will be paid on his being confined in Jail so that the owner gets him, or three hundred and twenty five dollars will be taken for the chance of him, before apprehended.
J. MUSE.

N. B. Letters on either case will be attended to at Lumbe ton Post-Office.
October 16th, 1801.

I AM authorized by the injured parties, to pronounce in this public manner, that should the person who possesses the money so repeatedly advertised by them, persist in retaining it, there will in a few days be recourse to a disagreeable mode of redress, nor will any frivolous quibbling be admitted as a apology to such a breach of honor and honesty.
NATHAN—for the parties.
