Fayetteville Academy.

ON Thursday evening ended the exhibition of the Students of the Fayetteville Academy preparatory to the Christmas vacation. The examination of this Seminary of useful knowledge and elegant arts, continued for three days before a respectable audience, who expressed the highest satisfaction of the progress made by the young Ladies and Gentlemen; which proves the result of the care of the Teachers of this institution. The number of the young Gentlemen examined on this occasion amounts to sixty—that of the young Ladies' classes to fifty. The Academy will be opened for the reception of Students of both sexes as usual, after holidays, on Monday the 4th of January next.

It is requested Parents and Guardians will be attentive to enter Students as early as possible, as it may contribute to the facility of arranging the classes and the future proficiency of the scholars.

TO RENT,

For a term of years, as may be agreed on. THAT fruitful, healthy and beautiful PLANTATION, near the head of the Sound, known by the name of SEBORLEY ASHBY, on which there is a very commodious and well finished dwelling house, open to the sea beach by an avenue, and about half a mile from the Sound, which at all seasons affords abundance of Fish and the best Oysters in the State. There is also on the same a good Kitchen, Smoke house, Barn, Stable, and Chair house, with a remarkable fine Peach Orchard.—The Land is well adapted to the culture of Corn, Cotton and Indigo, there is adjoining the house about 16 acres of richland Swamp, which can be easily overflowed, most of which is cleared, and will produce excellent Rice. Whoever may rent the same can be accommodated with most kinds of plantation furniture, and supplied with any stock belonging to the land at a valuation.—For terms apply in Wilmington to
PETER MAXWELL.
December 14.—3w.

THE subscriber begs leave to inform the public that he has again commenced business two doors south of Mr. Howard's tavern, where he intends carrying on the Watch Repairing & Silver Smith's Business, and solicits the patronage of those who wish such service; and flatters himself that by assiduity he shall be able to give general satisfaction. He has now on Land a small assortment of Jewelry.
JAMES F. CARPENTER.
Wilmington, Dec. 24.

JACOB LEVY

Inform his friends and the public, that he has opened

A Vendue & Commission STORE

ON Market-wharf, three doors below Messrs. Isaacks and Bishop's store, where he will gladly receive the commands of his former acquaintances, and others, who may be inclined to favor him with their business. He will use his utmost endeavors to serve them with integrity and punctuality.

He has on hand for sale, on low terms, a few puncheons of St. Croix old Rum, one trunk of Calicoes, and two casks of Hard Ware.
Nov. 26.—6w.

FOR SALE,

ASHTON BARN, a very valuable Plantation in Bladen county, on the north-west branch of Cape Fear river, joining the lands of John Waddle, Esq. containing 700 acres of good land, about 200 acres of which is prime low ground; the whole neatly cleared, with good fences. The dwelling house is large and commodious, two stories high, and every way well finished and ready for the reception of any family. The range for cattle and hogs is excellent. Possession may be had in 12 months from this date or sooner if requisite. Part payment will be required in hand and a long credit for the balance.

AND
1280 acres of Land on Colly Swamp in said county, about six miles from Ashton Barn, well timbered, and much tar and turpentine may be made on it convenient to the river.

ALSO
460 acres of Land in New-Hanover county, on the sound 12 miles from Wilmington, a part of which is cleared.—This is excellent for corn or cotton and inferior to no land on the sound. It deserves the attention of those who wish for a profitable summer retreat.

LIKEWISE
2000 acres of Land in Duplin county, on the north-east branch of Cape Fear, a few miles above Rockfish. This land is well timbered, and a great part of it capable of cultivation.

A long credit will be given for any of the above tracts of land, and sold low for ready money. Terms may be known by applying at Wilmington to

Evan Jones,
Or at Fayetteville to
David Anderson.
Wilmington, Dec 10. 4w

NOTICE

IS HEREBY GIVEN, THAT the subscriber at December term inst. of the Court of New Hanover County, obtained letters of Administration on the estate of CYRUS GEER, dec. late of this town. Those indebted to the estate are desired to make immediate payment; and those having accounts or demands against it, of any kind, are required to exhibit the same for payment, to the subscriber agreeably to law, and within the time limited by the act of the General Assembly passed in 1789, entitled "An act to amend an act entitled an act concerning proving wills and granting letters of administration, and to prevent frauds in the management of intestates estates." In failure whereof the same will be plead in bar to the recovery of such accounts or demands.
GILBERT GEER, Adm'r.

On the 17th day of January next, will be sold in the town of Wilmington, at the usual credit on like occasions, all the Merchandise, consisting of Dry Goods, &c. belonging to the estate of said deceased.
GILBERT GEER, Adm'r.
Wilmington, Dec. 24.—3w.

COTTON GINS.

THE subscriber will in a few days have his Cotton Machines at work on Topsail Sound, and will clean cotton for one eighth. The Machines are made upon the most improved construction, they do not injure the staple of the cotton in the least—Some cotton that once them cleaned last year, was sold in Boston at two cents in the pound more than any other of the same species of cotton that was in that market; the difference was in the superiority of the Gin. He will find Bagging to pack the cotton where the owner prefers it.
John Sibley.
Topsail Sound, Dec. 1.
