Fayetteville Mails arrive and depart, viz.

On Wednesdays, commonly at 4 P. M. and depart on Thursday at 10 A. M. until altered under the new contract.

On Saturdays at 7 P. M. and depart on the following Mondays at 7 A. M.

Half an hour is allowed for making up the Mails; and any letters or papers not in time, remain until the next mail; but as the mail that starts on Monday is made up over night, it is necessary that all letters should be put in before the bell-rings.

The Newbern Mail arrives every Friday in the forenoon, and departs in the afternoon at 3—until further alterations.

No more credit given on letters; it is a bad business, and I have broke the plate.

January 6.

JOHN LORD.

THE subscriber is once more under the necessity of requesting all those who have open accounts with him, to bring them forward for liquidation up to the 31st of last month.—The VENUE & COMMISSION BUSINESS will in future be carried on at the same place, under the firm of LEVY & CARROL, who now offer their services to the Public, and hope for a continuance of that encouragement hitherto extended to JACOB LEVY.

L. A. DORSEY, D. M.
Wilmington, N. C.
Jan. 6, 1803.

THE subscriber takes this method to offer his services to the community in general, and particularly to those of his fellow-citizens who are tradesmen and mechanics, and whose time is more profitably employed than by drawing off their own accounts, to post their books and draw and settle their accounts with accuracy and dispatch on very reasonable terms; and also to draw up Agreements, Assignments, Bills, Bonds, Botany Bonds, Deeds, Letters of Attorney, Mortgages, Leases, &c. conformable to law.

At present please to apply at the house he now occupies in Ewans's alley, where any commands will be promptly attended to, and the smallest favour acknowledged.
