

WILMINGTON,
Thursday, June 2, 1863.

Extract of a letter from Captain John Brown, of the Revenue-Cutter, to one of our Port-Wardens, dated Smithville, May 22.

“On Wednesday last, I went with Col. Williams, in Mr. Long’s boat, out of the New-Inlet with an intent to go as far as the gulph stream; but in the evening standing towards the frying pan, we perceived a wreck a little to the westward of the shoal. We immediately made for it, took it in tow, and made sail for the main bar, but it being dark, grounded on the point of the Middle-ground; we then left it and anchored off the Light-house; on the next morning observed the wreck had given in on the middle-ground opposite the point of Bald-Head; it being low water we went to her and found her to be the hull of a brig named the Elenor of Liverpool, N. S. She appears to be a new vessel; nothing left above deck but the stump of the main mast; the foremast and windlass, entirely gone, and every bit of the rigging. Since being on the Middle-ground, Mr. Long and his crew have with gales, &c. hauled up a quantity of sailors’ cloths, pieces of broken chests, two quadrants, and one barrel of beef; and they inform me there are several empty sugar hogsheads, jars of tarrinds, &c. on board. One of the boys, I believe Mr. Springs’s boy Belfor or Christian, in bringing up some cloths out of the run with a harpoon, brought up part of a bag with twenty-one dollars in it—the bag appeared to tear as they brought it up. It is probable, there may be more cash.”

“The wind blowing fresh from the Eastward, the vessel is drove further on the shoal, and may not be got off without a deal of trouble, if at all.” We since understand that the wreck has bilged and will certainly be lost.

The carpenter of the ship La Vanguer, at Brest, under date March 20, writes to his friend in London, as follows:—“We are here preparing for sea with great activity; 42 sail of the line are to compose the fleet—hands are abundant. There are upwards of 17000 former subjects of George III, principally Irish seamen, in the French ports, principally Brest and Toulon. In our ship more than one half the crew are Irish, and who pant to get out and engage the British. You know how it will be with us if we are defeated; that’s enough for us, and we are determined to go to the bottom, sooner than suffer under the legal tyranny of our former masters.”

The specie sent by the government of the United States to the Dey of Algiers had been rejected by him, and naval stores demanded; conformably to our stipulations. The Dey threatened that unless his request was complied with war would be declared against the United States.

The Morning Chronicle, New-York, assures us that the average majority of the republican ticket in that city is 692. The County of Richmond, Staten Island, has returned the Republican Candidate with a majority of 86. 304 against 218. Fifteen towns in West Chester C. all were in favour of the Republican Candidate, as 900, 10, 100. The Republican majority for Senator is 316. The difference in New-York is attributed to the violence with which the controversy respecting Vice-President Burr, has been conducted. Accounts from Long Island are favourable to the Republican interest. From Columbia C. last year, the opposite ticket prevailed, this year the Republican by a majority of 60. In Rensselaer County the majority was of 150 for the Republican Ticket. In the Eastern District, the five republican senators elected by a majority of 1500. In the Middle District, the three republican senators have succeeded.

MISSING

A LETTER dated March 8, 1863, put into the Post-Office

at New-York, written by the subscriber and directed to SIMEON BELDEN, Merchant, Fayetteville, North-Carolina, in which letter was inclosed 675 dollars, in a Post-Note, and United States Bank Bills, of the following description—The Post-Note No. 1737—C. 500 dollars, dated 12th of February, 1802, payable to Simon Belden; the endorsement wrote immediately over the name of Jon. Bural; and this note is remarkable by having a small part of the letter J, in the word Jonathan, torn on the left side of the bill, and as the Post-Note had been pinned and wafered it was difficult to write the words pay to Sime. Belden, so that it will appear confused, and so remarkable by this description that a discovery may yet be made should the said note be offered. The other Bills are No. 3711—J. 100 dollars, 22d of January, 1812. No. 2470—C. 50 dollars, 5th of May, 1801. No. 1503—C. 20 dollars, 26th of August, 1799. No. 18, 5 dollars, 21 of April, 1798.

Mr. Catlin recollects giving me the Post-Note, and my noticing at the time the piece being torn off the letter J, and which he said would not injure the Note. There were several other indentments on this Note, the names of which cannot be recollected.—It is requested that the different Banks may pay some attention when they receive Post-Notes, and by examining the numbers it may be yet recovered.

Wilmington, Feb. 24th, 1863

To the Electors of the Division comprehending the counties of Bladen, Brunswick, Duplin, N. Hanover, Sampson and Onslow. FELLOW-CITIZENS,

As an Election will take place in August next, for a person to represent you in the Congress of the United States, I thus publicly offer myself as a Candidate for that important trust.

The part I acted during the revolutionary war, my political opinions during that important period and since the establishment of our Independence, also my Sentiments for the six years I had the honor to represent you in Congress, are well known; I therefore deem it unnecessary to amuse you with opinions respecting the origin or motives of parties, nor professions of exclusive attachment to the Constitution or interests of the Nation.

My conduct shall continue uniform, and my zeal unremitting for a genuine and rational Republican Government, as guaranteed by our national compact—the Constitution shall be my guide in all political concerns—the Peace, Liberty and Happiness of the United States my sole object.

Notwithstanding the calumny of a few individuals, I am fully confident that the present Administration of the Government of the United States, is pure, economical and just, and calculated to secure the rights, liberties and true interest of the people.

Should I be honored with a majority of your suffrages, my time and talents shall be invariably employed for the interests of my Constituents, and for the Union generally.

With the highest respect I have the honor to be, Gentlemen, Your most obedient servant, JAMES GILLESPIE.

THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD.

 IN the Night of Saturday the 23d of April TWO NEGRO FELLOWS called BRISTOL & MOSES eloped.

BRISTOL is likely, about forty years of age, five feet ten inches or six feet high, of black complexion, and rather down look, except when pleased, in which case he shews much cunning and artifice both by his language and smiles—He ran away from John G. Blount, Esquire, some years ago, and after weeks of persuasion and many fair promises prevailed on the subscriber, to purchase him upon an expressly stipulated condition that having been used to his plantation and management for the time he was in treaty, with Mr. Blount, and being satisfied to submit to any kind of work or discipline of the other Negroes, if he ran away after drawing me into a loss by inducing me to purchase and then absconding, he would be satisfied to forfeit his head—he was solemnly assured that a reward for his head would be offered in such case. He has now left my service without the smallest provocation, without having ever been whipped in it, without undergoing the most laborious and disagreeable parts of duty, after committing some and been accused of many thefts, and under peculiar circumstances of treachery and provocation—I do, therefore, in consequence of the abovementioned solemn assurance, made to him and with his own consent, offer a Reward of FIFTY DOLLARS to any person who will produce to me his Head, severed from his body; provided he is shot in being taken or making his escape when called on to surrender.

Instead of inticing Larry, hereafter mentioned, to return to his duty, which Bristol amused me with the fairest promises of doing, he persuaded to accompany him, his brother-in-law. MOSES, a stout yellowish fellow of about 21 years of age, and 5 feet 8 inches high, who was born and bred in my service and has hitherto conducted himself in such an exemplary manner as neither to have deserved or received the smallest corporal punishment within my recollection. He served an apprenticeship with Anthony Hall blacksmith, in Wilmington, to whom he has been hired for some time past, and whose employment he left by the base artifices and persuasion of Bristol—having on a blue jacket, and brown trousers; but carried with him a blue broad cloth coat, cassimere waistcoat and nankeen overalls. In consequence of his uniform good conduct, if he returns shortly to the said Anthony Hall he will be forgiven.

LARRY, upon suffering a very valuable Flat loaded with ballast, to sink by his extreme carelessness, ran away in February, 1862, while I was absent on a visit to South-Carolina; he had before left my service and remained out for upwards of a year, but on returning to his duty was forgiven, and during his staying at home was not (that I know of) punished for any cause. He is a yellowish negro, shews his teeth generally, from his lips being rather short; his face is pitted, although not deeply, by the small pox; he is thirty years of age and six feet high, and has long been lurking about the plantations near the mouth of Black-River, and cruising up and down that and the Northwest River, being harbored at different periods. I am informed, both by black and white persons. Bristol and he, certainly had frequent communications lately, and I believe Bristol has contrived the plan for their escape towards Newbern and Washington, on out of the state by water, having frequent intercourse with vessels during his working this winter at my wharves in and opposite Wilmington.

For apprehending and delivering BRISTOL alive, either at Belvedere or Wilmington, I will give TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD.—For a like delivery of LARRY or MOSES TEN DOLLARS, and if brought from any distance, all reasonable charges paid in addition.—On proof of their being harboured by a coloured person one half more, and on same proof against a white person, double the said Rewards; each on conviction of the offender—And furthermore, as the dangerous practice of carrying Negroes from Wilmington and its vicinity, out of the state by water, has increased in an alarming and most mischievous degree, I will give ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS on proof any person carrying or attempting to carry either of the said Negroes out of the state by water, on their conviction of felony agreeably to law, or the above mentioned sum of THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS for a like conviction of three different persons carrying the said three runaways or wilfully attempting to carry them out of the state by water, within the meaning of said law.

MERCURY Also again ran away on Tuesday the 17th inst. he is well known in Wilmington and its neighbourhood, but as he is desirous of passing himself for a freeman, and will probably endeavour to travel to some distant place either by land or water, by a different name, perhaps JACK, the following description may not be unnecessary—He is a dark mulatto of thin visage and make, about 6 feet ten inches high and 30 years of age, very handy about carpentering, waiting, glazing, painting and in a variety of ways, but a great thief and drunkard—Ten Dollars reward will be paid and all reasonable charges for delivering him at Belvedere. If harboured or carried out of the state a like reward as for the abovementioned.

BENJAMIN SMITH.
Wilmington, May 28.

TEN DOLLARS REWARD.

A BSCONDED from the subscriber about two months and an half since, without the least provocation, Negro JOE, a Taylor by trade, 26 or 28 years of age, of low stature, very black, pitted with the small pox, speaks Creole French and broken English, commonly wears rings in his ears, & is marked on his right breast with the letters P. P. almost illegible. He has a wife at Mr. Henry Halsey's, near Wilmington, at Catfish, or on Rocky-point, and no doubt is harbored at one of those places and works at his trade. I will give ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for information which may lead to conviction of his being harboured by a white person, TWENTY-FIVE if by a Negro, or the above reward for apprehending and delivering him to me, or lodging him in jail to that I get him.

I will also give a reward of TEN DOLLARS, for apprehending a negro man named GEORGE, who ran away from Charleston, S. C. about 8 months ago—he was formerly the property of James Morand, who sold him to Francis Fontaine, & Co. and at present belongs to Peter Gondtown, of Charleston, S. C. GEORGE is about 30 or 32 years of age, 5 feet 8 inches high or thereabouts, slim made, and very black—he has a wife at Capt. James Walker's plantation, near Wilmington, where it is supposed he is harbored.

Matters of vessels and all others are cautioned against harbouring, employing or carrying the said negroes away.
PETER WISS.
Wilmington, April 21.

TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN away from the subscriber, in Wilmington, on Tuesday the 29th of March last, a negro man named FRANK, 26 or 27 years of age, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, rather slender made, tolerably black, and likely has very little beard and that chiefly on his upper lip, and appears never to have been shaved. He was formerly the property of Dr. S. Halling, and lately of John M'Aulan, of whom I purchased him. I suspect he will endeavor to get on board some vessel in order to make his escape. All masters of vessels and others are cautioned against harbouring, employing or carrying him away under the severest penalty of the law. I will give the above reward to any person who will take up said runaway and deliver him to me, or secure him in jail so that I get him. I will also give a reward of Fifty Dollars for information that may lead to conviction of his being harbored or concealed on board any vessel or elsewhere.
