FOR SALE,
THAT valuable and highly improved PLANTATION on the mouth of New-River, containing Sixteen hundred Acres; two hundred and fifty of which is cleared and produces equal to any land between Wilmington and New-River, and is admirably adapted to the culture of Corn and Cotton. The range is excellent, and the situation agreeable and healthy, being opposite the Inlet and in sight of the Ocean, where every species of marine diet in the greatest abundance may be procured, with little or no trouble, at every season of the year. It likewise abounds with wild fowl and game of every kind. The situation is also eligible for a Store and Tavern, and the back country wagoners resort to it in the winter for fish and salt, which renders it more valuable than any other place on the river.
On the premises are a good dwelling-house, out houses, barn, &c. and an excellent Wind-Mill in complete order.
The terms of sale will be moderate and easy to the purchaser. For further particulars, apply to the subscriber, on the premises.

PROPOSALS
For Publishing by Subscription,
The Sheriff's, Marshal's and Constable's GUIDE;
Containing practical Directions to those Officers on every Subject connected with the Duties of their Office —with an Appendix of Precedents—
By the Hon. J. L. TAYLOR, Esq.
THIS work is carefully compiled from the best authorities, and adapted, by a Digest of the several Acts of Assembly and of Congress upon all the subjects it contains, to the use of the citizens of this State. It has been the aim of the Compiler, to select from the mass of matter with which it is intermingled, the useful learning relative to Sheriffs and Constables; and by a distinct arrangement of the several titles, to furnish professional men with an easy reference to more copious sources of information, and the persons for whose use the work is immediately designed, with plain and intelligible instructions.
Under the important title of ARREST, the duty of Sheriffs, Constables, and private persons in the apprehension of offenders, will be described, and the degree of protection afforded by the Law accurately stated—Connected with this subject is the Law of Homicide, when committed by an officer of justice, or when the person killed is an officer of justice, reflecting which an attempt will be made to abridge and methodize leading cases. Some other subjects treated of will be Bail, Executions, Goals, and Prisoners, Slaves, Justice, Sheriff's and Marshal's accounts, &c.
CONDITIONS.
The work will be completed in 400 pages, octavo, printed on a neat type and good paper.
It will be delivered to subscribers, handsomely bound, at Four Dollars each.
It will be put to press as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers is obtained to defray the expenses, and to be issued in 4 months thereafter.
A list of the subscribers will be published in the 1st of February next, by the several Publishers, and by the Sheriff in the State, and by other persons in whose hands papers for that purpose may be lodged.
Wilmington, October 20, 1803.
