FOR SALE,
THAT valuable and highly improved PLANTATION on the mouth of New-River, containing Sixteen hundred Acres—two hundred and fifty of which is cleared and produces equal to any land between Wilmington and New-River, and is admirably adapted to the culture of Corn and Cotton. The range is excellent, and the situation agreeable and healthy, being opposite the Inlet and in sight of the Ocean, where every species of marine diet in the greatest abundance may be procured, with little or no trouble, at every season of the year. It likewise abounds with wild fowl and game of every kind. The situation is also eligible for a Store and Tavern, and the back country waggons resort to it in the winter for fish andysters, which renders it more valuable than any other place on the river. On the premises are a good dwelling-house, out houses, barn, &c. and an excellent Wind-Mill in complete order.
The terms of sale will be moderate and easy to the purchaser. For further particulars, apply to the subscriber, on the premises.
