

in his confinement, and has menaced the citizens with a speedy destruction. He says he has several thousand friends up the country who will, as soon as they learn his confinement release him by force. It is indeed a fact that he is very popular in the upper country, and whether there is any apprehension of such an attempt being made or not, the public mind appears to be but little at ease. The city guard is reinforced, and searches are daily making upon every plantation for arms."

A BARGAIN.

FOR SALE,

Or to be Leased for a term of Years,

The Plantation, Tavern and Ferry, on Lockwood's Folly,

ADJOINING the Court-House. The House contains seven Bed-rooms and one Dining-room above; a Hall and Par-lour below with four fire-places. Stables and every other necessary out building. The Garden and Orchard are capacious, and contain a variety of fruit trees.

The Plantation contains 920 acres; 400 are under fence; 80 acres are Tide Swamp, and a part in order for planting. Boats from four to five feet draught of water may load at the Landing; Vessels from six to seven feet draught of water may go over the Bar, which is but twelve miles to Cape-Fear Bar; a Store may be established here to great advantage; and the Ferry itself is becoming, from the great increase of Settlers, every day more productive.

The present owner has lived on the premises nearly twelve years, and has ever enjoyed a good state of health; but his present indisposition for a few months past, renders him incapable of attending to business, which is the only reason for offering the above Valuable Property for sale.

Apply on the premises to

TEN DOLLARS REWARD.

DESERVED from this place on the 18th instant, JOSEPH GARDNER, a private Soldier in Captain John Sander's company of Artillerists. He is thirty-three years of age, five feet five inches and three quarters high, has a dark complexion, short black hair, black eyes, was born in Germany, and is by occupation a Barber. Had on and took with him a plain blue cloth jacket and pantaloons, fawcy Vest, white cotton Stockings, plain Shoes, an old drab & green round Hat, with sundry other articles.

Whoever will take up said Deserter, and deliver him to me at this place, or to the commanding Officer of any military post in the United States, shall receive the above reward and all reasonable charges.

F. H. Cushing.

Lieut. Col. 2d Regiment of Infantry, Adjutant and Inspector of the Army
Frederick Town (Md.) April 20, 1804. 385—3w.

Notice is hereby given,

THAT THEOPHILUS PEARCE, of New-Hanover county, holds a note of hand against me (if not paid) bearing date the 17th of March, 1804, written in the following manner: Due in 20 days from the date the sum of $7 Dollars; which sum I agreed to give him for a fee he had formerly left with me. The note was written by myself, and he called his little son Wesley Pearce, to witness the same. I have been credibly informed that he has offered a note for sale of the amount of $7 dollars against me. I went to him the 3d of May, took sufficient witness and tendered the amount of the note I gave him for seven dollars; he swore he would not satisfy either of us so far as to show the note for he had sold it. I asked him who he let have it, but he could not tell.—I therefore forewarn any person purchasing any note of hand against me for more than seven dollars, as there never was any other contract between us under any expectation of recovering it from me. The abovementioned gentleman (if I may take the liberty to style him such) has not been worth $7 dollars in any kind of property at one time which he dare call his own, for five years, as is evidently known by all who are acquainted with him; and if he can produce a note against me of that amount, he has erased the cross strokes which I put across the mark thus $ and turned the tails of the S together, if it is the note I gave it could not be done in any other way; and it is the general opinion of his acquaintance, that were it not for the laws of his country, he would not hesitate to do any thing whereby he would reap an advantage, even to commit forgery, which I think he has done, as appears by circumstances, to all intents and purposes.

If I have stated any thing in the above but falls, let Mr. Pearce say to the contrary.

PROPOSALS

For Publishing by Subscription, The Sheriff's, Marshal's and Constable's GUIDE;
Containing practical Directions to those Officers on every Subject connected with the Duties of their Office—with an Appendix of Precedents—
By the Hon. J. L. TAYLOR, Esq.

THIS work is carefully compiled from the best authorities, and adapted, by a Digest of the several Acts of Assembly and of Congress upon all the subjects it contains, to the use of the citizens of this State. It has been the aim of the Compiler to select from the mass of matter with which it is intermingled, the useful and necessary parts, and by a judicious arrangement of the several titles, to furnish professional men with an easy reference to more copious sources of information, and the persons for whose use the work is immediately designed, with plain and intelligible instructions.

Under the important title of ARREST, the duty of Sheriffs, Constables, and private persons in the apprehension of offenders, will be delineated, and the degree of protection afforded by the Law accurately stated.—Connected with this subject is the Law of Habeas Corpus, when committed by an officer of justice, or when the person arrested is an officer of justice, respecting which a summary will be made to abridge and methodize leading cases. Some other subjects treated of will be Bail, Executions, Gaols, and Prisoners, Escapes, Juries, Sheriffs' and Marshals' Accounts, &c.

CONDITIONS.

The work will be completed in 400 pages, octavo, printed on a neat type and good paper.
It will be delivered to subscribers, handsomely bound, at Four Dollars each.
It will be put to press as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers is obtained to defray the expence, and it will be ready in 4 months thereafter.
A list of the subscribers will be subjoined to the work.

Subscriptions are received in Wilmington, by Allen and Hall, the printers; by the several Post Masters and Sheriffs in the State, and by other gentlemen, in whose hands papers for that purpose may be lodged, Wilmington, October 20, 1803.

NOTICE.

ALL persons are hereby forewarned from purchasing or receiving in any negotiable manner whatever, my note of hand and signed account for three hundred and sixty dollars, to James Curson, dated about the 29th July, 1802; as I have paid and fully discharged the same, which will appear by the annexed receipt.

Dillon Jordan.

May 15, 1804. 384—3w.

RECEIVED, Fayetteville, 15th Jan. 1803, of Mr. Dillon Jordan, three hundred and sixty dollars, in full of all demands, notes or signed accounts to this date. Should I have any note or signed account, they will be delivered up.

Signed JAS. CARSON.

N. B. The above advertisement is not made in consequence of an opinion on my part, that Mr. Curson will make an improper use of the aforesaid obligations, but through an apprehension that they may accidentally fall into other hands.

Taken Up, and committed to the Gaol of this county, on the 2d inst.

A Negro Man, who calls himself John Mitchell, says he is free, (but without papers to show it), and came to this town from Charleston, (S. C.) in January last, by land; that he formerly lived with Mr. Edward Crofts of Charleston. The said negro has been since at sea, and just returned to this port. He is about 23 years of age, five feet one inch in height, thin visage, short woolly hair, and has something like the appearance of scars on his back, which he says he got with a rope's end while on board of a vessel at sea.

Any person knowing of or claiming the aforesaid negro, is requested to come forward and make known the same; pay charges and take him away; otherwise he will be sold as the law directs.

HENRY JOCELIN,

Cabinet and Chair-Maker,

IS commencing his business in this Town, at his Shop in FRONT-STREET, opposite William Campbell, Esq. and solicits the patronage of the public.

Having served a regular apprenticeship with an eminent master of the trade, he will venture to assure the public, that his work will be executed in the most approved style and in a substantial manner.

He proposes to conform his prices for Furniture, &c. to those charged by Cabinet-Makers in New York, for like articles; and depending, not on capital, but industry, for the support of his business, he will expect like pay; that is, prompt payment; for on that, will, principally, depend his success.

All Orders for Articles in his way, will be executed with dispatch.
