Twenty Dollars Reward.
ON the 20th of April last, I hired a Horse to JOHN SAINT, who had for some time before that period, worked at the Cabinet and House Carpenter's business in this town, in company with Mr. Wm. Burton.—He said that he was going to see his family, who resided at some considerable distance, and should return in the course of sixteen days; but not having since heard of him, and being apprehensive that he has made off with the horse, Therefore offer the above reward for bringing the horse to me, or confining him and sending me word of it, so that I get him.
 The horse is ten years old this Spring, 14 1-2 hands high, of a dark bay colour, with a star in his forehead, his right hind foot white, and has a white spot on his right flank.

TO THE FREEMEN OF THE
 District of Wilmington and the County of Sampson.
Countrymen and Fellow-Citizens,
THE period is approaching, at which you will be called upon to select one of your fellow-citizens to represent you in the Congress of the United States; and I having been solicited by several respectable characters to offer myself a Candidate for that important trust, therefore tender you my services, with an assurance, that should I meet your approbation at the ensuing election, it will be the principal object of my solicitude to maintain the sovereignty of the people—the elective franchise—and the Federal Constitution; and all my powers shall be exerted to perpetuate those inestimable blessings.
 Confiding in your patriotism, and sympathizing with you, fellow-citizens, in an ardent love of our common Country, I submit myself and my interest on the present occasion, to your unbiassed choice.
 I am,
 Fellow-Citizens,
 Respectfully, your obedient
 Humble servant,
SAMUEL ASHE.
 June 21, 1804.

TO THE ELECTORS OF
 Wilmington District and Sampson County,
FELLOW-CITIZENS,
BEING informed that measures were adopted to concentrate the political ideas of the Electors of the above Division, I omitted to address you until an opinion was formed respecting a person to Represent you in Congress; and as I have discovered a general wish in my friends, former supporters, and others, that I should again offer as a Candidate at the approaching Election, I thus publicly make you a tender of my service.
 Should I be honored with your confidence, be assured my fellow-citizens, that whilst these marks of your esteem fill up the measure of that satisfaction which hath already been derived from your suffrages, it inspires me with zeal to promote the interest, peace, and happiness of the Union, and to preserve inviolate (so far as my talents will enable me) all the benefits which the Constitution of the United States has placed under the guardianship of the general Government.
 It is with pleasure I can inform those I have the honor to represent, that the prompt, wise and economical conduct of our Government, enables us, with the existing sources of Revenue, to meet every standing expediture, and pay annually 7,300,000 dollars of the principal and interest of our Public Debt. From this favourable situation of our public relations, the great accumulation of Territory and other national advantages lately acquired by peaceable negotiation, there is certain prospect of a speedy annihilation of our national Debt.
 CONTRAST our present situation with the ruinous system that preceded it, and let the unprejudiced form their own conclusions.
 With the highest respect,
 Fellow-Citizens,
 I have the honor to be
 Your most obedient
JAMES GILLESPIE.

MR. HALL,
IN your paper of the 29th ult. I read an advertisement, signed James Rogers, highly injurious to my reputation. For the information of persons who may not be acquainted with said Rogers, you will please insert the underwritten.
 I had Rogers's Bond for 100 dollars, and on the 17th of March, 1804, I settled with him, and there remained due to me 80 dollars on the bond and 7 dollars for a saddle he had of me; for which 87 dollars I took his note. He asserts there was never any dealings between us except for the saddle.—The contrary of which I shall prove by unquestionable testimony. The notoriety of Rogers's character will operate on the mind of every unprejudiced person, in my favor.
 As what I have asserted will be proved in Court, a further refutation of his assertions is unnecessary; those who are acquainted with him will pay no respect to what he has advanced.
Theophilus Pearce.
