TO THE FREEMEN OF THE
District of Wilmington and the County of Sampson.

Countrymen and Fellow-Citizens,

THE period is approaching, at which you will be called upon to select one of your fellow citizens to represent you in the Congress of the United States; and I having been solicited by several respectable characters to offer myself a Candidate for that important trust, therefore tender you my services, with an assurance, that should I meet your approbation at the ensuing election, it will be the principal object of my solicitude to maintain the sovereignty of the people—the elective franchise—and the Federal Constitution; and all my powers shall be exerted to perpetuate those inestimable blessings.

Confiding in your patriotism, and sympathising with you fellow-citizens, in an ardent love of our common Country, I submit myself and my interest on the present occasion, to your unbiassed choice.

I am,
Fellow-Citizens,
Respectfully, your obedient
Humble servant,
SAMUEL ASHE.
