JOHN LORD, P. M.
Wilmington, April 16, 1805.

FOR SALE,

AN excellent Plantation and Saw-Mill, situated on M'Lean Creek, fifteen miles from Wilmington—the Mill contains two Saws, is now completely finished and in good order for Sawing, and rafts may be taken from the Mill; a Grist Mill may also be erected at a very small expence.

The plantation contains six hundred and forty acres of Land, one hundred and fifty of which is well adapted to the culture of Corn—about fifty acres cleared and under good fence, one hundred of valuable Tide Swamp, and the remainder is fraught with pine and other timber, suitable for sawing, and lies in a good Summer and Winter range as any in the country.

Prompt payment will be required for one-third of the purchase money, one-third in six months, and the balance in twelve months.

Those inclined to purchase may treat with the subscriber on the premises.
