heard, that his successor is named. Yrujo may have obtained, at his pressing request, permission under the pretence of family concerns, to remain a short time ; but really to wind up certain colonial speculations, and to cemplete certain plans of emolument and monopoly, for which he has been for many months preparing machinery in this city .--But it cannot be true that he is re-appointed, and although he may have gone to Baltimore, to settle a South America account, he will never again present himself at Washington City as a public agent.

It cannot be supposed for a moment if we reflect upon it, that any court in Europe would so far forget its own interest and the common usage of nations, as to insist on another nation retaining an obnoxious character, and whose dismission had been requested on the ground of gross misconduct. The court of Spain cannot be indifferrent to our relative situations, and knows perfectly well that we cannot be coerced, and the want of a minister here must be to her disadvantage & not ours.

There can be no doubt from the malignant character of theman, and his intrigue here, that Yrujo, has endeavoured to persoade the ministers of the "king his master" that all his tricks here were played off to serve him ; and that the ministers of the court of Spain should believe such things, when there was no means of contradicting them, is not at all improbable; but then the question did not depend on his merit or demerit in the service of " the king his master," but whether he could be forced upon us as a minister with decency, or even with effect. 'I he dispatch which solicited his removal was too explicit to admit of any doubt of the determinations of our executive, and if any thing were wanting, the handsome manner in which his presence at Washington was dispensed with, put the matter out of question forever.

Indeed, after being dishonored as he has been, it is very perceptible that Castilian pride is very much fallen, or that it is to be found only at the " Castle in Spain"-for if it was in his weins, the honor of the genuine Spaniard would have retired from the theatre of its shame long ago.

We repeat it-whatever may be the intention of Spain, or her designs on the shores of the Guif of Mexico, he her intents "wicked or charitable," her ministers have not been such romancers, as to re-appoint an ambassador who has rather created differences than healed those which existed-and who has excited rather than foothed, angry pasbions and resentments.

WILMINGTON.  TUESDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1806.

The Newbern mail did not arrive last meek, nor did the Northern Stage Mail due on Sunday last come to hand until after our paper was put to press. These failures we understand a e attributed to the great rains between the 20th and 27 th ult. by which nearly all the bridges between this place and Fayesteville and Newbern have been destroyed.

By the schooner Venus, Oliver, arrived yesterday, we have received New-York papers to the 27th ultimo, but they do not contain a single new article of importance foreign or domestic.

On Friday last about ninety miles to the Northward of Cape Loot-Out Shoals, in 15 fathom water, capt. Oliver fell in with the wreck of a schooner all under water except part of her quarter deck, and on her beam ends, both masts along side with the sails hoisted to them-She appeared quite new, had on her stein "Valentine," but could not see of what place - had a .short quarter deck, and a circle painted black on it, and deep waists-there was a signal pole hoisted and a piece of Canvas on it, but no person on board. On her quarter deck was an Umbrella and appearances of the crew trying to save themselves, some boards and the tiller being lashed together. She appeared to be 90 or 100 tons burthen.

The Brig Esperanza, Williams, arrived here on the 24th ult. 30 days from Lucie, Jam. came through the gulph passage in company with the ship Jersey, Graham of Philadelphia, and schooners Iris and Hunter, for Portland. Spoke on the 6th Sept. near the Calarado Rocks, schooner Agenora, 16 days from Baltimore, bound to Vera Cruiz .- Saw several wrecks and parts of vessels off the Bahamas.

The brig Hiram, Culum, from Wilmington (N. C.) bound to Falmouth, was on the minth July, flranded on the N. W. point of the North or Blue Cal-cos. The cargo was fayed, but the yeffel totally loft.

DiED,

At Mrs Smith's in Rowan county, on the 13th instant, Mrs. Margaret Alexander, wife of his Excellency Nathaniel Alexandre, Governor of this State, and sister to Lol. Polk of this city. This truly respectable lady has long struggied with ii) health to sustain a feeble existence, which slithe exertions of Medical Skill, and unceasing attention of affectionate relatives could not longer prolong. -For some time, she had been evidendy hastening "to that bourne whence no traveller returns," yet her dissolution was not so immediately expected, having left home that day week on a visit to the Governor's mother, in the flattering hope that the journey would benefit her health. But the hope was illurive, and she sunk, patient and resigned into the arras of Death .- The best eulogy on this lady will be, the unaffected sorrow of her conpections, and the concurring testimony of a numerous and respectable acquaintance that, ahe was "a woman good without pretence."
