It is necessary to observe, that many since the time of giving in, have sold or disposed of the lands, or removed away—Whereby the persons in whose possession the same may be, do not know that the said lands are liable—in some instances, the lands are fell into the hands of executors. But it is to be understood that the lands in whose hands they may be are liable for the taxes.

The Tax List in my absence will be always left in the hands of Mr. William Williams, or Mr. Henry Wright who are duly authorized to give receipts.

FIVE DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber on the 18th instant, a negro man named PAT, formerly the property of Mr. John Blanks—he is very artful, and when speaking generally smiles. He is so generally known about this town and Newbern for his acts of honesty that a further description is useless; had on when he went away a light color'd broad cloth coat. He was seen about ten miles on the Newbern Road, and is supposed to make for that place, being very well known, having lived there with a former owner.

The above reward with all reasonable expences will be paid on securing him in any jail so that I get him again.

George Cameron,

Collector's Office, Wilmington, North-Carolina 7th March, 1806.

GEORGE WAGNER, an American Seaman is detained as a Prisoner at Guadalupe, and states that he is a native of North-Carolina. As the interposition of the Executive will prove inefficual without proof of this man's citizenship, I request the favour of his friends to procure the requisite documents, and forward the same to this office, that they may be transmitted to the Department of State.

ROBERT COCHRAN, Collector.

This notice begs to inform the public that the contents is easy on the Rope Making business, in all his business, Field and White Rope.

WANTED to employ a person.

well acquainted with Tanning and Currying. A handsome salary may be had for carrying on said business, by application to M. DRAUGHAN, in Bladen county, or to J. H. DRAUGHAN in Wilmington.

To Rent

Advertisements during the following week, will be inserted in the Wilmington Gazette, at the rate of 10 cents per line.

A VERY liberal price in cash would be given for a likely Negro Girl about thirteen years of age, of a sprightly good disposition, and free from any mark of the whip which would be generally seen; one accustomed to nursing would be preferred, and a few days trial would at any rate be required. To prevent useless applications, it may be well to add, that none will be dealt with except those whose character and circumstances are such as to preclude suspicion of their selling property to which they cannot give an undoubted title. Any such person having such a negro to dispose of will please to leave his name at the Gazette printing office.
