

FOREIGN

By the British brig Nelson, arrived on the 27th ult. at Christiania...

On the 26th Dec. a French bag of truce arrived at Dover, from Bologna...

FRENCH BULLETINS

ELEVENTH BULLETIN

ARANDA DE DUERO, NOV. 27.

On the 23d, at the break of day, the French army began its march...

On the 23d, at break of day, the General Division, Lefebvre...

At nine in the morning, the columns of the French army began to depart...

The Duke of Montebello caused the centre to be pierced by the division of the General Maurice Mathieu...

The moment when half of the enemy's line found itself thus turned and defeated...

The Marshal Duke of Cornegliano, has begun march upon Saragossa.

The Duke of Elchingen, who was on the 22d at Saragossa...

The army of 45,000 has been thus beaten, without our having had more than 6000 men engaged.

The twelfth Bulletin is dated at Aranda, Nov. 28. It merely states that Gen. Mathieu...

THIRTEENTH BULLETIN

ST. MARTIN, NEW MADRID, Dec. 2.

On the 29th ult the head quarters of the Emperor were removed to the village of Bouzelas...

A charge made by the Gen. Montbrun, at the head of the Polish light horse...

Sixteen pieces of cannon, 10 pieces of muskets, 200 wagons...

On the 1st December the head-quarters of the Emperor were at St. Augustin...

The infantry could not arrive before the 5d. The intelligence which we hitherto have received...

CAME, AT MADRID, DECEMBER 4.

The town of Madrid has capitulated. Our troops entered it this day at noon.

LONDON, DECEMBER 16.

We have received this morning, the Hamburg Correspondent to the 30th ult. It appears that great commercial failures have occurred in Austria...

DECEMBER 17.

CAPITULATION OF MADRID.

By the flag of truce, which returned last evening to Dover, with Mr. Shaw, the messenger, on board, we have received Paris papers to the 15th instant...

The details of the approach of the French to Madrid are contained in the 13th Bulletin, dated St. Martin, the 2d inst.

We have also extracted from the Moniteurs an article from Copenhagen, which states that Mr. Adair has sailed in his mission to the sublime Porto.

GLOBE OFFICE, TWO O'CLOCK.

Mr. Shaw arrived in town this morning from France. The two Ladies, neices of Talleyrand...

An English officer arrived this morning with dispatches from Mr. Frere, at Madrid, and our armies. They were then in high spirits.

TO THE EDITORS OF THE STAR.

The following verses are the simple effusions of one of your subscribers...

Ye sons of St. Patrick your forces now rally, The standard of Freedom once more is assailed...

THE SHAMROCK.

A SONG FOR ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

Brave Sons of Hibernia, your shamrock display, Forever made sacred to Patrick's day...

Both Venus and Mars to our land lay a claim, Their title is own'd and recorded by fame...

The Star.

RALEIGH,

THURSDAY, MARCH 9, 1869.

On Sunday the 5th of March, in Raleigh, the Mercury in Fahrenheit's Thermometer, stood at sun rise 63 degrees...

In Charleston the CINCINNATI and Revolution Societies celebrated the natal day of Washington by a Public Dinner.

HORRID TO RELATE.—On the night of the 27th ult. the Dwelling House of Mr. Lewis Bridges, of Franklin county, was consumed by fire...

BY THE LAST MAIL.

On the 25th ult. the House of Representatives of the U. S. had a session of thirteen hours and a half...

Congress have appropriated one million of dollars for Fortifications, and $ 445,000 for repairing the Frigates.

WASHINGTON-CITY, March 4, 1869.

This day, at twelve o'clock, JAMES MADISON took the oath of Office as PRESIDENT of the United States...

SPEECH:

Unwilling to depart from examples, of the most revered authority, I avail myself of the occasion now presented, to express the profound impression made on me by the call of my country to the station...

honour and the responsibility allowed to me are inexpressibly enhanced.

The present situation of the world is indeed a most difficult one; and that of our own country full of difficulties. The pressure of these evils is more severely felt...

It is a precious reflection that the transition from this prosperous condition of our country to the scene which has for some time been distressing us...

This unexceptionable course could not avail against the injustice and violence of the belligerent powers. In their rage against each other...

To cherish peace and friendly intercourse with all nations having correspondent dispositions; to maintain sincere neutrality towards belligerent nations...

It is my good fortune, moreover, to have the path in which I am to tread, lighted by examples of illustrious services, successfully rendered in the most trying difficulties by those who have marched before me...

But the source, to which I look for the aids which alone can supply my deficiencies, is in the well tried intelligence and virtue of my fellow citizens...

Raleigh Academy.

The Trustees of this Seminary are requested to form a general meeting on Thursday, the ninth instant, at twelve o'clock...

NOTICE.—The sale of the personal estate of Rachel Boddie, dec. will commence on the 16th of March...