

THE SHANNON

The river of the Shannon, which is said to be a modern river...

THE GENIUS OF ERIN

As I passed over the Shannon, which I take from numbers...

The day star arose yond the towering mountain, And the faint glory shined on the face of the dell...

A stream of intelligence like lightning descended, Quick bright'ning the cave hollowed mountain's dark...

And with it a groan like a thunder was blended, And the genius of Erin, such wood nymph replied...

In an instant I saw on the mountain's far summit, A form like a God in dress may'st thou stand...

As inscription, "emancipate him" gleam'd afar, While a voice like the roar of the ocean thus spake...

THE FAIR EQUIVOQUE

From a plea-out little work called the Journey of Life...

A blooming Harriet moved along, The fair and the beautiful throne, The beauty gazed on with admiration...

THE SENSITIVE PLANT

Three bellies in a garden were viewing the plants, Connected respectively by their gallants...

MISCELLANY

VENTRILOQUISM, OF THE CELEBRATED MR. FITZ JAMES

The busy indolence of London has often, of late, been much engaged by the marvellous feats of Mr. Fitz James...

After a comic piece had been read by Mons. Volange, Mr. Fitz James, who was sitting among the audience...

and person's speech, explained the nature of the subject of our attention...

Our attention was directed to the street, by the marked attention which Fitz James himself appeared to pay to the sound...

The actor then proceeded to show us specimens of his art as a mimic, and here the power he had acquired over the muscles of his face...

His principal performance, however, consisted in the debates at Neuterre, in which there were twenty different speakers...

lowest, the most ignorant part of Society was called upon to decide the fate of a whole people...

Description of the Suck and Whirl in Tennessee River, in a letter from a gentleman travelling through the Western Country...

Nothing transpired after my departure from the Suck, (as it is called) which is a great curiosity...

The river Tennessee, above the Suck, is remarkable for its placid current—the banks beautifully shaded by tall and almost impervious cane...

From the Look-Out Mountain to the Suck, commonly called eight miles, the current is somewhat more rapid than above...

The immense rocks which obstruct the passage of the river, now begin to come in view, the boisterous rapidity of the surges dashing against them...

The boiling pot or whirl has been blended by writers, or no distinction observed as to their different situations...

The natural current and counter current coming in contact, produce swells or cavities, some as large as the head of a barrel...

From the Rhode Island American. On the 17th of June last I took my departure from Block-Island...

In a late trial about two wills, found in the scrotum of a gentleman deceased, a Jew was the plaintiff, and his counsel remarked...

near a large quantity fell in the water under our lee, at the distance I should judge of about twelve feet...

The Connecticut meteor, that terminated in a stone, has excited much discussion amongst learned philosophers...

We embrace the earliest opportunity to communicate any facts to the public which may throw light on this interesting question...

ERA OF THE WORLD

A writer in the National Intelligencer has suggested a new data by which to estimate the age of this globe...
