Hyco Academy Lottery.

THE Trustees of the Hyeo Academy, solicitous more liberally to encourage and perpetuate the advantages arising from this Seminary, and conscious of the ill successing a direct application to the generosity of the public, obtained an act of the Legislature of this State, to raise a sum by way of Lottery to be applied by said Trustees to the use and henefit of the said Academy; and now most respectfully offer the scheme to their fellow-citizens and solicit their patronage.

The particular friends to the Institution will require no further injunction on their liberality to embark in the further injunction on their liberality to, embark in the Scheme, than a knowledge of its utility. The friends of Science in every quarter where the Scheme may be presented, there is no doubt, will have sufficient motives to extend their generosity.

The moderate Price of the Tickets, and the fairness of the Plan, it is hoped, will be a sufficient inducement to individuals, who wish to become adventurers in Lotteres : which they may do for the small sum of Three Bollars, and for which sum, One Thousand Dollars may be gained. The above Lottery is authorized by an act of the Legis lature of North Carolina, for the purpose of enabling the Trustees of the NEWTON ACADEMY near the town of Asheville, to compleat the necessary buildings belonging to the same-And also to establish a Female Academy in the town of Asheville. Which two objects the Trustees and Managers flatter themselves will be a sufficient inducement, undependent of the flattering prospect held out in the above SCHEME, to influence all zealous friends to useful Institutions to become liberal purchasers of tickets-And they deem is unnecessary to expatiate largely in contrasting the advantages these institutions may have (if well supported with friends) over most other Seminaries - For it is now very generally known that Asheville is one of the most healthy situations on this continent-and lying in the neighbourhood of the Warm Springs, and on the main road from thence, (as well as from the Western to the Southern States) is more generally resorted to by the best characters of both sexes during Summer and Autumn, (for the benefit of health)than almost any other place in the Southern section of the Union—And being also a place where board and Tuition are had on very moderate terms-Where the Youths of the sister states will by the foundation of sound constitutions together with their Educations, and receive the visits of their friends to and from the Warm Springs.

All these advantages united bear evident testimony of the elegibility of Asheville as a seat for Literary Institutions-And therefore on these a lf-evident grounds, we respectfully solicit the public patronage.

POLITICAL.

From the Virginia Argua. TO THE HONOURABLE JOHN RANDOLPH.

Str - I'he production of Philo Laos in the Spirit of Seventy Six of the 12th instant, has fully compensated the public for your unconstitutional absence from your seat in Congress. Although I do not expressly charge you with being the authour of that performance, yet we perceive in it much of your genius, and all the malignity of your passions. The sentiments it breathes correspond so precisely with your political views, that I am justified in ascribing it to one of your bosom friends; and, with some allowance for a difference between speaking and writing, it is just such an invective as the world expected from you at the present period.

To speak with discretion, your remaining at home under the pretence of indisposition, is extremely prudent. Your inconsistency of conduct had become so palpable that it was exceedingly difficult for you to make out a plausible story for your constituents; and, for once in your life, you tacitly confessed that there is a point in politics at which importure must cease. Even the power of your face. could no longer furnish a mask for the ungracious contrivances of cunning; and you wise-ly confined yourself to your plantation, waiting, like an unholy atheist, for some fortuitous concourse of political atoms, which might place the affairs of the nation in a posture more congenial to your spirit. At a convenient season we shall find you creeping forth from your retreat to scatter the seeds of discontent among the people, and to wither the nerve of government. Such a common exertion of your faculties will create no surprize; and must serve most admirably to illustrate the complexion of your patriotism. In the mean time we are, it seems, to be amused and edified by occasional sallies from a news paper which claims the honour of being under

Your particular patronage and direction.
Your opposition to Mr. Madison, previously to his late election, was marked by an intemperate personal hostility. In the gratification of your spleen you violated every rule of decorum, and forfeited much of your pretension to the character of a gentlemen. But you failed in your attempt to crush him, and
