300 Dollars Reward.

THE Subscriber offers a Reward of Two Hundred Dollars for apprehending a villain who passes by the name of BALDWIN, and was recommended as an overseer. He took on the 15th instant a prime young Fellow by name LEWIS, from the subscriber's plantation. Baldwin is about five feet five to seven inches in height; from twenty seven to thirty years of age; fair complexion; well made; remarkably active; speaks fluently, and is very plausible; his voice is more of a tenor than strong and manly; was surveyor in the Mississippi Territory and kept a school on the Long Bay the last summer; wore a pair of pantaloons and a long coat, made of light mixed homespun, and a blue or dark coloured round jacket, or spencer over his coat, with a white hat. He says he is a native of Massachusetts, but more probably a Virginian—it is probable he will make his way westward.
Lewis is a good looking and well made Fellow; from five feet to five or six inches high; twenty two or twenty three years of age; subordinate and well disposed clothed in dyed plains with a jacket and pantaloons; is a native of Virginia, and was purchased a few years ago of a Mr. Wingate of Virginia.
A further reward of One Hundred Dollars will be paid for the delivery of Lewis to Mr. Francis Withers in Georgetown, (S. C.) or to

The above Lottery is authorized by an act of the Legislature of North Carolina, for the purpose of enabling the Trustees of the NEWTON ACADEMY near the town of Asheville, to complete the necessary buildings belonging to the same.—And also to establish a Female Academy in the town of Asheville.

Which two objects the Trustees and Managers flatter themselves will be a sufficient inducement, independent of the flattering prospect held out in the above SCHEME, to induce all zealous friends to useful institutions to become liberal purchasers of tickets.—And they deem it unnecessary to expatiate largely in contrasting the advantages these institutions may have (if well supported with friends) over most other Seminaries.—For it is now very generally known that Asheville is one of the most healthy situations on this continent, and lying in the neighbourhood of the Warm Springs, and on the main road from thence, (as well as from the Western to the Southern States) is more generally resorted to by the best character of both sexes during Summer and Autumn, (for the benefit of health than almost any other place in the Southern section of the Union.—And being also a place where board and tuition are had on very moderate terms.—Where the Youth of the sister states will lay the foundation of sound constitutions together with their Education, and receive the visits of their friends and from the Warm Springs.—All these advantages united bear evident testimony of the eligibility of Asheville, as a seat for Literary Institutions.—And therefore on these self-evident grounds, we respectfully solicit the public patronage.

Stewart was born in Ire and, (but came to this country when an infant.) he is five feet eleven and an half inches high, twenty-two years of age, has grey eyes, brown hair, good complexion, by occupation a labourer; took with him citizen's cloaths, and armed with a rifle and pistols.—The pistols are of uncommon make, the property of the United States.
John Wynne was born in Georgia; he is five feet six inches high, thirty-five years of age, has grey eyes, light hair, fair complexion, by occupation a tailor; went away in citizen's cloaths, and armed with pistols, and probably a rifle, as the parties stole two rifles and a number of pistols, previous to their desertion. The rifles are very ordinary in their appearance, the pistols uncommon particularly with respect to the locks, and firing of the panrod.
John Hopkins, of Captain Laval's troops, was born in South Carolina, is five feet nine inches high; has dark complexion and hair.
Charles Meral, of said troop, is a native of South Carolina, twenty-three years of age, five feet ten inches high; has light complexion, and dark hair; went off in citizen's cloaths, and armed with either pistols or rifle.
Daniel Holloway, of Captain John R. Spain's company of Light Artillery, is a native of Virginia, twenty-three years of age, five feet nine inches high; has fair complexion, blue eyes and dark hair.
Willie Barlow, of said company, deserted at the same time, of whom an accurate descriptive list cannot be given. The above reward, with all expenses will be paid (on that proportion for either) to any person who will deliver the said deserters to me at this post, or secure them in goal, and give the necessary information to me, or to any commanding officer in the army of the United States.

Notice.

THE Subscribers having been appointed by the Trustees of the University of North-Carolina Commissioners for completing the main building of the University, are determined to avoid all unnecessary delay—it will, therefore, be expedient for any person who is disposed to contract for the whole of the Brick Work to address their proposals as speedily as possible to the subscribers, either at Stagville or Chapel Hill, Orange county. It is estimated that the work now to be done will require four hundred thousand Bricks.

Hycos Academy Lottery.

THE Trustees of the Hycos Academy, solicitous more liberally to encourage and perpetuate the advantages arising from this Seminary, and conscious of the success in a direct application to the generosity of the public, obtained an act of the Legislature of this State to raise a sum by way of Lottery to be applied by said Trustees to the use and benefit of the said Academy; and now most respectfully offer the scheme to their fellow-citizens and solicit their patronage.

The particular friends to the institution will require no further injunction on their liberality to embark in the Scheme, than a knowledge of its utility. The friends of Science in every quarter where the Scheme may be presented, there is no doubt, will have sufficient motives to extend their generosity.

The moderate Price of the Tickets, and the fairness of the Plan, it is hoped, will be a sufficient inducement to individuals, who wish to become adventurers in Lotteries, which they may do for the small sum of Three Dollars, and for which sum, One Thousand Dollars may be gained. Who would not enhance his fortune at so moderate an expense.

The advantages of Literature are so generally felt and acknowledged in this our enlightened and Republican Government, that the Trustees think it unnecessary to enlarge on the quality of the Plan.

DEBATE

ON THE JOINT RESOLUTION
Approving the conduct of the Executive in relation to the refusal to receive any further communication from Francis James Jackson.
January 5, 1810.

The arrangement of April last between our administration and Mr. Erskine stipulating on our part for the removal of the restrictions of the non-intercourse and non-impatriation laws, as to Great Britain, and on her part the discontinuance of her orders in council on the 10th June; and the disavowal of that arrangement by the British government, though not necessary to be considered in coming to a decision on the resolution before us, yet having a near relation to the subject has been brought into the discussion. I may be pardoned therefore, for expressing my view of that matter.—Standing upon the high republican ground, that the administration, if not our servants, are assuredly not our masters, I shall in the investigation of their conduct use the freedom which belongs to a freeman, while I cannot forget the candour which becomes me as a man and a member of this House.

I ask then, sir, whence has arisen this new difficulty, this additional point of collision between us and Great Britain, which has given birth to that controversy, which the national councils are now called upon to consider; a controversy which is said to have inflicted a
