200 Dollars Reward.

TAKEN from my Plantation, on the 15th instant, my Driver named SAM, forty-eight years of age, pocked marked, thin visage, tall and slim, walks with a short quick step, and stoops a little in the shoulders, speaks slowly, and has conducted himself hitherto, with fidelity; but was seduced from his business by the villain named BALDWIN, lately advertised for a similar offence, in stealing a negro fellow named LEWIS. It is probable that BALDWIN and the negroes will change their names while effecting their escape. A Reward of TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS, will be paid for the delivery of SAM in either of the goals of the state, that he may be recovered; and reasonable charges paid, if conducted to Mr. Francis Withers, Georgetown (S. C.) or to the Subscriber.

THOMAS WARING, Junr.
Waccamaw, Feb. 23. 10 3 w.

300 Dollars Reward.

THE Subscriber offers a Reward of Two Hundred Dollars for apprehending a Slave who passes by the name of BALDWIN, and was recommended as an overseer. He took on the 15th instant a prime young Fellow by name LEWIS, from the subscriber's plantation.

Baldwin is about five feet five to seven inches in height; from twenty seven to thirty years of age; fair complexion; well made; remarkably active; speaks fluently, and is very plausible; his voice is more effeminate than strong and manly; was surveyor in the Mississippi Territory, and kept a school on the Long Bay the last summer; wore a pair of pantaloons and a long coat, made of light mixed homespun, and a blue or dark coloured round jacket, or spencer over his coat, with a white hat. He says he is a native of Massachusetts, but more probably a Virginian—it is probable he will make his way westward.

Lewis is a good looking and well made Fellow; from five feet five or six inches high; twenty two or twenty three years of age; subordinate and well poised; clothed in dyed plains with a jacket and pantaloons; is a native of Virginia, and was purchased a few years ago of a Mr. Wingate of Virginia.

A further reward of One Hundred Dollars will be paid for the delivery of Lewis to Mr. Francis Withers in Georgetown, (S. C.) or to

TO PARENTS & GUARDIANS.

CIRCUMSTANCES of a domestic nature having rendered it necessary that FRANCES BOWEN should remain to her family in Fayetteville, she has (though reluctantly) withdrawn herself from the Raleigh Academy, and purposes opening a on the first Monday in March, for the reception of Young Ladies. She engages to teach them those various branches of Literature which she has taught with some success for three years past in the Raleigh Academy—She is encouraged to hope that the Parents and Guardians of children will feel no apprehensions in placing their children or wards under her instruction. They may depend that the utmost exertions will be made to cultivate the minds and improve the morals of such as may be committed to her care. Terms of Tuition will be made known on application to the subscriber.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN-AWAY from the Subscriber on the second day of January, 1808, a NEGRO MAN known by the name of MICAJAH, twenty-four years old, dark complexion, six feet high, flat nose, and a grum down look. The above-described fellow has, since the time of his absconding himself, been lurking in the counties of Franklin and Nash, passing for a free man, by differnt names—viz. John Freeman and Frank Harrison, and it is supposed will be at the Fisheries on Roanoke and Tar Rivers this Spring. As I a few days ago was near apprehending said Negro, it is probable that he will again change his name, and perhaps his place of residence. The above reward will be given to any person who will deliver said Negro to the Subscriber, living on Deep River, Chatham County, N. C. near Brantly's Ferry; or will secure him in any Jail, giving me information thereof.

All prizes not demanded within 12 months after drawing, will be considered relinquished for the benefit of the institutions.

The above Lottery is authorized by an act of the Legislature of North Carolina, for the purpose of enabling the Trustees of the NEWTON ACADEMY near the town of Asheville, to complete the necessary buildings belonging to the same—And also to establish a Female Academy in the town of Asheville.

Which two objects the Trustees and Managers flatter themselves will be a sufficient inducement, independent of the flattering prospect held out in the above SCHEME, to influence all zealous friends to useful Institutions to become liberal purchasers of tickets.—And they deem it unnecessary to expatiate largely in contrasting the advantages these institutions may have (if well supported with friends) over most other Seminaries.—For it is now very generally known that Asheville is one of the most healthy situations on this continent—and lying in the neighbourhood of the Warm Springs, and on the main road from thence, (as well as from the Western to the Southern States) is more generally resorted to by the best characters of both sexes during Summer and Autumn, (for the benefit of health) than almost any other place in the Southern section of the Union—And being also a place where board and Tuition are had on very moderate terms—Where the Youths of the sister states will lay the foundation of sound constitutions together with their Educations, and receive the visits of their friends to and from the Warm Springs.—All these advantages united bear evident testimony of the eligibility of Asheville as a seat for Literary Institutions.—And therefore on these self-evident grounds, we respectfully solicit the public patronage.

EDUCATION IN N. CAROLINA.
THE UNIVERSITY

Never conferred greater benefits or exhibited fairer prospects of continued success than at the present time. It has now precisely 100 Students, of whom about 65 are on the Establishment and the remainder in the Academy. Some estimate may be formed of the value of our other Seminaries in different parts of the State from the number of Students they have severally furnished to the University. Of the Students now on Chapel-Hill 5 received the first rudiments of their classical Education at the Academy in Louisville; 6 at Raleigh, four at Caswell, 1 at Belfield, Va. 1 at Pittsborough, 1 at Guilford, 1 at Warrenton, 4 at Salisbury, 2 at Spring-Hill, Lenoir, 1 at Fayetteville, 4 at Ebenezer, Va. 2 at Hampden Sydney College, Va. 23 at Chapel-Hill, and the remainder at different places in this State, Virginia and South-Carolina, unknown to us.

Of the merits of the Institution in the higher branches of instruction nothing need be said. The Institution itself, deserted and frowned upon by the Legislature, has been preserved in existence by the talents and exertions alone of its President. Public opinion has at length uttered its strong voice in its favour, and the Legislature has again extended to it its fostering hand. We on a former occasion noticed the success of the President's exertions to obtain private contributions. These will enable the Trustees to enclose the Main Building, and the success of the former attempt leaves no room to doubt but enough will be obtained by subscriptions to complete it.

The Preparatory School is now much superior to what it has been at any former period. Its Teacher is unquestionably the best Latin & Greek Scholar in the State, and equal to any whatever. We are informed that President Caldwell, in his zeal to procure his valuable services to the Institution, contributes to his compensation in addition to the salary allowed by the Trustees.

To show how the Education of a youth should be conducted who is intended for the University, we here give a Catalogue of the Books read by the several Classes in the University, with remarks extracted from a publication ordered by the Trustees in July last.
