FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

Fort Norfolk, Harbour of Norfolk, May 25th 1810.
Messrs. Editors.—In your Star of the 17th instant, over the signature of Charles C. McKenzie, and in a Nota Bene thereto, is the most glaring evasion and audacious falsehood that ever disgraced so useful a paper. The writer states that he never was a Pay Master, this is a solitary truth, but when he avers that he never embezzled the public money, it is a palpable falsehood, for it is a fact well known here, that (under pretence of obtaining cash for a draft amounting to about $320 which he had received from Lt. James S. Swearington district paymaster, for the purpose of paying off a small detachment U. S. troops under his command,) he was permitted to go to the Post-Office at Cabin Point, from whence he was immediately to return, and by an express order that day have made the payment above alluded to agreeable to his instructions; but contrary to every rational expectation, he deserted from his post, (Fort Poulston,) taking with him said draft or cash, whereby he not only embezzled the public money, but basely protracted the payment to the soldiers until other funds could be sent on. In the Nota Bene he says "should Col. Pasteur have been so far misled as to say that I am a pay master and advertise me, which that he has done I deny, he may save his reward and need only signify his wishes and I am immediately or as soon as I can reach the place, prepared to stand before any tribunal and will there confront those base reports and put my enemies to the blush." If impudence could blush, McKenzie would here be crimsoned over. He knows that I never have said that I was a pay master, but that I have advertised him as a deserter and an embezzler of public money, is notorious; Now as he has declared his willingness to appear before any tribunal on a condition that he will meet me at this garrison, where one appropriate can be convened, if I do not establish on him the facts as above stated, he shall receive the reward of 50 dollars as heretofore and which is still offered to any person that will apprehend and deliver him the said C. C. McKenzie to me at this post in order that so vile an offender may be brought to justice.
EDWARD PASTEUR,
Colonel of the 3d U. S. Regiment of Infantry.

TEN DOLLARS REWARD.

WALKED away from the subscriber on the night of the 17th instant a negro fellow named TITUS, stout made, nearly six feet high, and a little bent shouldered. He had on a green jacket, and brown linen overalls. It is expected he will make for Newbern. The above reward will be given to any person bringing him back and all charges paid, or five dollars to place him in any goal and give me information.

CULLEN BLACKMAN, Executor.
Waynesborough, May 24, 1810.

Great Bargains, FOR CASH.

THOMAS D. BURCH, having on hand, as near as can be estimated, about 2,000 dollars worth of tolerably well assorted Goods—and having lately determined to remove, now offers them at the most reduced prices for cash—which will make them extremely low indeed.—If T. D. B. can save himself in the sale of all his goods he will be satisfied.
This is a favourable opportunity of soliciting those who owe him money to come forward and make immediate payment as he is anxious to settle his business before his removal.
Raleigh, 24th May.

Female Education, WARRENTON.

THE Semi-annual examination of the pupils at this school will commence on Wednesday the 27th of June.—Parents, Guardians and Friends of the institution are respectfully invited.

All prizes not demanded within 12 months after drawing will be considered relinquished for the benefit of the institutions.
The above Lottery is authorized by an act of the Legislature of North Carolina, for the purpose of enabling the Trustees of the NEWTON ACADEMY near the town of Asheville, to complete the necessary buildings belonging to the same.—And also to establish a Female Academy in the town of Asheville.
Which two objects the Trustees and Managers flatter themselves will be a sufficient inducement, independent of the flattering prospect held out in the above SCHEME, to influence all zealous friends to useful Institutions to be come liberal purchasers of tickets.—And they deem it unnecessary to expatiate largely in contrasting the advantages these institutions may have (if well supported with friends) over most other Seminaries.—For it is now very generally known that Asheville is one of the most healthy situations on this continent—and lying in the neighbourhood of the Warm Springs, and on the main road from thence, (as well as from the Western to the Southern States) is more generally resorted to by the best characters of both sexes during Summer and Autumn, (for the benefit of health) than almost any other place in the Southern section of the Union.—And being also a place where board and Tuition are had on very moderate terms.—Where the Youths of the sister states will lay the foundation of sound constitutions together with their Educations, and receive the visits of their friends to and from the Warm Springs.—All these advantages united bear evident testimony of the eligibility of Asheville as a seat for Literary Institutions.—And therefore on these self-evident grounds, we respectfully solicit the public patronage.

Forms of all Militia Returns required by law from Officers of Division, Brigade, Regiment, and Company have been this day forwarded to those Officers by post.—In the hope and belief that those forms will be preserved and copies taken, no others will hereafter be furnished unless it shall appear that the want of them has become general; or they are particularly applied for, and the kind and number specified; in which case they will be immediately forwarded.
CALVIN JONES, A. G. N. C. M.
Raleigh, May 17, 1810.

THE Semi-annual Examination of the Students of the Raleigh Academy was closed on Friday last, and happily put it in the power of the Trustees to announce to the Parents and Guardians concerned and who were not present, that in no one Session since the existence of that institution have there been such general and promising evidences of industrious attention and rapid progress.—The Students both Male and Female, gave distinguished proofs of genius and of talents—they very generally deserved commendation and acquitted themselves in such manner as reflected the highest credit on their Teachers. They were dismissed on a Holiday of one week, after being addressed in an appropriate and impressive manner by Judge Potter, one of the Trustees of the Academy.
The day following Mrs. Sambourne's Pupils performed on the Piano Forte, with great applause, in presence of a crowded and respectable audience assembled in the Senate Chamber, which had been previously adorned by some of the most beautiful designs in drawing, and elegant specimens in Needle work ever exhibited in this country—the productions of the females of the Academy under her direction.
The second Session of the present year will commence on Monday the 4th of June next, when the Academy will be under the immediate care and superintendance of the Rev. Mr. M'Pheeters, who has already arrived.—The trustees promise themselves much from the acknowledged ability, known fitness and superior qualifications of this Gentleman—they will only therefore add the information of others, that it has been determined that the plan of Education to be pursued in this Academy shall be so altered and amended as to make the correct Spelling, Reading, Writing, and Speaking of the American Language a business of unremitting attention and of primary consideration.

LUMBER RIVER Navigation Lottery.

THE sale of the Tickets in this Lottery has exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the commissioners; yet they deem it inexpedient to commence the Drawing, as three fourths of the Tickets are not at this time disposed of.
In order to render general satisfaction, Alfred Rowland, high Sheriff of Robeson County, D. Mac Alpin, Surveyor of said County, and John Gilchrist, late of the University of North Carolina, distinguished gentlemen of distinguished probity, are appointed to superintend the drawing of said Lottery which is deferred until the 31st day of July next, at which time every person interested with the disposal of Tickets are requested to settle up.—Should any person fail he or they shall be deemed a holder and liable according to the Scheme for the number of Tickets retained or unsettled for.
WILLIAM ASHLEY, Treasurer.
May 20, 1810.
N. B. Tickets may be had at the Star office, and at Col. John Dickson's and Thomas J. Robertson's Stores in Fayetteville, Wm. Dick's Hotel in Wilmington, and at the Post office in Lumberton, Laurel Hill, Sneedsborough, Moore Court House, George Town and Charleston S. C. and Mac Farland's Turnpike.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN-AWAY from the Subscriber on the 11th of September, 1809, a Mulatto fellow named JIM. He is large and likely, about five feet eleven inches high, and aged thirty-five. His face is over-run with marks of the Small Pox, and on one side of his nose (the right side I believe) there is a scar occasioned by the kick of a horse. When he ran-away from me he carried with him a Bay Mare. Jim can read and write and I expect he will pass himself for a free man. I suspect he has gone to Wilmington, having connections there. Any person who will deliver this boy into my possession shall receive Fifty Dollars, and Twenty-Five if he is secured in any jail.

Roanoke Ferry.

THE Subscribers wish to inform their friends, customers, and the public in general, that they have this year the management of the Ferry crossing Roanoke, at the place well known by the name of HASKINS & MITCHELL'S Ferry, on the main road leading to Petersburg and Richmond. They have good boats sufficiently large to carry a waggon and hoghead of tobacco, eight teams at once, or three hogheads; and ferrymen sufficient to manage them. David Mitchell, one of the subscribers, who now has the management, pledges himself that due attention shall be paid, and every exertion will be made to give general satisfaction; at which place as great dispatch will be used as at any other Ferry on Roanoke. They solicit the continuation of their friend's patronage.

Westrayville Academy, NASH COUNTY.

THE Examination of the Students of the Westrayville Academy will commence on Monday the 18th of June next, and continue three days. The third day will be occupied in Single Speeches and Dialogues. To avoid disappointments the Trustees are requested to attend punctually. As the mode of payment may not be generally known, we have deemed it necessary to observe, that the money for board and tuition is paid in advance at the commencement of each Session. The vacation will continue until the first Monday in July.
