The public semi-annual Examination and Exhibition of the Students of the Fayetteville Academy commenced on Monday the 11th of June, and critical on Thursday following. The lower classes twee examined on Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, Spelling as I upon Pronunciation, agreeably to the principles of Walker's Dictionary. The higher classes were examined upon English Grammar, Geography, the Latin and Greek Languages, Logic, Geography, the Latin and Greek Languages, Logic, Geography, Trigonometry and Natural and Moral Philosophy. The examination was conducted in Mason Hall before the Trustees, and a large concourse of ladies and Gentlemen. The Trustees assure Parents and Guardians that this examination allorded the highest astisfaction to all concerned. In it they have beheld their most amiguine hopes realized and their exertions crowned with more than ample success. The Students, both in the male and female departments, acquitted themselves in such a manner as to procure for themselves and seachers the highest commendations. In so large a number (upwards of 150) the Trustees never with a seal fewer instances of deficiency. This examination has added fresh energy to the exertions of those more immediately interested in the prosperity of the institution. Arrangements are making to procure a handsome Library and apparatus for the use of the Academy. This, idded to the local advantages possessed, cannot full to make this one of the most useful institutions of the kind in the Southern States. The exercises closed with an exhibition of vocal and instrumental Music by the pupils of Mrs. Perry which afforded pleasure to the Students, and a crowled audience, in which distinctions and honours were avarded to those who particularly excelled. He then delivered an address in which were pointed out in the most striking terms the advantages of a liberal Education, the motives to dilligence and application in the laudible pursuits of science, and presented inducements for the acquisition of virtuous principles and Christian moralit
