PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY, BY THOMAS HENDERSON, JUN. FOR SELF & CO. IN THE SECOND STORY OF THE NEW HOUSE NEXT BELOW THE GOVERNOR'S OFFICE.—PRICE THREE DOLLARS PER ANNUM, PAYABLE HALF YEARLY IN ADVANCE.—SINGLE PAPER TEN CENTS. SUBSCRIPTIONS RECEIVED BY ALL THE POST-MASTERS.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

TEN DOLLARS REWARD.

RANAWAY from the Subscriber on the 4th of Sept. last, a Negro Woman named NANCY, about 40 years old. She wore away new home spun clothes, made of Flax and Cotton, and carried with her sundry articles of clothing. She was purchased not long since in Pasquotank county. She is now skulking about in the neighborhood, I imagine, as she was seen about 4 weeks ago. The neighbours will greatly oblige me by keeping a look out, and the above reward will be cheerfully paid to any person who will apprehend and deliver her to me, near the Falls of Neuse, Wake county.

EDUCATION.

THE Trustees of the Vine-Hill Academy have great pleasure in announcing to the Public, that they have engaged as principal of that Institution, Mr. DANIEL ADAMS who has long devoted himself to the instruction of Youth, and for the last two years has been the principal of a very respectable Academy at Stratford, in Connecticut. Mr Adams will teach the learned Languages and the various branches of science preparatory to a College Education; and from the great respectability of his character, (which is personally known to one of the Trustees) his experience and success, it is hoped this institution will receive the patronage and support its infant state so much requires.

The English department will be under the superintendance of Mr. Hawkins, whose great attention to his school the present year, and conduct generally has been highly satisfactory. The Trustees are candid when they declare for the satisfaction of Parents, their belief that the site of the Vine Hill Academy and its vicinity, is excelled by few in the State for its salubrity. The school will commence the first of January next. A boarding-house will be kept at the Academy by Major Alsobrook, which will be under the particular superintendance and controul of the Trustees. Price of board 50 dollars per annum.—Board may also be obtained in respectable houses in the neighbourhood for any number of students. It is expected a quarter Both for board and Tuition will be paid in advance.

Scotland Neck, Nov. 24, 1810.

STRONG, HANDSOME & CHEAP BOOTS AND SHOES.

WILLIS NELMS,

At his shop on Harget street, sixty yards East of the Market House,

HAS on hand an Assortment of Excellent Boots and Shoes, made out of the best leather that could be procured at Petersburg, and offers them for sale very low for cash. If gentlemen will take the trouble to call and judge for themselves, he flatters himself that they will not have reason to complain either of price or quality.

Raleigh, November 8, 1810.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE IN RALEIGH, N. C.

THE subscriber intending to remove out of this state early next spring, (say by the middle of March at farthest)—he therefore offers for sale on liberal terms, that valuable and beautiful situation, whereon he now resides: Also three Store Houses on Fayetteville-street, perhaps inferiour to none in the city, in point of being eligibly situated for business; two of which have attached to them sufficient accommodations for a family, all necessary out houses, &c. both at present are occupied in that way:—Also seven Town Lots of one acre each, under good post & rail fences, contiguous to his Dwelling-house, and fifty acres wood Land, three miles from Raleigh——Believing that none will purchase without viewing the premises a further description is deemed unnecessary. The terms will be made easy and accommodating to the purchasers.

In consequence of my intention as above stated, those few who are indebted to me will perceive the necessity of my soliciting payment at as early a period as convenient to them; and those who have any demands against me are requested to bring them forward prior to the 15th of March ensuing.

THE STOCK OF GOODS

Belonging to William Shaw & Co. now on hand, is large and well assorted, (the greater part fresh) selected particularly for this market, will be from this time sold at unusually reduced prices, either by whole sale or retail for Cash, Corn, or merchantable Cotton in seed; or even on a short credit to those customers whose attention to regular payments has been satisfactory. My present intention and arrangements make it evidently the interest of those concerned to dispose of the present Stock in trade at such rates as to induce purchasers to give them a preference, it being agreed upon to wind up as speedily as possible all the business in this state, (at least for the present,) in which the subscriber is concerned as well as that in which William Shaw & Co. are interested.

They will give Goods at their present market prices for real good Cotton in seed, allowing 40 shillings per 100 for such Cotton.

NOTES.

1. The Post-master General may expedite the mails and alter the times for arrival and departure at any time during the continuance of the contract, he previously stipulating an adequate compensation for any extra expense that may be occasioned thereby.

2. Fifteen minutes shall be allowed for opening and closing the mail, at all offices where no particular time is specified.

3. For every thirty minutes delay (unavoidable accidents excepted) in arriving after the times prescribed in any contract, the contractor shall forfeit one dollar; and if the delay continue until the departure of any depending mail, whereby the mails destined for such depending mail lose a trip, a forfeiture of double the amount allowed for carrying the mail one trip shall be incurred, unless it shall be made to appear that the delay was occasioned by unavoidable accident; in which case the amount of pay for the trip, will, in all cases, be forfeited and retained.

4. Persons making proposals are desired to state their prices by the year. Those who contract will receive their pay quarterly—in the months of February, May, August and November, one month after the expiration of each quarter.

5. No other than a free white person shall be employed to convey the mail.

6. Where the proposer intends to convey the mail in the body of a stage carriage, he is desired to state it in his proposals.

7. The Post-master General reserves to himself the right of declaring any contract at an end whenever one failure happens, which amounts to the loss of a trip.

8. The contracts are to be in operation on the first day of April next, and continue until December 31, 1813.
