ADVERTISEMENTS.

STOP THE VILLAIN !!!

RAN AWAY from me on the 10th of August last, my Negro man NED TER, who previous to his going Elizabeth city with me—Said Negro is 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high, has a down complexion, stout made, a full face, and a big full voice—has a scar on one of his knees, occasioned by the cut of an axe, & a scar on his right thumb, caused by a whitlow.

For the apprehension of one who has been guilty of such an offence it would almost seem unnecessary to offer a reward—Justice and the good of society require his apprehension and punishment. I will however give a liberal reward for him & reasonable expences.

The said Negro has been heard of in the neighbourhood a few days past; but may possibly go off.

BROKE AWAY

FROM Col. Polk's, in Raleigh, about four weeks ago, a Brown Bay Mare, eight years old—without a brand—has a small star in her face, and has been snagged under the fore-top knee, the cut of which has scared up and left a piece of loose skin and flesh raw and an half or two inches broad. The above described mare was raised in Randolph county, and was pursued more than a mile that direction. I will satisfy any person that will give me information of said mare, in Randolph County, or to Mr. Josiah Dillard in Raleigh.

HORSES FED

In Raleigh, during the session of Assembly.

THE subscriber has good stables, a large horse lot, and an excellent clover lot, and will take 20 horses, and have every attention paid to them, $10 each, through the session of Assembly. Those who may think proper to leave their horses with him will not only have their horses well attended to, but will have an opportunity of seeing them at all times, and having them to ride when wanted.

WOODY MARTIN.

Raleigh, Oct. 3, 1811. 40 3.

BOARDING.

THE Subscriber, who resides just without the city, takes this method of informing the members of the ensuing Assembly, that he will accommodate eight or ten of them with comfortable rooms, if they should think proper to call on him—Should any be so disposed, he would be glad to receive a line on the subject immediately that he may prepare.

MONEY!!!

TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD.

OUGHT more I must call the attention of my fellow citizens to keep a good look out for my Negro woman who runaway from me on the 21 of September, 1810. She is about 40 years of age, large and portly, has a mark on her upper lip from the nose towards the mouth, which appears to have been made with a knife, has a full face and flat nose, and her teeth look black as if she had taken a good deal of Mercury, has holes in her Ears made to wear Ear-loops—and has a short pitch foot and very large in her instep. I will cheerfully give the above reward of twenty dollars to any person who will apprehend her, so that I get her again. I can't form any opinion as to the place where she may have gone. She was purchased of a man who said she came from Pasquotank.

NANCY,

50 DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber's plantation on the 26th of May last, in Fairfield District, State of S. Carolina, Two Negro men, named JACK and TARLTON. Jack was brought from Maryland, by Mr. John Marlen, about six or seven months ago, is about six feet high, stout and well made, of a black complexion, rather pleasant appearance, and somewhat of a sour and sullen look—he moves heartily and bends a little forward as he walks, and is about 30 years of age. A short time after he left home he endeavoured to pass under the name of Free Jack. When he went off he wore a great coat, of a dark grey colour, lined with red flannel, and edged with black velvet—he wore a pair of shoes made like pumps bottom, the rest of his clothes were various.

Tarlton is about five feet six or eight inches high, also of a black complexion, about 21 or 22 years of age, has a pleasant countenance, somewhat slow and hobbling in his walk—he took his clothes or the greater part of them, about 10 or 15 miles from home, therefore they cannot be described. He was bought about nine months ago from Mr. William Purdie of the city of Richmond, (Va.) and was came from or near that city. They were both heard of about two weeks after their departure a little to the south of Salisbury, N. C. and were then without hats and their heads tied up with a handkerchief. It is supposed they will endeavour to reach the city of Richmond as their first refuge. Any person that will have them lodged in any Jail where they may be secure, shall receive the above reward for both, or 25 dollars for either, and all reasonable expences paid.

JOHN LOWRY.

Fairfield District, S. C. July 4, 1811. tf

CAUTION

To all Persons who may be desirous of purchasing Lands within the Mississippi Territory.

WHEREAS certain Proclamations bearing date respectively on the 16th day of March, and the 2d day of June now last past, have lately been issued by the President of the United States, in pursuance of certain acts of Congress, & were promulgated through the medium of the National Intelligencer of the 15th inst. announcing the intention of Government to offer for sale at certain times and places thereon appointed, certain Lands contained in the District west of Pearl River in the Mississippi Territory, and of other Lands contained in the District east of the same River.

AND WHEREAS all the Lands referred to in the said Proclamations, are included within the tract, of which certain individuals, know by the name of the NEW-ENGLAND MISSISSIPPI LAND COMPANY, claim to be the Proprietors in virtue of a title, derived from a purchase of the State of Georgia, the validity of which title has been fully recognized and established by a recent decision of the Supreme Court of the United States:—

Now therefore, PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given, that the Directors of the said New-England Mississippi Land Company, in pursuance of the authority derived from said Company, do hereby for themselves, and in behalf of their Constituents, solemnly protest against any sales of the aforesaid Lands, as proposed in the proclamations alluded to; and relying on the perfect justice and legality of the claims of said Company to the said Lands, they do hereby caution and admonish all persons who may be disposed to make purchases of any part thereof from the Agents of the United States, that the sales of such Agents will not be regarded by said Company as of any validity, and that the said Company are resolved to oppose and resist the same by all possible legal means.

By order of the Board of Directors,

BENJA. HIGHBORN, President.

Attest,

BENJA. JARVIS, Clerk to the N. E. M. L. C.

Boston, July 18, 1811.

NOTIFICATION.

THE Proprietors of the above mentioned Tract of Land, having authorized the Directors of the said Company to survey, lay out, and dispose of part of the same:—The Directors aforesaid therefore hereby make known to all persons who may be desirous of purchasing any Lands within that part of the Company's Tract to which the Indian title has been extinguished, that they are now taking measures to offer for sale, throughtheir Agents, considerable portions of said Lands, at such times, in such quantities, and on such terms as they presume will be agreeable to all persons who may now be resident on the same, or any others who may be disposed to become purchasers and settlers thereon.

By order as above,

B. HIGHBORN, President.

☞ An agent has been sent out to the Territory to protest against the sales of our property.

A Situation as Teacher Wanted.

A YOUNG MAN qualified to teach Arithmetic, Practical Geometry, Surveying, Book-keeping, and also the Latin and Greek Languages, and the English Grammar, &c. &c. desires a situation as Teacher in some respectable Academy in North or South Carolina—he can commence on the 1st of January next. Satisfactory recommendations as to character and talents will be produced. Letters to the Editors of the Star, or to the Principal of the Franklin Academy, Louisburg, N. C. will, if post paid, be duly attended to.

Louisburg, Sept. 4.

ROBERT RUTHERFORD

Copper Smith and Tin-Plate Worker,

RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the Public, that he has commenced the above business in Raleigh, and intends carrying it on in all its Branches. He will make and repair all kinds of Coppers of every description in his line. Tin ware will also be made and repaired in the neatest and most faithful manner. He flatters himself that those who may favour him with their custom, will have no cause to complain of delay or neglect.

It is hoped the Inhabitants of this State will find themselves deeply interested in the encouragement of home manufactures.

☞ A generous price will be given for old metals, viz. Copper, Pewter and Lead.

Raleigh, August 1, 1811. 31tf

FOREIGN.

Boston, Sept. 27.—Yesterday a vessel arrived below, in 32 days from Cork, with Cork papers to the 21st of Aug. and London papers to the 16th.

The king remained very low, without any material alteration in his symptoms, as stated in the Bulletin of the 16th. He was that day visited by the Prince Regent and Duke of York.

The recent recruits sent to Portugal are said to amount to nearly 9,000 troops.

A fleet had arrived at Portsmouth from Portugal, with a number of officers and privates wounded at Albuera.

The Cork Intelligencer of August 21, mentions the receipt of London papers to the 16th inclusive. The king was then alive.

It is said that Admiral Sammarez has effected some relaxation in the measures of Sweden respecting British policy.

Several French clergymen, who had arrived in England, state that Bonaparte's last levies consist wholly of boys, and that there were no veterans in France, but the Imperial guards.

A Paris paper of August 11, notes the arrival of the American ship Manlius, Bond, at Bordeaux, laden with sugar, indigo and coffee.

Sweden, August 24.—From Gottenburg we have the following intelligence, just by an American gentleman.

Sir Charles Irving's arrival in Denmark, has saved the merchants in the Danish States (in count eighty
