Hillsborough Academy.

THE Reverend William Bingham having undertaken the charge of the Hillsborough Academy, the public are informed that the exercises of this institution will commence on the 3rd day of February ensuing. Miss Elizabeth Russell, is engaged to superintend the female department. The branches of learning which will be taught are Reading and Writing, English Grammar, Arithmetic, Geography, the Latin and Greek languages, and the Mathematics, at the rates following $12 for reading and writing, and 16 dolls for Geography Latin and Greek, &c. In the Term board may be procured upon cheap and reasonable terms. The abilities of the Rev'd Mr. Bingham, as a teacher, are too well known to require an eulogium, and it is believed here are few places possessed of the advantages of salubrity of climate and cheapness of living in a degree superior to Hillsborough. The Trustees flatter themselves therefore that in these circumstances parents will find inducements sufficiently strong to place their children in the Hillsborough Academy; and that their Seminars will receive a patronage proportionate to the advantages it will possess & the benefits it will be calculated to confer.

F. B. Miss Russell engages to teach Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, Geography, Needle-Work, Painting and Drawing in the Female Department. January 1st, 1812. D. YARBROUGH, Secy. 6-6t.

ADVERTISEMENT.

THE Managers of the Newton Lottery, return their sincere thanks to all who have evinced a willingness to aid them in carrying the Lottery into effect; and with reluctance inform them, that owing to the extreme scarcity of CASH, they are induced to believe that a sufficient number of Tickets, to justify the commencement of drawing in a reasonable time, cannot be sold. And lest those holding Tickets should become uneasy, we deem it our duty to discontinue the sale of tickets; and have refunded all the money to the Post-Masters and other Agents, that was forwarded by them to us, with a request that they will take in all the tickets they have respectively sold, which request we flatter ourselves each will comply with.
