When said horse went away he had on a small Bell, and was shod before. Any person securing the said horse, and giving me information so that I get him again shall be well rewarded for their trouble.

CHARLES PARISH

INFORMS his Friends and the Public that his Tavern is now open for the reception of Travellers and Boarders in the new Three Story Brick House, north of the State House and fronting Union Square. The house is spacious, completely finished, and well furnished; and the Stables are equal to any. Raleigh, July 1, 1812.

N. B. An Ice House and BATHING ROOMS will be constructed by the next season.

THE SUBSCRIBER

ONCE more begs leave to offer to the proprietors of Mills his new invented

INKS AND GUDGEONS.

Relying wholly on their own intrinsic worth, which has been fairly demonstrated by experiments, it is unnecessary to fill a column of this paper with commendation.—Suffice it to say, that one Set of these Inks and Gudgeons will last as long as ten sets of those in common use; and by calculation it will be found, that in seven years a saving of sixty dollars will be produced to the owner of a mill. 'Tis also worthy of remark, that a Wheel working on these Gudgeons will require less water than those of common construction; and when so worn as to be rendered useless, they will then be worth one third of the original cost. He would add that these Inks and Gudgeons, are warranted to possess all the qualities ascribed to them. Owners of Mills will therefore do well to avail themselves of the opportunity of so valuable an acquisition.

He will furnish Boxes for Saw Mills, or any other kind of Machinery at the shortest notice. Persons applying, must furnish the patterns. The prices of Boxes from 10 to 50 weight, will be 75 cents per pound. Those that are under ten pounds, will be proportionably higher according to the nature of the casting.

He would also beg leave to inform those who may stand in need of

ELASTIC TRUSSES.

That he continues to make them of any size or description that may be required. The utility of these Trusses is too generally known to need explanation. They are worn without pain or inconvenience, and are warranted to give relief to any person. In many instances their use have effected a cure. Persons in want of this article would be best fitted by attending in person; but in cases where this is not practicable, it will be necessary to send a measure of the waist, saying whether for the right or left side, and mentioning the habit of the body, if fleshy or lean. The prices are as follows: A Single Truss, plain & strong, for a coloured person, $6. A Double Truss, $8, and their board found them gratis while attending. Those for white persons will be furnished at any price ordered. The usual rates are, for single, from $8 to 10. Double Trusses, at a proportionate advance. Children's, half price. In all cases where orders are sent, 'tis expected the money will accompany them.

He likewise continues to carry on the

GUN SMITH'S BUSINESS,

In all its various branches, and having at this time a good supply of necessary materials, he may venture to assure his friends that orders will be executed with all possible dispatch. His ability as a workman, he flatters himself needs no other evidence than the work itself.

JAIL LOCKS,

Of any dimensions of a superior quality, will be furnished on reasonable terms, and at the shortest possible notice.

A liberal price will be given in cash, for Old Copper.

Orders for any thing in the above lines of business, will be thankfully received, and faithfully attended to, by application at his SHOP, in Raleigh, near the Post Office.

He would now beg leave to tender his sincere acknowledgements to a generous public for past favours, and pledges himself that his time and little talent, is not devoted to uncertain speculation or the acquirements of fame; but sincerely with the hope of rendering himself useful to Society.

Raleigh, June 19th, 1812.

DANIEL PECK.

TO UNDERTAKERS.

WILL be let to the lowest bidder in the Town of Greensborough, Guilford county, on Friday 21st of August next, (being Court week.) The Building a Jail for the county.—It will be an undertaking of considerable magnitude, well worth the attention of Workmen. The terms of pay will be made known on the day. Bond with approved security for the faithful performance of the contract will be required by

DANIEL GILLASPIE,
JAMES MILLIS,
JAMES PARSONS,
A. GEREN,
NATHAN ARMFIELD.

Greensborough, Guilford, June 10th, 1812.

Broke from the Goal

OF Tyrrell county, on the 28th of May, ADKINS MASSEY, who was indicted for an assault and an attempt to murder his wife. He is about 40 years old, black hair, blue eyes, and a down look. Whoever will take up said Massey, and deliver him to me at the Court-house in Tyrrell county, shall be rewarded—but it is impossible for me to say what the reward will be at this time.

June 2nd, 1812.

JESSE ALEXANDER, Sheriff.

27-3f.

One Hundred Dollars Reward.

RUNAWAY from the Subscriber, the 15th inst. a Negro fellow named JACOB, alias YEL-LOW JACOB. He is a tall lusty mulatto, about six feet high, and about 21 or 22 years old, he walks remarkably straight and slow—has uncommonly large feet, which he turns out in walking, he speaks very quick, and to a person thus accustomed to hear him talk, almost unintelligible, he has rather a mild inoffensive countenance, and a manner well calculated for any species of deception. To describe him by his dress would be impossible, as he carried off several articles of clothing of different colours. He has been heard of on his way to Murrefreesborough, and Mary's Neck, in Hertford county, where he was raised, and where he has several relations, and no doubt, may well be disposed to conceal him. His father named Abraham, lives as a husband with a free woman in Northampton county, who hires his time of Mr. Tigner's estate of Hertford, and he has a brother named Moses, who now belongs to Mr. Underhill at Hornblow's Point, a few miles below Edenton. He has passed for Major Paks's Jim, which name he, probably, for some time, particularly where not known, may wish to retain. He has been heard by the Overseer to throw out some hints that he should be free, and that he saw no reason why the sweat of his brow should be expended in supporting the extravagance and idleness of any man: or some words to that effect. This principle, I am informed, he wished to impress upon the minds of my other Negroes; and I doubt not will attempt to do the same, wherever he goes. It therefore, becomes not only the duty, but the interest of every person, possessed of such property, to apprehend such fellow, and thereby arrest the progress of such dangerous principles.

I will give Ten Dollars to any person, who will apprehend him, and lodge him in the jail of the county where taken, and the above reward of $100 to any person, who will discover and give evidence against any person or persons, who may harbour, conceal or employ said Negro, so that he, she or they, so harbouring, &c. be legally convicted of the same.

JAMES H. KEYS.

Warren county, May 24th, 1812.

TO MILL WRIGHTS.

THE undersigned intends to have two Saw Mills, a Grist Mill and a Pulling Mill built. One Saw-Mill and the Grist-Mill are to be at the same dam.—The other Saw-Mill and Pulling Mill at different places.—The Mills are to be erected in Warren and Granville counties, and not more than seven miles distant from each other. Any person who is well acquainted with building the above kind of Mills, and chooses to engage to do the work will find me at Pleasant Hill, Warren County, where I shall be ready to make a contract.

June 20, 1812.

PHIL. HAWKINS.

Ten Dollars Reward.

RUNAWAY on the 6th of April last, a boy named Aaron, who is in the habit of calling his name Frederick; he is seventeen years of age, about five feet high, has large eyes with a bad look, and rather inclined to be bow-legged, he will probably change his name and endeavour to pass for a free boy. I will give the above reward of $10 to any person that will secure him in any Jail so that I get him again, and if delivered at my house in Warren will pay any reasonable expenses.

MICHAEL T. HAWKINS.
