Forty Dollars Reward.

RUNAWAY from my plantation, near Laurens Court House, South Carolina, on the 8th September, 1810, my Negro fellow JIM a-bolt 40 years of age, 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, a stout well made, dark complected fellow, with a large scar on the right side of his upper lip, a small deep scar under his right eye, and a small and scar on his nose between his eyes; speaks good English, speaks also can speak Dutch. I expect that if he has not been run off by some person, that he has again made for the settlement of Mr. Daniel Waggoner, who owns his father's mother 16 miles from Salem, North Carolina. He was taken at Mr. Waggoner's since he first run away, & was bro't nearly as far as Dear's ferry on broad river and run away again from the man who was bringing him home on the 21st August 1811, and I have not heard of him since. Any person delivering said fellow to me shall receive the above reward with all reasonable expenses—or if any person will lodge him in any Gaol in the United States and give information so that I get him shall be handsomely rewarded.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

ON the 7th day of April last, my Negro Fellow NED, being at work in the Great Distral Swamp with several other Negroes, started to look for timber, and having travelled faster than any other of the company disappeared and has not been heard of since, and I suspect has eloped from me; said Ned is about 24 or 25 years old, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high of a dark complexion, of a pleasing and submissive countenance, apt to smile when spoken to; his clothes are not recollecting, as he had for some years been hired out in the County of Norfolk—his father lives somewhere in Pasquotank or Perquimans Counties, in N. Carolina; he has an uncle who has been run away for some time. A above reward (with all reasonable expenses paid) will be given to any person, either white or black, who will give such information, deliver him to me or secure him in any Jail so that I get him again.

Lost or Stolen

29-Jm. Newbern, July 8th, 1812.

THE SUBSCRIBER

ONCE more begs leave to offer to the proprietors of Mills his new invented
INKS AND GUDGEONS.

Relying wholly on their own intrinsic worth, which has been fairly demonstrated by experiments, it is unnecessary to fill a column of this paper with commendation— Suffice it to say, that one Set of these Inks and Gudgeons will last as long as ten sets of those in common use; and by calculation it will be found, that in seven years a saving of sixty dollars will be produced to the owner of a mill. It is also worthy of remark, that a Wheel working on these Gudgeons will require less water than those of common construction; and when so worn as to be rendered useless, they will then be worth one third of the original cost. He would add that these Inks and Gudgeons, are warranted to possess all the qualities ascribed to them. Owners of Mills will therefore do well to avail themselves of the opportunity of so valuable an acquisition. He will furnish Boxes for Saw Mills, or any other kind of Machinery at the shortest notice. Persons applying, must furnish the patterns. The prices of Boxes from 10 to 50 weight, will be 75 cents per pound. Those that are under ten pounds, will be proportionably higher according to the nature of the casting. He would also beg leave to inform those who may stand in need of

ELASTIC TRUSSES.

That he continues to make them of any size or description that may be required. The utility of these Trusses is too generally known to need explanation. They are worn without pain or inconvenience, and are warranted to give relief to any person. In many instances their use have effected a cure. Persons in want of this article would be best fitted by attending in person; but in cases where this is not practicable, it will be necessary to send a measure of the waist, saying whether for the right or left side, and mentioning the habit of the body, if fleshy or lean. The prices are as follows: A Single Truss, $6, and strong for a coloured person, $6. A Double Truss, $8, and their board found them gratis while attending. Those for white persons will be furnished at any price ordered. The usual rates are, for single, from $8 to 10. Double Trusses, at a proportionate advance. Children's, half price. In all cases where orders are sent, the expected money will accompany them.

He likewise continues to carry on the GUN SMITH'S BUSINESS.

In all its various branches, and having at this time a good supply of necessary materials, he may venture to assure his friends that orders will be executed with all possible dispatch. His ability as a workman, he flatters himself needs no other evidence than the work itself.

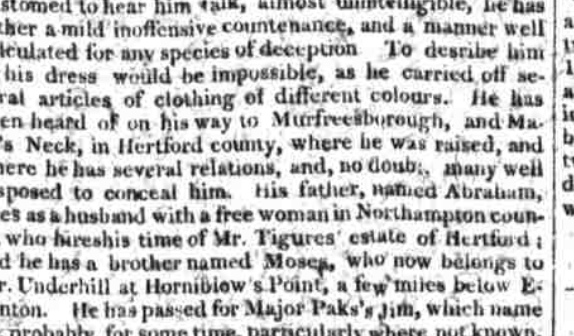

JAIL LOCKS.

Of any dimensions of a superior quality, will be furnished on reasonable terms, and at the shortest possible notice. A liberal price will be given in cash, for Old Copper.

Orders for any thing in the above lines of business, will be thankfully received, and faithfully attended to, by application at his SHOP, in Raleigh, near the Post-Office. He would now beg leave to tender his sincere acknowledgements to a generous public for past favours, and pledges himself that his time and little talent, is not devoted to uncertain speculation or the acquirements of fame; but sincerely with the hope of rendering himself useful to Society.
RALEIGH, June 19th, 1812. DANIEL PECK. 25-cot3m.

One Hundred Dollars Reward.

RUNAWAY from the Subscriber, the 15th inst. a Negro fellow named JACOB, alias YELLOW JACOB. He is a tall lusty mulatto, about 5 feet high, and about 21 or 22 years old, he walks remarkably straight and slow—has uncommonly large feet, which he turns out in walking, he speaks very quick, and to a person unaccustomed to hear him talk, almost unintelligible, he has rather a mild inoffensive countenance, and a manner well calculated for any species of deception. To describe him by his dress would be impossible, as he carried off several articles of clothing of different colours. He has been heard of on his way to Murfreesborough, and Mary's Neck, in Hertford county, where he was raised, and where he has several relations, and no doubt, many well disposed to conceal him. His father, named Abraham, lives as a husband with a free woman in Northampton county, who has his time of Mr. Figures' estate of Hertford; and he has a brother named Moses, who now belongs to Mr. Underhill at Hornsibow's Point, a few miles below Edenton. He has passed for Major Pak's Jim, which name he, probably, for some time, particularly where not known, may wish to retain. He has been heard by the Overseer to throw out some hints that ALL should be free, and that he saw no reason why the sweat of his brow should be expended in supporting the extravagance and idleness of any man; or some words to that effect. This principle, I am informed, he wished to impress upon the minds of my other Negroes; and I doubt not will attempt to do the same, wherever he goes. If therefore, becomes not only the duty, but the interest of every person, possessed of such property, to apprehend such fellow, and thereby arrest the progress of such dangerous principles. I will give Ten Dollars to any person, who will apprehend him, and lodge him in the jail of the county where taken, and the above reward of $100 to any person, who will discover and give evidence against any person or persons, who may harbour, conceal or employ said Negro, so that he, she or they, so harboring, &c. be legally convicted of the same.
WARREN COUNTY, May 24th, 1812. JAMES H. KEYS. 24-40t.

THE Subscriber being authorized to sell at private Sale, the Land and Plantation whereon Edward Tisdal, formerly lived in Edgecombe county, N. C. lying on the public road leading from Raleigh to Tarboro, containing 549 acres with a convenient dwelling House, and other out Houses, and a handsome Young Orchard, we therefore take this method of making it known, that we will sell the said land and premises, for Cash, to Young Negroes, or a credit for the greatest part of the purchase, by giving bond and approved security. Those who wish to purchase a settlement of land, will probably do themselves no injury by making application to Williamsborough Academy.

THE Students of this Institution were this day examined on their different studies before the Trustees of the School, the Parents of the Students and the Citizens of the place and its vicinity. It is with pleasure that the Trustees declare, that the great progress made by the Students in their different studies, (to wit) Spelling, Reading, Writing, English Grammar, Latin, Greek & Mathematics, evinces their great assiduity, & the high qualifications of their teacher, Mr. L. Holbrooks. They think that they may with truth declare, that the School has been ably conducted, the greatest care and attention paid to the studies and morals of Students and that this infant institution, although it may be equalled by many, is surpassed by none in the State.
