RANAWAY

FROM the subscriber on the 10th of August last, four Negroes, (to-wit) a Negro man by the name of MAMAN, about five feet three or four inches high, has a fine voice, tolerable dark complexion; had on when he went away a cotton shirt and overalls, and a felt hat, but carried none of his clothes with him. Also, a Negro woman by the name of PHILLIS, about fifteen years of age, very black and likely, about five feet five or six inches high; wore a white cotton or poppers frock. The eldest child belonging to said Negro woman took with her is about eight years of age, by the name of CLARRY; she is a likely girl of feet size, with tolerable thick lips; has a very notable scar on one of her sides, occasioned by a burn; she wore away a white cotton shirt and striped frock. Also the said Negro woman took with her another child by the name of PATIENCE, about five years of age, a tolerable black child. Any person or persons taking up said Negroes or so apprehending them, so as I may get them again, or confining them in jail, in this or any State shall have a reward of fifty dollars. The said Negroes run away from the subscriber's house, about 24 miles north of Raleigh, near the Fishdam Road on Neuse river. I purchased the said Negroes of Sterling Johnson, living in Johnston County, 15 miles south of Raleigh, who purchased the two oldest Negroes in the State of Virginia.

NOTICE.

THE Subscriber about 12 months previous to this date, purchased a Negro fellow, at the price of $400, of one Whitstone, who made his escape in such a manner as induced me from various circumstances to believe that the property was not in him. I sent an officer after him, but could not take him. Whitstone named the fellow to me Peter, but the fellow says his right name is also, and that he belonged to a man in Baltimore. The fellow says he is a free, but that I do not believe, he is about five feet eight or nine inches high, handsome and well made, has a very notable scar on his under lip. He is now in my possession on the Yalkin river, William Blount, N. C.

ALEX. LUCAS, G. Sec.
August 28, 1812. 36

Generous Prices

WILL be given to three or four good Journeyman Boot and Shoe Makers by applying as early as possible to the Subscriber in Raleigh.

WILLIS NELMS.
Raleigh, Sept. 4

The Stock in Trade of the STAR STORE

HAS within a few days been sold out, and the Proprietors intend to decline business during the war—All those having accounts with the Store are desired to call immediately and make settlement.

NOTICE.

WILL be let out to the highest bidder on the premises, on Friday the second of October next, for a term of years not exceeding five, nor less than three—the Plantation belonging to the late of the late John Hunt, of Franklin County. The Plantation lies in a very healthy part of the country, about eight miles south-west of Lenoir, and has on it a large and convenient Dwelling House, and other convenient out Buildings, suitable for the accommodation of a large Family. There is timber in good repair and sufficiently large to winter-kill advantage eighteen or twenty hands. A further description is deemed unnecessary, as it is presumed any person wishing to lease it, will know it prior to the day on which it will be leased out.

W. T. HUNT, Executor, &c.
Lenoir County, August 18, 1812.

Private Entertainment.

THE Subscriber being one mile south of Jethro Brown's place, on the Road leading from thence through to Rockingham & H—flatters himself from the preparation made and a determination to keep up the liveliest activity to promote the pleasure and convenience of those who may do her the honor of calling, to merit their patronage.

Besides the advantage of a naturally salubrious situation to those who inhabit low marshy parts of the country, and who of course are almost unassistedly the victims of protracted bilious affections, chronic rheumatism, &c. the proximity of the subscribers to the Rockingham Springs, whose medicinal efficacy in those and other chronic forms of disease is generally known and by many persons gratefully acknowledged, will it is presumed be no small inducement to such as wish to enjoy their benefits to call on her.

A. E. WILLIAMSON.
Caswell July 22nd, 1812. 34

For Sale,

A VALUABLE Tract of Land containing three hundred and forty one and a half Acres, within 10 miles of the City of Raleigh, lying on Sycamore Creek west of said City, there is a tolerable good plantation on the land, with most excellent Peach Orchard; the Land is well wooded, having several good springs thereon. It is well adapted for Corn, Wheat or Oats. It is deemed unnecessary to enter into a lengthy description, as it is presumed that no person will purchase without an examination of the premises. I have also for sale, a likely Negro Woman and Child, whom I can safely recommend as a domestic and industrious servant—all of which will be sold low for cash. I would take two good Horses in part pay. As the land if it should be preferable to the purchaser, should any person wish to purchase either the Land or Negroes, they are requested to apply to the Subscriber living in Raleigh.

MERRITT DILLARD.
August 10, 1812—33-1t

NOTICE.

THE Directors of the State Bank of North Carolina have resolved to erect a BANKING HOUSE in the City of Raleigh, the foundation whereof to be of brick, the walls of Brick, and the roof probably of cast-iron fire-proof material. The dimensions will be 35 feet by 63 feet 3 inches, two stories high, with a Portico in front. The undersigned being a committee to contract for the materials and for the building of the said House, do hereby give notice that they will receive proposals for furnishing the several materials and for the workmanship on the house complete. The plan of the building together with a bill of the requisite materials will be shown by the committee to any person desirous of offering proposals. It is contemplated by the Directors to have the bricks made in the course of the present season, so that they may be laid early in the ensuing spring.
