STOP THE VILLIAN!

Fifty Dollars Reward.

A YOUNG Man who calls himself William Johnson came to this late Spring under the pretence of exhibiting an Automaton figure, which he did for some time, until his Partner, a Fellow by the name of Bud, left him; Johnson continued to board at the house of Jacob Reinhardt, Esq. (where I board) until the evening of the 22nd Instant, being the time of the Superior Court, when he borrowed a Horse, Saddle, Bridle, Big Coat and a pad that was fast to the Saddle—my Saddle Bags he took with-out leave. The Horse is a Light Grey, about or near sixteen hand high, 8 or 9 years old, carried his head pretty high; the Saddle, Bridle, Saddle Bags and Pad are all new and of a good quality—the big Coat is a black one, made Surtout fashion, with a red Bandanna Handkerchief and Leather Gloves in the pockets. The Articles can be easily proved. Johnson is a tolerable well looking man, of about 22 years of age, quite black hair and a good skin, a native of Newbury District, South Carolina, which place, I imagine, he left for some misdemeanor. Any person apprehending and securing him in any jail, and giving me notice, within 500 miles, shall receive the above reward.

JOHN SMITH.

Inchboro, N. C. 27th Oct. 1812.

N. B. The above described William Johnson is no doubt a great Rascal, & the Editors of Newspapers will be doing a favor to the honest citizens of the country by giving this publicity.

JAMES PITT,

Tailor,

Next Door to Robert Cannon's Store,

RESPECTFULLY gives notice, that he is fully prepared to execute all kind of business in his line, in the most fashionable and best manner, and on the shortest notice. He is grateful for the liberal share of patronage he has already received and flatters himself, that by his exertions, he will continue to deserve the public favour.

Two or three additional workmen of experience and fidelity, are shortly expected from the North.

The Star Almanack,

FOR THE YEAR
1813.

THE Astronomical Calculations (adapted to this Meridian and Latitude) are by the celebrated Mr. Sharp of New-Jersey: The Miscellaneous selections have been made with care and will generally interest and please; among these a very valuable one is the Elements of the new System of Military Discipline, peculiarly interesting at the present crisis, to every class of our militia. As a very large edition has been printed, the publisher will be able to diffuse them more widely than in former years. Messrs. Henry Branson of Fayetteville, Alexander Graham of Salisbury, Salmon Hall of Newbern and Daniel Redmond of Tarboro', will soon have large supplies sent them, to whom and at the Star Office Merchants and others will please to apply.

LOST,

BETWEEN Louisa and Raleigh, or between Raleigh and Hinton Curtis a Red Morocco POCKET-BOOK containing the following Notes:—Two against Joseph Armstrong for $371 50 cts. each, payable to Norsworthy and Jelks and dated the 13th April last, and one due 13th January and the other the 13th April next; and a receipt from Obediah Green for a judgment against Ephraim Perry and Thomas Lanier for $58, and a quantity of other papers not recollectd; Ten or fifteen dollars in cash, which cash will be given for delivery of the Pocket-Book, together with the papers to the Subscriber or to Samuel Goodwin in Raleigh.

JARRAT M. JELKS.

N. B. Several Notes against Norsworthy and Jelks are also in said Book, which I have paid and taken up, and are not effaced.

Johnston, September 18.

LAND FOR SALE.

A VALUABLE Tract of Land, containing about seven hundred acres, lying four miles south-west of Raleigh is offered for sale. There is a tolerable plantation, with good orchards and houses—the Land is well watered, having several excellent springs and is well adapted for the cultivation of corn, wheat, oats, &c. I deem it unnecessary to enter into a lengthy description as it is presumed that no person will purchase without an examination of the premises—I will take two or three likely young negroes in part payment.

Raleigh, Sept. 4, 1812.

State Bank of North-Carolina.

AGREEABLY to the second section of the Act incorporating the State Bank of North-Carolina, an Election of nineteen Directors of the Principal Bank shall take place annually on the first Monday in December. The Stockholders of the said Bank are therefore called upon to hold said Election and to attend to such other business in relation to the general interests of the institution as may be judged necessary, on Monday the 7th of December next, at 9 o'clock in the morning, at the Academy Building in the City of Raleigh.

Such Stockholders as do not attend the Election of Directors personally, will authorise Proxies in the form heretofore prescribed.

Samuel C. Brame & Co.

In one end of Parishes New Brick Building.

RETURN their grateful acknowledgments to their friends and the public, for the liberal encouragement they have been favoured with since commencing business in this place, and inform them that they are now receiving from Norfolk, a large supply of GROCERIES bought with Cash which will be sold about the Petersburg prices, with the addition of carriage—And in a few days will have opened an elegant assortment of DRY GOODS, well laid in, all of which will be offered at very fair prices for cash; and having determined to become permanently settled in Raleigh, have made such arrangements as will always enable them to supply those who favour them with their custom on the lowest terms.

Raleigh, October 23rd, 1812.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY from the subscriber about the 10th of last month, a bright mulatto man by the name of CHARLES; he is 23 years old, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, thick and strong made and looks bold.—Said mulatto has a remarkable mark on the ridge of his nose that looks like a small scar that had cured up and left something black in the wound—the mark is small but may be easily discovered on close examination. He will no doubt alter his name and endeavour to pass as a free man, as he is a remarkable bright mulatto, and has very black hair and pretty straight. He will probably aim for the sea board, and endeavour to get on board some vessel.

The above reward of $20 will be given to any person who will apprehend him put him in Jail, and give me information by letter directed to Smithfield, Johnston county, North-Carolina.

Stop the Horse Thieves!

ON the 7th of October 1812, I fell in company with four men who said they were from the Straits below Newbern, and were bound for Tennessee. I swapped horses with one of the company who said his name was William King; since which the horse has been proven from me by a Mr. Lyon, stating that the one in my possession had been stolen from him.

Description of the Thieves.

Three were white, and one mulatto—two of the white men were small the other large—the one I traded with I am told has a scar across the back part of his hand—he had on a coarse broad cloth coat with short skirts—but probably had more clothing.—The largest man had the only pair of Saddle Bags in company—the others had linen Wallets, filled with clothes.

The horse that I let Mr. King have (if that be his name) is branded on every quarter of the right buttock on the top with O, and has a large flat wart under his throat.—Mr. Lyon informed me that another of the company had stolen a horse. It is hoped these men will be apprehended.
