Twenty Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY from the Subscriber a few days past a negro fellow by the name of BUCK, about forty years of age, large and well made, and very black—he is a Well-Digger and Ditcher by trade and has followed nothing else for ten years back; he has a pass from me to undertake work and receive the money, has lately been at work in the State of North-Carolina, which state I expect he is now in; he carried off with him about one hundred dollars which he had received for work. Should he be apprehended, I wish the money taken from him, and no person to employ him further under the pass he has.

STOP THE VILLIAN!

Fifty Dollars Reward.

A YOUNG Man who calls himself William Johnson came to this place last Spring under the pretence of exhibiting an Automaton Figure, which he did for some time, until his Partner, a Fellow by the name of Bud, left him; Johnson continued to board at the house of Jacob Heinrich, Esq. (where I board) until the evening of the 22nd Instant, being the time of the Superior Court, when he borrowed my Horse, Saddle, Bridle, Big Coat and a pad that was fast to the Saddle—my Saddle Bags he took with-out leave. The Horse is a Light Grey, about or near sixteen hands high, 8 or 9 years old, carried his head pretty high; the Saddle, Bridle, Saddle Bags and Pad are all new and of a good quality—the big Coat is a black one, made Surtout fashion, with a red Bandanna Handkerchief and Leather Gloves in the pockets. The Articles can be easily proved. Johnson is a tolerable well looking man, of about 22 years of age, quite black hair and a good skin, a native of Newbury District, South-Carolina, which place, I imagine, he left for some misdemeanor. Any person apprehending and securing him in any jail, and giving me notice, if within 500 miles, shall receive the above reward.

Lincolnton, N. C. 27th Oct. 1812. JOHN SMITH.

N. B. The above described William Johnson is no doubt a great Rascal, & the Editors of Newspapers will be doing a favor to the honest citizens of the country by giving this publicity. 3tp46
