BY THE PRESIDENT

The United States of America, A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, information has been received that a number of individuals, who have deserted from the army of the United States, have become sensible of their offences, and are desirous of returning to their duty: A full pardon is hereby granted and proclaimed to each and all such individuals as shall, within four months from the date hereof, surrender themselves to the commanding officer of any military post within the United States or the territories thereof.

In testimony whereof, I have caused the seal of the United States to be affixed to these presents, and signed the same with my hand.

Done at the City of Washington, the eighth day of October, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and twelve, and of the Independence of the United States, the thirty-seventh.

JAMES MADISON.

By the President,
JAMES MONROE, Secretary of State.

Lost or Mislaid

A NOTE of hand given by Richard Sharp, payable to Wm. Ryals, sen. for the sum of Seventy One Pounds, due sometime in March 1811, and witnessed by Stephen Proctor, and Susanna Proctor—The said Note being the property of the subscriber, he hereby forwarns all persons from trading for the same, and the said Sharp from paying the money due thereon to any person but myself or order.

Stop the Thief!

WAS stolen from the Subscriber living in Charleston District, Goose Creek Parish, South-Carolina, on the 9th day of September, 1811, a Negro Wench named Fanny, about 18 years old, of a yellow complexion with a remarkable head, long from the forehead back, which makes her head appear flat, and has a scar on one of her cheeks which is very perceptible when she laughs—she is trim made and very sensible. I have reason to believe she has been carried off and sold in North-Carolina—Any person giving me information where said Negro is, or securing her in any jail in said State, shall be entitled to a reward of FIFTY DOLLARS. A letter directed to me at Charleston post-office, will be attended to.

New Jewellery.

THE Subscriber, who has long resided in this city, and whose attention has been devoted to the duties of his profession, with pleasure informs his friends and the public, that he has just received from the North, a large assortment of Jewellery, Gold and Silver Watches, &c.

Which, added to the former assortment manufactured at his Shop, enables him to exhibit a more splendid variety for wholesale or retail, than can be found elsewhere in the State.

Miniature Cases and Lockets of any size, if not on hand, will be made at the shortest notice.—Watches and Clocks repaired in the best manner, and warranted to perform well.—In fine, every thing in his line will be executed in the best manner, with dispatch and on reasonable terms. He invites the attention of a generous public, for whose patronage hitherto experienced, he returns his sincere acknowledgments.

J. SCOTT.

Raleigh, Nov. 27, 1812. 1f68

I wish to inform gentlemen who have business to transact in the several Banks in this city, that I shall be gratified to render them any service in my power. Letters, post paid, will be punctually attended to, and on terms that will not be complained of.

Runaways Taken Up

And committed to the Jail of Stokes County,
North-Carolina, viz.

A MULATTO MAN who calls himself JOE, says he belongs to David Leach of York District, S. Carolina, and that he ran away from a son of said Leach on the 30th of October last, about 10 miles from the Shallow Ford, on the Yadkin River, Surry county.

The other calls himself JACOB, he is of a black complexion, and says he belongs to Noel Burton of Caswell county, N. C. about 12 miles from Caswell C. House. They have but little clothing with them, and are about 5 feet, 5 or 6 inches high.—The owners are requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges and take them away.

EXCHANGE OF OLD SIX PER CENT. AND DEFERRED STOCKS.

PURSUANT to the act of Congress, entitled "An act authorizing a subscription for the old six per cent. & deferred stocks, and providing for the exchange of the same," passed on the 6th day of July, 1812, books will be opened on the first day of October next, at the Treasury and at the several Loan Offices, and will continue open till the 17th day of March next, for receiving subscriptions of the old six per cent. and deferred stocks, in the manner prescribed by the said act. New certificates, bearing interest from the first day of the quarter in which the subscription shall be made, at the rate of six per cent. per annum, payable quarterly yearly for the unrepaid amount of principal of the old six per cent. and deferred stocks which may be subscribed, will be issued at the Treasury or at the Loan Offices respectively where the old stock subscribed may at the time stand credited.—The new stock will be redeemable at the pleasure of the United States at any time after the 31st day of December, 1824; but no reimbursement will be made except for the whole amount of the stock standing at the time, to the credit of any proprietor, on the books of the Treasury or of the commissioners of loans respectively, nor till after at least six months previous public notice of such intended reimbursement.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY from the subscriber about the 10th of last month, a bright mulatto man by the name of CHARLES; he is 25 years old, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, thick and strong made and looks bold—Said mulatto has a remarkable mark on the ridge of his nose that looks like a small scar that had cured up and left something black in the wound—the mark is small but may be easily discovered on close examination. He will no doubt alter his name and endeavour to pass a free man, as he is a remarkable bright mulatto, and has very black hair and pretty straight. He will probably aim for the sea board, and endeavour to get on board some vessel.

The above reward of $20 will be given to any person who will apprehend him put him in Jail, and give me information by letter directed to Smithfield, Johnston county, North-Carolina.

Strayed or Stolen

FROM my plantation in Montgomery county, about the last of April past, a bright sorrel HORSE, 15 hands high, 6 or 7 years old, with a blaze face, had on when he went away a common size horse bell, fastened on with a stirrup leather twice round his neck, and a yoke; He was remarkably hard to catch. I will amply satisfy any person who will bring said horse to me, or contrive me word so that I get him.

LAND FOR SALE.

A VALUABLE Tract of Land, containing about seven hundred acres, lying four miles south-west of Raleigh is offered for sale. There is a tolerable plantation, with good orchards and houses—the Land is well watered, having several excellent springs and is well adapted for the cultivation of corn, wheat, oats, &c. I deem it unnecessary to enter into a lengthy description as it is presumed that no person will purchase without an examination of the premises—I will take two or three likely young negroes in part payment.
