Female Academy, WARRENTON.

THE Examination of the Pupils at this Seminary commenced on Wednesday, and closed on Friday the 27th inst. The respective classes underwent, in their usual manner, a strict examination on Spelling, Reading, Grammar and Parsing, Astronomy, Geography and the use of the Globes, History, Mythology, Blairs Rhetoric, and the French Language. The Compositions of six young ladies were read, and specimens of writing and Needle-work exhibited. A musical performance by the pupils of Mr. Plunkett appeared to give very general satisfaction.

On the first Monday in January the exercises of the school will recommence under the same superintendance as heretofore.—Mr. Plunkett continuing as Instructor in the French Language, Music and Drawing.—The course of Education pursued in this Seminary renders the early attendance of Pupils very desirable. Terms, $105, per annum, payable half yearly in advance.—The only additional charge, (necessary school books excepted) is one dollar per session for contingent expenses. No pupil will be received for a shorter term than six months, nor will any deduction be made for those taken from school within that time.

JACOB MORDECAI.

Each young lady must be provided with a pair of shoes, a Counterpane, Blanket, and Towels.

EDUCATION.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public that he intends opening a SCHOOL at Pleasant Grove, near Bullock's Store; in which will be taught the Latin and Greek Languages, Rhetoric, Moral Philosophy, Geography, English Grammar, Arithmetic, Reading, Writing, &c. Tuition will be Sixteen Dollars annually to be paid quarterly in advance.—Boarding may be had at respectable houses for Fifty Dollars.

Stop the Thief!

WAS stolen from the Subscriber living in Charleson District, Goose Creek Parish, South-Carolina, on the 9th day of September, 1811, a Negro Wench named Fanny, about 18 years old, of a yellow complexion with a remarkable head, long from the forehead back, which makes her head appear flat, and has a scar on one of her cheeks which is very perceptible when she laughs—she is trim made and very sensible. I have reason to believe she has been carried off and sold in North-Carolina.—Any person giving me information where said Negro is, or securing her in any jail in said state, shall be entitled to a reward of FIFTY DOLLARS. A letter directed to me at Charleston post-office, will be attended to.

New Jewellery.

THE Subscriber, who has long resided in this city, and whose attention has been devoted to the duties of this profession, with pleasure informs his friends and the public, that he has just received from the North, a large assortment of Jewellery, Gold and Silver Watches, &c.

Which, added to the former assortment manufactured at his Shop, enables him to exhibit a more splendid variety for wholesale or retail, than can be found elsewhere in the State.

Miniature Cases and Lockets of any size, if not on hand, will be made at the shortest notice.—Watches and Clocks repaired in the best manner, and warranted to perform well.—In fine, every thing in his line will be executed in the best manner, with dispatch and on reasonable terms.

He invites the attention of a generous public, for whose patronage he is ever experienced, he returns his sincere acknowledgments.

WM. H. HAYWOOD, Cashier.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY from the subscriber about the 10th of last month, a bright mulatto man by the name of CHARLES; he is 25 years old, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, thick set strong made and looks bold—said mulatto has a remarkable mark on the ridge of his nose that looks like a small scar that had cured up and left something black in the wound—the mark is small but may be easily discovered on close examination. He will no doubt alter his name and endeavour to pass as a free man, as he is a remarkable bright mulatto, and has very black hair and pretty straight. He will probably aim for the sea board, and endeavour to get on board some vessel.

The above reward of $20 will be given to any person who will apprehend him put him in Jail, and give me information by letter directed to Smithfield, Johnston county, North-Carolina.
