Executive Office, N. C.

BY AN act passed at the last session of the General Assembly, the Governor is requested to cause to be distributed among the several counties therein named the arms which have been received by this state under the law of Congress for arming the Militia of the United States. Some attempts to engage individually to perform that duty has shown the propriety of giving public notice that applications will be received at this office for the transportation and delivery of sixty four stands of arms to the Colonel Commandant of each of the following counties, (to wit:) Brunswick, Columbus, Bladen, Jones, Lenoir, Onslow, Sampson, Duplin, Pitt, Beaufort, Washington, Hyde, Tyrrel, Edgecombe, Halifax, Martin, Bertie, Hertford, Gates, Chowan, P. quimons, Pasquotank, Camden, Currituck, Haywood, and Buncombe.—The arms for the three first named counties to be conveyed from Fort Johnston, and those for Jones and Lenoir, from Beaufort except twenty stand to be taken from Fayetteville to Lenoir—those for the residue of the above mentioned counties will be delivered for transportation at the town of Fayetteville. It is hoped that persons who wish to engage for the delivery of those arms, will make immediate application and at the same time designate the counties to which they will deliver, and also the sum required by them for such delivery. By instructions from the Governor JUNIUS SNEED, Priv. Sec'ry. P. S. The counties of Onslow and Currituck were, according to the act, to have ninety six stands each, but by a provision permitting a Company in Fayetteville to retain one hundred and thirty stands of the quota, it became necessary to reduce them to an equality with others. Carolina waters, &c. to the Florida line, and will appoint suitable and respectable persons through the different states to receive subscriptions, of which when appointed, I will give due notice. JOHN D. DELACY, Feb. 24. 11-4t

NOTICE.

WHEREAS a certain John Stevens, of Hoboken, did obtain from the Legislature of N. Carolina, during their last session, a law granting to him the exclusive right to navigate the waters of said state with Steam Boats to the manifest prejudice of Robert Fulton, Esq. the inventor, and of Robert B. Livingston, Esq. his associate, in the patent granted to him by the U. States for said new and useful invention. And whereas the said John Stevens has by an instrument in writing under his proper signature and seal, &c. &c. &c. formally, fully and unequivocally, "that the said Robert Fulton is the inventor of said new and useful Steam-Boats, and the first that has shown the superiority of water wheels over all other modes of propelling Steam-Boats, and demonstrated the relative proportions of the several parts." And whereas the said John Stevens had neither right title, claim or authority from, or under the said Livingston and Fulton, the true and actual patentees for using and vending to others to be used within the U. States, and territories thereof, the right to navigate with boats propelled by fire and steam and wheels, but did, unwarrantably and unjustifiably, apply for, and surreptitiously and by misrepresentation or otherwise, obtain said law in order to wrest, under cover thereof, from the said John Stevens, the well earned and just reward of their ingenuity, enterprise, labor and perseverance, and thus made the state subservient (though unknowingly) to injustice which may possibly involve the patentees or their heirs, troublesome and expensive suits in defending their rights from invasion by said Stevens, or any ignorant or unprincipled persons who may be seduced to join with, or uphold him in so flagitious an invasion of the rights of the individuals. And whereas the said law passed as aforesaid by the state of North Carolina is not only voidable, but absolutely void and nugatory, in as much as it is in direct hostility to the law of the United States, under which the patent has been granted to the said Robert Fulton & Rob. B. Livingston, the legislating upon and granting of which is by the constitution exclusively assigned to the United States: I do therefore hereby give notice That I will, for and in the name of the said patentees, prosecute all, each and every person, severally and jointly, who shall combine or conspire with said John Stevens, to invade the exclusive privilege and property of the said patentees, or injure or subvert their interests in any unlawful manner, at or in any place or state from the City of Baltimore to the Florida line. JOHN D. DELACY, Attorney pro patentees.
