LOPED from the subscriber, living in Chatham county, on the 9th inst. a Negro Fellow by the name of CHARLES, about twenty years old, 5 feet 8 inches high, not very dark complexioned, hair coarse and black, considerable white in his eyes—He carried away a white coat & a white pair of pantaloons, a must coat and a cotton shirt, a stripe westcoat, and a furred hat. I think he will aim for Norfolk, Va. by Raleigh, Roanoke or Roanoke's. Any person taking up said fellow and securing him in jail, so that I get him again, shall receive a reasonable reward.

AT a meeting of a number of the Inhabitants of the County of Orange and Town of Hillsborough, at the Court House in Hillsborough, on the 28th day of May, 1813, in pursuance of public notice, for the purpose of establishing a Cotton Wool Factory in the Town of Hillsborough, or its vicinity.

Dr. John Umstead was called to the chair, and John Taylor, Jr. appointed secretary.

Whereupon the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

1st. That the association be known and distinguished by the Hillsborough Manufacturing Company.

2d. That the Capital Stock of said Company be divided into shares of twenty-five dollars each.

3d. That whenever four hundred shares shall be subscribed, the secretary of this meeting shall convene the Stockholders at the Court-house in Hillsborough, first giving one month's previous notice thereof in the public prints.

4th. That business of said Company shall be transacted by a President and five Directors, & such other officers as the stockholders at their first general meeting shall determine.

5th. That each of such officers shall be stockholders, in said company.

6th. That in order to constitute such general meeting a majority of stockholders shall be present themselves or proxy.

7th. That each stockholder shall pay to such person, or persons as the general meeting shall appoint, five dollars on each and every share by them subscribed whenever called upon for that purpose, and the balance of their share or shares in four equal payments at the expiration of three months from each preceding payment.

8th. That as these resolutions are adopted for the purpose of commencing said Factory, they are therefore temporary and may be altered by the stockholders at their first general meeting, as to them may seem fit and proper.

9th. That in the election of officers and transacting the business of the association in general meeting, the following rules & regulations shall be observed: The number of votes to which each stockholder shall be entitled, shall be according to the number of shares he shall hold, in the proportion following, viz. For one share and not more than two shares, one vote; for every two shares above two and not exceeding ten shares, one vote; for every four shares above ten and not exceeding thirty, one vote; for every six shares above thirty and not exceeding sixty, one vote; for every eight shares above sixty and not exceeding one hundred, one vote; and for every ten shares above one hundred, one vote. But no person or Copartnership shall be entitled to a greater number than thirty votes.
