Williamsborough Academy.

THE Students of this Institution were examined on the 15th inst. before the Trustees and in the presence of the parents and guardians of the pupils. They evinced great application on their part, and much ability and attention in their teacher. The Trustees flatter themselves that the qualifications of Mr. Hillman, the Principal in the Academy, the healthiness of the situation, the cheapness of board, and other advantages of the place, will induce the public to give this seminary that patronage which those inducements merit. The session will commence on the first Monday in January, 1814, under the superintendance of Mr. Hillman. Board may be had in private families in town and neighborhood on very reasonable terms. Dec. 26. 1-47 J. HAMILTON, Sec'y.

Oxford Academy.

THE trustees of the Oxford Academy, congratulate the citizens of Granville and the public in general, that their exertions to rear and establish a seminary of learning, have been crowned with success. An elegant two story building, 50 feet long and 32 feet wide, is nearly completed, and will be ready by the second Monday of January next, at which time the exercises of the institution will commence. They have employed as principal, Mr. Thomas H. Willie, a gentleman who by his sobriety, assiduity and long acquaintance with the duties of his profession, has acquired a character equalled by few, and surpassed by no person in this part of the country. This gentleman is for the two last years, superintendent the North Mineral Spring Academy; he has taught in several other parts of the state, and has always been highly valued for the mildness and regularity which were observed in his schools, as well as the uncommon proficiency of his pupils. An assistant will very soon be employed. Board, in genteel families, can be had very convenient to the Academy, at about fifty or sixty dollars. Tuition for classical scholars will be ten dollars; for English scholars seven dollars and fifty cents: each session to be paid in advance. The Academy is situated on a beautiful eminence, and very convenient to one of the best springs perhaps in the world. The trustees flatter themselves, that from the high, airy and healthy situation of this Academy, the cheapness of board, and the high and commanding character of the gentleman selected to superintend it, that parents and guardians will find it a very eligible situation, in which to place their children and wards. The trustees pledge themselves to pay strict attention to the morals of the students, and their deportment in every other respect. WILLIAM M. SNEED, Sec'y. December 1st, 1813. 51 1st tob
