LOST,

SOMETIME in the month of September last, a Note of Hand executed by Henry P. Chambers to Miram Combs, for the sum of one hundred dollars, payable the 25th of December, 1812, with a condition at the bottom, stating, that if the said Note should not be discharged by Christmas, 1813, that the said Henry P. Chambers, should pay fifty dollars over and above the first sum of one hundred dollars.—I hereby forwarn all persons from trading for the said Note, and the said Chambers from paying the same to any person but myself, or order.

JOHN JOHNSTON, JUN.
Assignee of William Combs.

Person county, Feb. 17.

State of North-Carolina,

GRANVILLE COUNTY.

THE last will and testament of Howell Lewis, sen' was proven at the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, held for the county aforesaid, on the first Monday of February, and letters testamentary granted to the subscriber by said court as executor thereof. All persons having claims or demands against the said Howell Lewis, sen'r, as aforesaid, are hereby notified to make them known within the time limited by the acts of Assembly concerning the proving of wills and granting letters of administration, or they will be barred of recovery.

WILLIS LEWIS, Ex'r.

February 10, 1814.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

STRAYED or Stolen from the subscriber about the 1st of December, a dun coloured Horse, about 4 feet 8 or 9 inches high, with a thick black mane and tail, the latter cut short, well made, trot and paces, with a bay spot on his near rump about the size of a dollar. I will give the above reward for the delivery of the said horse.

DREW YOUNG.

Sootland Neck, Feb. 19.

INTERESTING SALE.

BY an act of the last General Assembly of this state, Commissioners were appointed for the purpose of designing and causing to be erected, on the public land adjoining the city of Raleigh, a commodious dwelling house, and all necessary out houses, for the accommodation of the Chief Magistrate of the state; and, to enable them to raise a fund adequate to the object, they are authorized to sell, at auction, the lot and improvements at present occupied by the Governor; and also a considerable portion of the public lands adjoining the city.—By virtue of this act of Assembly, and according to its tenor, the undersigned commissioners will commence the sale of said lot and lands, on the fourteenth day of May next, on the premises.

The terms of sale (consistent with the provisions of the act) will be specified at the time of sale.

The lot occupied by the Governor is thought to be the best situation for stores of any in the city, and is susceptible of divisions, so as to form several advantageous stands for mercantile or other business; and the dwelling house and out houses are so arranged as not to interfere with sites for store houses, but are well calculated to accommodate the family of a man who wishes to carry on business. Whether this lot will be sold all together or by parcels, will be made known hereafter. The lands are divided into lots of various sizes, of from about half an acre to ten or twelve acres. Many of the lots are well watered by branch springs—some of them comprehend excellent meadow ground.—A large proportion of the land is in wood, & of a beautiful soil. There are many handsome situations for elegant seats; and some branches well suited to the convenience and facility of carrying on several of the trades and employments which require the use of water. Indeed the variety of situation is such as to suit either the fancy or occupation of almost every person disposed to settle in or about the city.

RANAWAY

FROM the subscriber, on the 13th inst. a Mulatto Man, between 21 and 22 years of age, about six feet high, by the name of JACK—Said Negro had on when he went away a dark striped homespun coat, pantaloons of the same, and a drab broad-cloth vest. I conjecture he is in Rockingham county, not far from the High Rock Ford, on Haw-river, about a Mr. Hill's, son of Samuel Hill, Esq who has his wife. Any person who will apprehend said Negro and confine him in gaol, so that I get him, shall be reasonably rewarded.

AARON EVANS.

Chatham county, March 17th, 1814.

A House and Lot

For sale in the City of Raleigh.

THE subscriber wishes to sell his house and Lot on the East side of Fayetteville street, directly opposite the lower Well, and about fifty yards from the market house. It is one of the best stands for a Store in Town; has two store rooms, one of them in one of the front rooms of the Dwelling house, and the other is a house detached from the main building; the Dwelling house is large and spacious; containing six rooms and a good framed Kitchen, smoke house, &c. on the lot together with a good garden spot, perhaps as any in town, for its size. Any person wishing to purchase will apply to the subscriber, living on the premises, where the terms will be made known.

B. S. KING.

One Hundred Dollars Reward.

ON the 9th inst. a man calling himself James T. Kenney purchased of me a Bay mare, and passed to me a Note against Stephen Langley, of Beaufort county, for 67 dollars, which has proved to be a forgery. There is no doubt he was the forger of it. Said Kenney had been employed at Washington for some months as a distiller and was about returning, as he said, home to Kentucky, but it is likely he will make for Georgia. He is about six feet high, very fresh complexion, dark hair, blue eyes, sharp pointed nose, and has a scar under his left cheek, received, as he said, in a fight—he wore a great coat with a large cape, of a reddish brown, homespun cloth, and surtout and pantaloons of mixed homespun; he had with him a bay Stead horse, with wite on the fore part of his nose, well quartered, about 15 hands high; he is often boasting of the speed of said horse and is very fond of playing at cards and a great drinker of spirits. Whoever will apprehend the said Kenney and bring him to me shall receive the above reward, or seventy-five dollars for lodging him in any jail in this state, so that I can prosecute him as the law directs.—Since he left this place I have understood that he said the stud he had belonged to a Mr. Powell, near Raleigh.

JOSEPH BLOUNT.

Greensville, Pitt county, march 14, 1814. 12

The Editors of the State papers of Tennessee, Kentucky, South-Carolina and Georgia, are requested to insert this advertisement four times and forward their accounts to me at this place, and they shall be punctually paid.

NOTICE.

MY Horse broke loose at Raleigh about the 15th of Feb. and went on to Granville.—On his passage the Saddle and Bridle were taken off or lost. The Saddle was nearly new, plated before and behind, and plated stirrup irons—the foretree broke & mended with iron; the hind tree was also broke—a blanket was under the saddle, scaring over it.

STEPHEN SATTERWHITE.

Salem Female Boarding School

THE Trustees for the Boarding School for Female Education in Salem, Stokes County, North-Carolina, under the Rev. Abraham Steiner, deem it their duty to give notice to such parents and guardians, as may have it in contemplation to send themselves or their children, that the summary is at present very much crowded, and a sufficient number of candidates on the list for the vacancies which may take place in the course of at least 3 months and to refer them particularly to that part of the terms of the institution, in which it is requested, that no Child may be brought or sent without previous application having been made to the Inspector, the Rev. Abraham Steiner, and leave obtained by him in writing, appointing the time of admittance.
