Valuable Property for Sale.

WILL be sold by the subscriber, on very reasonable terms, the Lots and Houses of Public Entertainment, in the town of Oxford, reserved by him when the town was established on his lands. The property possesses superior advantages which will always secure to the proprietor a preference of custom, each lot being contiguous to the court-yard, and handsomely situated; upon one of which are two commodious houses, two stories high, containing thirteen rooms for the accommodation of gentlemen of the bar and others who wish retirement; with every necessary out-house, and a garden and yard occupying nearly four acres. Upon the other lot there is a Tavern house, which is about to be repaired and enlarged, a spacious framed stable besides other houses, and a horse lot adjoining, which will be extended to any size the purchaser may desire, to which will be added as much land, convenient to the town, as may be required for fire-wood and pasture. As any general description of the premises will necessarily prove unsatisfactory to strangers who may be desirous to purchase such property, they are invited to view it. The subscriber will also sell lots of ground, to suit the purchaser, adjoining the town, and convenient to the Oxford Academy, which affords to its patrons the prospect of becoming a flourishing institution.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

A WAGGONER by the name of Ferguson, as well as I can remember, left a BOX of MEDICINE at my store about four years ago, who said he received it from a Mr. Wall, of Steubenville County, Virg. with instructions to deliver it as aforesaid where the owner would apply for it. His charge I think was thirty-seven and a half cents for the Waggonage. The said Box has remained ever since in my Lumber House, unopened. It should have been advertised sooner, but as an excuse I have to say I seldom thought of it, and then did not so well know what steps to take. The owner will come forward and pay the expenses of advertising, and the waggonage and take it away, otherwise I will open it and with the advice of a Physician, value it for the benefit of any claimant who may hereafter apply.

Twenty-Five Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY from Raleigh a month or two ago, a mulatto man named ANTHONY, well known in Raleigh, and many parts of the State, as having been for several years the body servant of Gen. Jones, and more lately as a pressman and news carrier in the Star Office. Anthony is about 25 or 26 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high, is a mongrel white, tawny and negro, has a tolerably large aquiline nose, bushy hair, though sometimes he cuts it short, has a scar on one of his cheeks, when in a good humour has a pleasing countenance, but if intoxicated the Tuscarora shows itself.—He works and waxes fast, is lively and talkative, full of anecdote which he relates in character with much humor, is an excellent pressman, indifferent at distributing type, a tolerable carpenter and joiner, a plain painter, an excellent manager of horses, drives well and rides elegantly, having been accustomed to race riding, is fond of cock-fighting, (and of man fighting when drunk) and is said to heel and pit with much skill; he can bleed and pull teeth, knows something of Medicine, is a rough barber, a bad but concocted cook, a good sawyer, can lay bricks, has worked in the corn field, and can scratch "high ball" and "tobacco hills" a little on the fiddle. He can do many other things and whatever he can't do, he pretends to have a knowledge of. His trades and qualities are thus detailed because his vanity will undoubtedly lead to a display of them. His master vice, or rather the parent of all his vices, is a fondness for strong drink, though sometimes he will abstain for months. His clothes cannot be described, but he carried away few or none, and his expected will appear shabby. He is an artful fellow, and if taken up will tell a most plausible story, and possibly show a forged pass. Whoever will apprehend said slave and secure him in any Jail so that his owner can obtain him, shall on application at the Star Office receive the above reward and all necessary expenses.

Raleigh, Sept 20, 814

For Sale,

215 acres of land lying on the south side of Neuse river, two miles above the Fall Bridge, and about 13 miles north of Raleigh. The above land is equal to any on Neuse river, and is adapted to the culture of corn, wheat, cotton and tobacco, which will be sold low for cash, or a short credit. Also for sale 170 acres adjoining said tract.

100 acres given in by Barnett Brown, lying on the waters of Richland creek, adjoining Samuel Miggins, jr. for 1811 and 12.

313 do given in by William Moore, lying on Uhary river, adjoining Phillip Edwards and Charles Morgan, for 1810, 11 and 12.

Fifteen Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY from the subscriber on the 6th of Sept. a yellow negro named CLEM, about 40 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, well made, has a large naked place on the back part of his head, occasioned by a burn, he was born in Granville county, it is probable he will attempt to pass for a freeman, as he is a bright molatto.—Perhaps he may have a pass or a recommendation of some sort. The above reward will be given to any person who will deliver the said Clem to me, or secure him in any Jail so that I get him again. I rather suspect that the said slave was carried away by a man named Nathl. Thornton, as he left here about that time.

Fifteen Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY from the subscriber, living in Cabarrus Co. on the 7th of June last, a Negro man named Frank, about 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high, 27 or 28 years of age, strong and well made, of a yellow complexion, has the letter O on his forehead, and is a little lame in the left leg, has a pleasant countenance, talks plain and intelligible, but when interrogated closely, speaks in a stammering manner. It is likely he will make for William Bush, in Montgomery county, of whom I bought him about 3 years ago. All persons are forewarned not to harbor him, as I am determined to prosecute them agreeably to law. Whoever will take up said Negro and secure him in jail so that I get him again, or bring him home, shall be entitled to the above reward and all reasonable expenses paid.

Extract of a letter from Mr. Adams, dated Ghent, June 30, 1814.

"I arrived at Ruvel and wrote from thence on the 12th May, and was detained by head winds and ice until the 25th May. I landed at Stockholm. I arrived at Gottenburg on the 6th of June. Mr. Russell arrived three days after. On the 11th of June we embarked on board the John Adams for the Texel; we had a passage of six days; landed at the Helder and came by land through Amsterdam, the Hague, and Antwerp to this city, where we arrived on the 24th inst. Three days after us arrived Mr. Bayard, and the succeeding day Mr. Clay; we are still expecting Mr. Gallatin.

The British commissioners are Admiral Lord Gambier, Mr. Adam and Mr. Gouldsburn; we expect them in the course of a few days, and shall then be ready to enter on the serious business of our mission.

The emperor Alexander passed through this city yesterday, on his return from England; but as he went through without stopping, I had not the opportunity of being presented to him. He is the Titus of the age, "the delight of human kind."

London, June 28.

The thanks of both Houses of Parliament were, for the thirteenth time, voted with acclamation to the Duke of Wellington yesterday for his glorious services. It was stated by Lord Castlereagh, that the Duke of Marlborough had received the Thanks of Parliament six times only, while the Duke of Wellington had already been awarded that honor twelve times.
