Twenty-Five Dollars Reward.

RUNAWAY from Raleigh, a mulatto man named ANTHONY, well known in Raleigh, and many parts of the State, as having been for several years the body servant of Gen. Jones, and more lately as a pressman and news carrier in the Star Office. Anthony is about 25 or 26 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high, is a mongrel white, tawny and negro, has tolerably large aquiline nose, bushy hair, though sometimes he cuts it short, has a scar on one of his cheeks, when in a good humour has a pleasing countenance, but if intoxicated the Tuscarora shows itself—He works and walks fast, is lively and talkative, full of mischief which he relates in character with much humor, is an excellent pressman, indifferent at distributing type, a tolerable carpenter and joiner, a plain painter, an excellent manager of horses, drives well and rides elegantly, having been accustomed to race riding, is fond of cockfighting, (and of man fighting when drunk) and is said to be a good boxer, he can bleed and pull teeth, knows something of Medicine, is a rough barber, a bad but conceited cook, a good Sawyer, can lay brick, lay worked in the corn field, and can scratch a night job, and "tobacco hills" a little on the fiddle. He can do many other things and whatever he can't do, he pretends to have a knowledge of. His trades and qualities are thus detailed because his vanity will undoubtedly lead to a display of them. His master vice, or rather the parent of all his vices, is a fondness for strong drink, though sometimes he will abstain for months. His clothes cannot be described, but he carried away few or none, and is expected will appear shabbily. He is an artful fellow, and if taken up will tell a most plausible story, and possibly show a forged pass. Whoever will apprehend said slave and secure him in any Jail so that his owner can obtain him, shall on application at the Star Office receive the above reward and all necessary expenses. Raleigh, Sept. 20, 1814.

THE sale of land for taxes, &c. in Montgomery county, specified in my advertisement bearing date the 25th day of July last, in page 137 of the Star, and the two numbers following, is postponed to the FOURTH DAY OF NOVEMBER NEXT, which will take place at the Court-House in the town of Henderson, at which time said place will also be sold the following lands in said county, for taxes due thereon for the years 1809, 1810, 1811 and 1812, or so much thereof as will pay said taxes and charges, to-wit: 100 acres given in by Barnett Brown, lying on the waters of Richard's creek, adjoining Samuel Higginson, jr. for 1811 and 12. 50 acres given in by William Moore, lying on Uhary river, adjoining Phillip Edwards and Charles Morgan, for 1810, 11 and 12. 65 acres given in by Mary Baston, lying on the waters of Brown creek, adjoining James Sedbury and others, for 1809, 20, 11 and 12. It is likely he will make for William Bush's in Montgomery county, of whom I bought him about 8 years ago. All persons are forewarned not to harbor him, as I am determined to prosecute them agreeably to law. Whoever will take up said Negro and secure him in jail so that I get him again, or bring him home, shall be entitled to the above reward and all reasonable expenses paid. JOHN BAKER. Perhaps he may have a pass or a recommendation of some sort. The above reward will be given to any person who will deliver the said Clem to me, or secure him in any Jail so that I get him again. I rather suppose that the said slave was carried away by a man named Nathl. Thornton, as he left here about that time. G. D. HOLCOMB. Huntville, Surry county, Sept. 12, 1814. 38 31.

A WAGGONER by the name of Ferguson, as well as I can remember, left a BOX of MEDICINE at my store about four years ago, who said he received it from a Mr. Wall, of Mecklenburg County, Virg. with instructions to deliver it as aforesaid where the owner would apply for it. His charge I think was thirty-seven and a half cents for the wagonage. The said box has remained ever since in my Lumber house, unopened. The owner will come forward and pay the expenses of advertising and the wagonage and take it away, otherwise I shall open it, and with the advice of a Physician, value and sell it for the benefit of any claimant who may hereafter apply.
