He flatters himself from the faithful execution of his work, that he can give general satisfaction to those who may favour him with their commands; and fully assures them that he will use every effort to accommodate.

N. B. He wants an apprentice to the above business; an active lad of 14 or 15 years of age would be preferred. Raleigh, 30th Sept. 1814. 39 1f

Twenty-Five Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY from Raleigh a month or two ago, a mulatto man named ANTHONY, well known in Raleigh, and many parts of the State, as having been for several years the body servant of Gen. Jones, and more lately as a pressman and news carrier in the Star Office. Anthony is about 25 or 26 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high, is a mongrel white, tawny and negro, has a tolerably large aquiline nose, bushy hair, though sometimes he cuts it short, has a scar on one of his cheeks, when in a good humour has a pleasing countenance, but if intoxicated the tawny shows itself.—He works and waits fast, is lively and talkative, full of anecdotes which he relates in character with much humor, is an excellent pressman, indifferent at dismounting type, a tolerable carpenter and joiner, a plain painter, an excellent manager of horses, drives well and rides elegantly, having been accustomed to race riding, is fond of cockfighting, (and of man fighting when drunk) and is said to heel and pit with much skill; he can bleed and pull teeth, knows something of Medicines, is a rough harper, a bad but concocted cook, a good sawyer, can lay brick, has worked in the corn field, and can scratch "high top" and "tobacco hills" a little on the fiddle. He can do many other things and whatever he can't do, he pretends to have a knowledge of. His trades and qualities are thus detailed because his vanity will undoubtedly lead to a display of them. His master vice, or rather the parent of all his vices, is a fondness for strong drink, though sometimes he will abstain for months. His clothes cannot be described, but he carries away few or none, and 'tis expected will appear shabby. He is an artful fellow, and if taken up will tell a most plausible story, and possibly show a forged pass. Whoever will apprehend said slave and secure him in any Jail so that his owner can obtain him, shall on application at the Star Office receive the above reward and all necessary expenses. Raleigh, Sept. 20, 1814.
