Valuable Property for Sale.
WILL be sold by the subscriber, on very reasonable terms, the Lots and Houses of Public Entertainment, in the town of Oxford, reserved by him when the town was established on his lands. The property possesses superior advantages which will always secure to the proprietor a preference of custom, each lot being contiguous to the court-yard, and handsomely situated; upon one of which are two commodious houses, two stories high, containing thirteen rooms for the accommodation of gentlemen of the bar and others who wish retirement; with every necessary out-house, and a garden and yard occupying nearly four acres. Upon the other lot there is a Tavern house, which is about to be repaired and enlarged, a capacious framed stable besides other houses, and a horse lot adjoining, which will be extended to any size the purchaser may desire, to which will be added as much land, convenient to the town, as may be required for fire-wood and pasture. As a general description of the premises will necessarily prove unsatisfactory to strangers who may be desirous to purchase such property, they are invited to view it. The subscriber will also sell lots of ground, to suit the purchaser, adjoining the town, and convenient to the Oxford Academy, which affords to its patrons the prospect of becoming a flourishing institution.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RUNAWAY from the subscriber some time in April last, two negroes, a man and woman, the fellow named NED about thirty five years of age, of a light complexion talks broken, has lost some of his fore teeth, slow of speech, has a down look, and a small scar on his nose, he is about five feet eight or nine inches high, he took with him a quantity of clothing, among which was a dark coloured yarn home spun great coat, a light mixed do. with a black cape, his other clothing not recollected.—His wife as he calls her, named HETTY, is about seventeen or eighteen years of age, a light complexion, thick and truncky and is very likely, her clothing not recollected. The above described negroes I have reason to believe were stolen and sold to Solomon Nevil of the county of Orange, by a James H. Harrison, as he said that was his name, but I suspect his right name was Houser. The above Negroes I suspect will be sent off by said Nevil, as he refused to let me see them. Any person apprehending said Negroes and will deliver them to me in Northampton County, N. C. shall receive the above reward, or half price if they are secured in any goal so that I can get them. This therefore may forward any person buying of them as I shall ever contend for them as my property.

HOWELL EDMUNDS, For ELIZABETH EDMUNDS.

Northampton, Oct. 4, 1814. 41-4f.

Thirty Dollars Reward.

RUNAWAY from the subscriber, on the 11th instant, a Negro fellow named OLIVER, tolerably stout built and well made, aged about 27 years but looks young for that age, having very little beard, about 5 feet 8 inches high; he is a tolerably black fellow, with a very pleasing, smiling countenance, is very polite and courteous in his address, has rather a soft, effeminate voice, and has a short quick step when he walks. He has for several years past been employed as a waiter in the public house kept at this place, and carried with him stonery articles of very good cloathing which cannot be described. He took off with him a dark cheanut sorrel horse, (at that time much sun burnt, and in low order) about 4 feet 10 or 11 inches high with a white face, and a scar under his right eye, about 7 or 8 years old. I will give the above reward for securing the above described negro fellow, so that I get him again; all proper expences if brought home and a reasonable compensation for such information as may enable me to regain the horse. As he ran away without any cause whatever, I am apprehensive he has been furnished with free papers, and will make his way towards Newbern, or some other seaport town.
