RALEIGH, FRIDAY, APRIL 7, 1815.

[Three Dollars per annum.

Books and Stationary.

BOTLAN & SLOAN, expect to receive in two days, nearly five thousand dollars worth of Books and Stationary purchased since peace, at Philadelphia and New-York, which they intend to sell at the old reduced prices. They have for sale, White Clover, Timothy, Orchard Grass, H. rd's Grass and Garden Seeds. Raleigh, March 30. 31-13.

Copartnership Dissolved.

THE Copartnership for carrying on the mercantile business, which existed under the firm of BRANDON & TRAVIS, is dissolved, by the death of Mr Brandon:—the surviving partner wishes to close the Books of said concern as soon as the nature of the case will admit of, and therefore requests all those who are indebted to said firm to call and close their accounts, at or before the ending of May Court. All those that fail to comply with this notice, I hope they will not think it amiss, if they should be called upon by an officer for the money. JOHN TRAVIS, Surviving Partner. Salisbury N. C. March 22. 31-13.

EDWARD PRIDE, Ex'r. & Adm'r.
March 14, 1815. 11-41.
N. B. The Sale will be continued from day to day until finished.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RUNAWAY from the subscriber in Pitt county, about the 7th of February last, a Negro fellow by the name of TONEY, about twenty years of age, slender built, it is believed about five feet ten inches high when he went off; he was prepared with a knap sack, provision and a pass to come from Pitt county to the owner's plantation in Wake county. He was raised in Pitt county, but it is suspected he is gone either alone or in company with some white man to some other state. The above reward will be given to any person who will secure him in any goal and forward me information so that I get him.
JOSEPH EANE, Jun'r.
Raleigh; 20th March, 1815. 12-31-p

Twenty-five Dollars Reward.

RUNAWAY from the subscriber on the night of the 9th instant, a negro man named TOM, about 22 years old, yellow complexion, near six feet high, straight built, speaks very plain when unembarrassed, but stammers a little if alarmed, has very thick lips—it is likely he will attempt to pass as a free man, as I have reason to believe he has a free pass—I think it likely he will attempt to go to Norfolk in Virginia. I will give the above reward for the said negro if delivered to me in Wayne County, and pay all reasonable expenses, or 15 dollars if secured in any jail in this State.
HOPTON COUR.
Wayne County, 22d Feb. 1815.

NOTICE.

THE long and severe indisposition of one acting partner in business, has brought on him such debility, as to make it necessary for the present, to curtail our pursuits.—We have consequently, sold our stock of Goods to Messrs. Parish and Wood, and are extremely anxious to close our Mercantile Accounts—I have therefore, indebted to us are seriously desired to call at the Computing Room of Messrs. P. and W. without delay and make payment.
S. C. BRAME & Co.
Raleigh, January 10, 1815. 2

Walter Jones' Domestic & Factory Loom.

THE patent right to this LOOM, so far as respects the State of North-Carolina, has been purchased by a Company of Gentlemen, who intend as soon as possible, to have constructed a number of the Looms for sale.—They will have Looms in operation to different parts of the State in the course of the ensuing Spring. Those persons who wish to purchase Looms will make application to Samuel C. Brame, at Raleigh, and the Looms will be sent to them at the expense of the Company.—The Company can with confidence recommend this Loom as one of the most useful improvements in the Domestic Arts, which has been made; fifteen or twenty yards can with ease be woven in a day of a thread, which is usually denominated "a twelve hundred," and of a thread denominated "a six hundred," from thirty to forty yards can be woven in the day. A person can learn the art of weaving on this Loom in two or three days. The whole process of weaving is carried on by the motion of the Batton. The Loom is simple in its construction, and easily kept in order.

Benevolent Society.

THE Members of the Benevolent Society are requested to attend a general meeting of said Society, at New-Hope, Franklin County, N. C. on Friday the 21st of April next. A general attendance of the members is particularly requested.
At the same time and place a Camp Meeting is contemplated.
ELI B. WHITAKER, Sec'y.
March 21, 1815. 13-41.

Twenty-five Dollars Reward.

RUNAWAY from the subscriber about the first of January last, a negro man by the name of BILLY; he is about 34 years of age, by trade a Carpenter, and has a large scar on his breast, occasioned by a burn received some years ago.—A more particular description is deemed unnecessary, as he was raised in the County of Halifax, where I am well persuaded he is now lurking, and is well known. Said Negro has a wife at Mr. Kemp Plummer's Plantation, near the town of Halifax. I will give the above reward for the apprehension and delivery of said negro to me in Raleigh.
A. S. H. BURGESS.
March 7, 1815. 10-41.

Late Star Concern.

ALL persons indebted to the late concern of Jones & Henderson, for the News-Papers, Almanacks, Job-Printing, Blanks, Advertising, Goods, Books, or in any other way, are requested to make payment immediately. Mr. Robert Stanger is authorized to receive money and grants discharges, and will at all times be at my Office. Money forwarded by mail as heretofore, will be duly applied and receipts returned. If more money is at any time enclosed for the Star by any present Subscriber than is sufficient to discharge the account for the same to the first of January last, the balance will be applied to his credit on the Books of Tho. Henderson, Jun. and receipts therefor duly returned.
CALVIN JONES.
Raleigh, February 6, 1815.

NOTICE.

PURSUANT to the requisites of an act of the General Assembly of 1813, entitled "An act to provide for the better accommodation of the Governors of this state," the undersigned commissioners sold part only of the public land adjoining the city of Raleigh.—The greater part, and by far the most valuable, remains yet to be sold.—and the powers of the commissioners being enlarged by a resolution of the last Legislature, they hereby give notice that on the twelfth day of May next, and thence following, the land so remaining, will be sold at public auction, on the premises, at six and twelve months credit;—the purchaser giving bond with sufficient security, payable to the Governor and negotiable at the State Bank. This land is well watered and contains many beautiful scites for buildings. It is laid off into convenient lots of various sizes—many of which are thickly set with large forest growth; and several of them are good for meadows.
