A BARGAIN.

THE Subscriber offers for sale that valuable and well known Plantation, in Columbus County, called Marsh Castle, joining the town of Whiteville, containing upwards of two thousand acres of land, about two hundred of which is cleared and under a good fence, as to the fertility of the soil and the great advantages as to range for cattle and hogs, it is acknowledged by all who know it to surpass any place in the lower part of the State. It is expected that no person will purchase without viewing the premises, a further description in that case is unnecessary. Also, the improved lot now live on in the town of Whiteville, and eighteen lots unimproved, of which join the public square and not more than five rods from the court house. Also, nine hundred acres of land one and a half miles from said town of Whiteville, about twenty acres cleared, under a good fence, on which is a good Grist Mill, well fixed on a good mill race, calculated for bolting Flour and working a Cotton Machine. Also, five hundred acres of land in the Wake County, about fifteen miles from Whiteville, on the Wake County river, on which is a Saw and Grist Mill, a small framed house, and out houses, and a quantity of good timber, the lumber can be rafted at the mill in small rafts taken about half a mile to the river, the navigation is good to Georgetown, South Carolina, what is remarkable the Pond covers 2000 acres of land, a rich Swamp, the growth is all dead, and may be put in like whittle trouble, and I think I can venture to assert that there is no place in North Carolina so pure for fresh water fish. Also, between fifteen and twenty thousand acres of land in different parts of Columbus and Bladen Counties, which abound with lightwood and white oak timber. Also, twenty-seven negroes, twenty one of which are fellows and boys, eighty head of cattle, fifty do sheep, ten head of horses, household furniture, stock of hogs, two sets of Blacksmith tools, and plantation tools all of which will be sold low for cash or exchanged for Bank Stock in the Banks of Cape Fear & Newbern, or the State Bank of North Carolina. Any one purchasing the plantation can have the crop that will be made on the place this year if wanted, those wishing to purchase or exchange for the above property or any part will do well to apply soon, possession will be given at any time, any letters directed to me at Whiteville, Columbus County, N. C. on the subject will be strictly attended to.

Valuable Estate for Sale.

BY Virtue of a Decree of the Court of the town of Danville in Virginia, and Nancy Debow his wife, and of record in the County Court of Pittsylvania, for the purpose of securing certain monies to the State Bank of North Carolina. Will be sold to the highest bidder on the premises on Saturday the 29th day of July next the very valuable merchant Mills, Looms, Lows, Toll Bridge, Distillery and Tannery, owned or occupied by the said Debow at or near Danville. The estate offers to encompass men the strongest inducements to become the purchasers of it—it is situated immediately on Dan River, the navigation of which will certainly be improved at no distant period and boats—The Mills consist of a merchant grist mill with two pair of stones, and two excellent cloths and a Saw Mill upon the most approved construction—all new in complete order—They stand on a canal supplied from the river, which never fails, and they are perfectly safe from fires—The adjacent country is rich and productive, and the population flourishing—all kinds of grain can be had in abundance in the neighbourhood on the best terms, and the town affords a ready market for all the lumber that can be cut at the Saw Mill—the millhouse is large convenient and new finished house, being 64 by 32 with every necessary appendage for a distillery of the largest and best kind. The bridge is a very desirable property, being across Dan river, immediately at the town. It is now under repair and will be completed before the day of sale, of good materials—The tolls have amounted on an average to $1000 annually for the last five years, and have been gradually increasing. Of the bridge two undivided third parts (being Mr. Debow's interest) will be sold. The interest contains 262 3/4 acres which almost entirely surrounds the town of Danville, and extend on the river about one mile, containing about 600 acres or more of river low grounds of the best quality, about 20 acres of which are heavily timbered—the balance of the tract is up and mostly in woods, and well timbered—On this land besides the mills, bridge and distillery is a large and commodious dwelling house in good repair being 34 feet square, and having eight rooms and six fire places, with every necessary and convenient out house in good order for a family—also a valuable Tannery having a sufficiency of vats of every description now sunk to carry on the business—extensively a good tanners shop and out houses, a oream house, bark house, curriers shop, bark mill and every other convenience. The tannery is now under lease for a term to expire in May 1817, at which time actual possession can be had, and in the mean while the purchaser to have the benefit of lease. The sale will be in lots to suit purchasers. The terms will be cash for 1/3, balance under three hundred dollars, for all above 300 a credit of 6, 12, and 18 months. The purchasers to give notes negotiable at the State Bank of North Carolina at Raleigh, bearing interest from the date, with three approved names, two of whom at least shall reside in N. Carolina.

Walter James' Domestic & Factory Loom.

THE patent right to this LOOM, so far as respects the State of North Carolina, has been purchased by a Company of Gentlemen, who intend as soon as possible, to have constructed a number of the Looms for sale.
