NORTH-CAROLINA;

Treasury Office, Sept. 1, 1815.

THE acknowledged faithfulness and punctuality with which the Sheriffs of the several counties of the State aforesaid have, for years past, accounted for the public Taxes, would seem to supersede the necessity of the customary annual advertisement. The Public Treasurer therefore holds he will have done all that is necessary when he reminds the Sheriffs now in office, that the laws require the amount of the public Taxes shall be paid into the Treasury on or before the first day of October in each and every year.
