Vol. VII.—No. 52.]

RALEIGH, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1815.

[Three Dollars per annum.]

State of North-Carolina, Greene County.

Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions, November Term 1815.
Joseph Whitley vs. William Murphy—ORIGINAL ACTION, levied in the hands of Isaac Ward and Garnish.

It appearing to the satisfaction of the court, that William Murphy, the defendant in this case, is not an inhabitant of this State—it is ordered that public notice be given three months in the Star paper, that unless he be seen and heard at the Court House, at the next Court, to be held for the county of Greene, at the Court House in Snow Hill, on the second Monday in February next, reply and plead to issue, final judgment will be entered up against him.

Attest,
J. HOOKER, C. C.

Notice.

In obedience to a decree made by the Honorable the Judge of the Court of Equity for the county of Edgecombe and State of North-Carolina, in a suit wherein Joseph Arrington and others were complainants and the heirs of Robert Hicks and others were defendants—will be sold by the Sheriff of the county of Edgecombe at the Court House in the town of Tarboro, on Saturday the 6th day of January, 1816, a tract of LAND, containing 150 acres more or less, situate in said county on the south side of Tar-river, and adjoining the lands of Ed Hicks, Henry Hicks and others, being parcel of the tract of land purchased by James Hicks the elder of John Flowers; Also at the same time and place, will be sold the Mill seat at the falls of Tar-river, well known for its advantages which it possesses, being situated on a never failing stream, and a thickly settled neighborhood. Twelve and eighteen months credit will be allowed the purchaser, bond with approved security payable to the Clerk and Master of the Court of Equity of Edgecombe county will be required.

Saddle & Harness Makers.

CLAUKE & SMITH, from Petersburg, Va. beg leave to inform the citizens of Raleigh, and all others who may wish to be furnished with Saddles, Bridles and Harness, in the first style of elegance, that they have taken a permanent stand nearly opposite the Star Office, where they assure all concerned, that they have the best materials, and are determined to execute their work in the most faithful manner, on reasonable terms; and by their attention to business, hope to deserve the patronage of the public. They have brought with them a very last and improved assortment of Saddle and Harness Moulding, improved the fall in the different arrivals in Virginia. Orders from the town or country will be executed with punctuality and dispatch.

November 10th, 1815.

RECOMMENDATION:
Wm. W. Mason, having declined the above branch of business, takes this opportunity to recommend to his customers, and others, Messrs. Clarke and Smith, as Saddle and Harness Makers. He has no hesitation in saying they are good workmen and have sufficient means to execute their work in a faithful manner.

November 10.

New Goods.

THE subscribers under the firm of Satterwhite & Travis, have just received from Philadelphia and other northern markets, (at their Store on main street Salisbury, one door west of Mr. Brown's) a very complete assortment of choice GOODS suited to the season, (and of the latest importation from Europe); all of which they are determined to sell at the most reasonable prices. They return their best thanks to their friends and the public generally, for the very liberal encouragement they have received, and hope their strict punctuality in business will ensure a continuance of patronage. Orders from the country for any articles in our line of business will be punctually attended to.

For Sale,

THE Lot, No. 133, with its improvements, on which Woody Martin now lives. This lot is a corner lot and pleasantly situated, suitable for either a private or public dwelling. Having for its west front one of the public squares—is freed from disagreeable neighbors, or any obstruction of air from that quarter. It has on it an excellent Well, abundantly supplied with water, through an aperture of a rock on which it stands—a plain built dwelling house, with suitable out houses, and otherwise tolerably improved. But as those who may wish to purchase would in all probability view the premises before they purchased, it would be useless here to give a further description. The terms may be known by applying to

FOR SALE AT THE STAR OFFICE.

Valuable Lands for Sale, in S. Carolina.

THE Subscriber offers for sale his Valuable and highly Improved Plantation on the East side of Great-Pedee, containing 2000 Acres. About 300 acres are cleared and the greater part under fence, including High River Swamp (of which about 80 acres are cleared) and high land with a considerable quantity of clear. The premises are, a comfortable dwelling house, stone house, cotton house and other necessary out buildings, and negro houses sufficient to contain 80 negroes. This plantation is valuable for cotton, and affords the best range of any lands in this quarter. Also for sale, a tract of land on the West side of Pedee, containing 1125 acres of well timbered Pine Land, well calculated for Naval Stores, and lying contiguous to a Mill Seat, and within one mile of the River. Also, His Lot of Several acres of Land, at Marion Court House, on which is a commodious dwelling house, stone house, ware house, and other necessary out houses. This is an excellent stand for the Mercantile Business, and in a very healthy and improving Village. Another tract of land, adjoining the above plantation, is likewise offered for sale, containing 2500 acres, lying on both sides of Pedee River, on which is 100 acres cleared and under fence, with a comfortable dwelling house and other necessary out buildings. On this tract is a valuable Mill Seat, (the dam already made) within one mile of a landing, and a quantity of well timbered pine land, convenient to the same. This is a valuable property, being near a Market and so convenient to Navigation. On the premises is also a Ferry, where a Stage Coach could be carried on to great advantage. These lands are situated 55 miles from Georgetown, 8 miles from Marion Court House, and possess advantages that cannot be well here described. Great bargains will be offered, if early application is made, as the proprietors wish to remove from the State.

Apply on the premises to Mr. Joseph Birch or to the Subscriber.

Walter James' Domestic & Factory Looms.

THE patent right to this LOOM, so far as respects the State of North-Carolina, has been purchased by a Company of Gentlemen, who intend as soon as possible, to have constructed a number of the Looms for sale. They will have Looms in operation in different parts of the State in the course of the ensuing Spring. Those persons who wish to purchase Looms, will make application to Samuel C. Francis, at Raleigh, and the Looms will be sent to them at the expense of the Company. The Company can with confidence recommend this Loom as one of the most useful improvements in the Domestic Arts, which has been made; fifteen or twenty yards can with ease be woven in a day, of a thread which is usually denominated "a twelve hundred," and of a thread denominated "a six hundred," from thirty to forty yards can be woven in the day. A person can learn the art of weaving on this Loom in two or three days. The whole process of weaving is carried out by the motion of the Baton. The Loom is simple in its construction, and easily kept in order.

Valuable Land.

THE subscriber having in contemplation to enter into the Mercantile business, offers for sale his plantation where he now resides, four miles above Fayetteville, between the Raleigh road and Cape Fear—containing 600 acres of land, including a comfortable dwelling house, and convenient out houses, with good peach and apple orchards, and several good springs contiguous to the house. A convenient stream runs through the land, on which is erected a new grist mill, with an elegant seat for a saw mill, with the gears and irons. The house stands on a high pleasant and healthy situation, and the garden is timbered with oak and pine. Also, attached to the above premises, is a valuable tract of land on the east side of the river, containing 200 acres not inferior to any in the county—about one half of which is now under cultivation, and well fenced—with a barn, corncribs, and other convenient buildings. Also, one hundred acres of land on the west side of the river, about 6 miles above Fayetteville, the greater part of which is corn and cotton land, about 30 acres cleared. Several good springs, and a high, pleasant situation for a dwelling house. Also, 120 acres in Moore county, on Little River, the greater part of which is rich swamp land, and is situated a few miles above Morrison's bridge. For further particulars apply to the subscriber, at his residence, or to Nathan Harrison, merchant, Fayetteville.

FOR SALE,

A Tract of land adjoining the town of Williamsboro' containing 685 Acres. This land is of the best quality for tobacco, wheat and corn. It has a very good dwelling house, and all out houses in good repair. It is remarkable for its healthiness and will afford an eligible situation to him who may wish to educate a family, being within 400 yards of the Williamsborough Academy, or to him who may wish to cultivate the earth, entertain travellers, or keep a boarding house for the school. On this land and near the town are very good sites for a tan-yard and distillery.

Another tract four miles from the town of Williamsborough, containing 600 acres—This land has on it a good dwelling house for a small family; the land is of the best quality, but adapted to the growth of cotton, tobacco and corn in an ordinary degree. It is well watered and a healthy situation.

Another tract of land in Hertford county, on the river Meherrin, near the town of Murfreesborough, known by the Walnut Fields, of first rate low ground, containing 401 acres. For terms apply to Messrs. Murfree & Gordon of Murfreesborough, or to the subscriber in Williamsborough, Granville county. Terms will be made accommodating to purchasers.

Land for Sale.

THE subscriber offers for sale 1600 acres of LAND, about 14 miles west of Raleigh—There is on the premises a dwelling house with five rooms below stairs, a store house with a counting and lumber room—a saw-mill lately erected, with an old grist mill and cotton machine—in the winter season the mill pond covers a large quantity of land which may be drained and cultivated, and from some small experiments I have made I find it extremely productive—it produces a great deal of natural grass—I cut and cured last summer 50 loads of hay from a part of it—and those acquainted with rice suppose 1000 bushels might be made annually—The land lies on Neuse river and on both sides of Barton's creek—it is extremely well watered and timbered, and remarkably healthy. Also another tract about 90 miles from Raleigh, containing about 288 acres, good free corn land. On this tract there is also a grist mill, with a very neat and strong dam made of rocks, it grants but little in dry seasons, but a great deal in wet. I will sell the whole or a part, upon as accommodating terms as any purchaser could desire.
